BUCK SHOTS

- Milwaukee's 14 steals vs. Miami on Thursday were the most in a single playoff game for the Bucks since the 1987 postseason.
- Both Monta Ellis (T-1, 3.00 spg) and Brandon Jennings (5, 2.67 spg) rank in the top-5 in the playoffs for steals per game.
- Jennings and Dwyane Wade each had five steals in Thursday's game, which is the postseason single-game high for individual players.
- The Bucks' 26 attempts from behind the arc both last Sunday and Thursday tied Milwaukee's single-game postseason record (26 vs. ATL on 4/30/10).
- Mike Dunleavy had a postseason career night at Miami on Tuesday, as he set highs in points (16), field goals made (6), rebounds (6) and assists (5), and tied his career playoff high in steals (2).
- Larry Sanders had been an efficient scorer the last two games, going 13-for-17 from the field. He is second in the NBA for field goal percentage this postseason (.667).
- Milwaukee forced Miami into 19 turnovers in Game 1 and Game 3, well above the Heat's 13.94 turnover per game average with which they finished this season (4th in the NBA). Miami only had 11 games with 19+ turnovers during the regular season.

ALL-TIME PLAYOFF SERIES: 0-3
Home: 0-1 Road: 0-2

- The Bucks and the Heat have never met in the playoffs before this year. The 2012-13 postseason marks the Heat's 17th playoff appearance and their ninth in the last 10 seasons.
- The Heat led the league in field goal percentage (.496) and concluded the regular season ranked second in 3-point percentage (.396).
- Miami won the season series against Milwaukee 3-1. The Bucks averaged 96.8 ppg against the Heat, while Miami posted 99.8 ppg against Milwaukee.
- The Bucks ranked second in the league in blocked shots per game (6.71 bpg), while Miami allowed the fewest opponent blocks (3.20 opp. bpg) during the regular season.
- Heat guard Ray Allen played in Milwaukee for seven seasons (1996-part of 2002-03) and still holds the record for most 3-point field goals made in a game at the BMO Harris Bradley Center (10). Allen is also first on the Bucks all-time list for 3-point field goals made with 1,051.

Recent Games

April 25, 2013 — vs. Miami
Game 3 — 2013 Playoffs

L, 91-104 – Despite a balanced scoring effort in which six Bucks finished in double-figures, a third quarter burst by Miami put Milwaukee down 3-0 in the series. The Bucks led by as many as nine in the second quarter, but that advantage dwindled to two at the half, 50-48, after the Heat ended the quarter on an 8-2 run aided by two Ray Allen 3-pointers in the last 45 seconds. Milwaukee extended its lead back to six, 61-55, with 7:14 to play in the third quarter, but the Heat outscored the Bucks 23-7 from that point on to end the third frame up 78-68 and ensure a double-digit lead for the remainder of the game. Brandon Jennings and Larry Sanders each recorded 16 points to lead Milwaukee, while Sanders' 11 rebounds were also a team high. Ray Allen led the Heat with a 23-point effort off the bench. He went 5-of-8 from behind the arc en route to becoming the NBA's all-time leader in 3-PT FGM during the postseason.

April 23, 2013 — at Miami
Game 2 — 2013 Playoffs

L, 86-98 – Milwaukee was competitive through the first three frames, but a fourth-quarter burst from the Heat gave Miami the win. The Bucks trailed by only three, 68-65, after three quarters, but Miami posted a 12-0 run to start the fourth quarter. And, after falling behind 80-65, Milwaukee trailed by a double-digit margin for the rest of the game. Ersan Ilyasova led the Bucks with 21 points, while Mike Dunleavy came off the bench to contribute 16 points, six rebounds and five assists. Dwyane Wade led Miami in scoring with 21, followed closely by LeBron James who recorded 19 points. The Bucks shot 50.0% from the field compared to a 44.9% effort from the Heat, but trailed Miami in 3-point percentage (31.6% to 22.2%) and free throw percentage (84.6% to 58.5%). Despite turning the ball over 17 times to the Heat's 14, Milwaukee earned 23 points off Miami turnovers and led in fast break points 14 to 12.

MILWAUKEE BUCKS GAME NOTES – APRIL 28, 2013 – Round 1, Game 4

NEWS & NOTES …

IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED – After losing to the Heat on April 25, Milwaukee is now 21-22 in Game 3s of a playoff series. Looking ahead to Game 4, the Bucks are 20-25 all-time in games where they're facing elimination in the playoffs.

THE END OF ALL THINGS – With a 95-89 win at Oklahoma City on April 17, the Bucks concluded the regular season with an overall mark of 38-44, while Miami, which closed out the regular season with a win over Orlando, posted an NBA-best record of 66-16. Despite losing at home on April 15 vs. Denver, Milwaukee still finished the season with a 21-20 record at the BMO Harris Bradley Center – the fifth consecutive season the Bucks have had a .500 or better record at home.

STILL PLAYING – The 2012-13 postseason marks Milwaukee's 27th playoff berth in franchise history, and its first postseason appearance since the 2009-10 season. The Bucks are 104-117 (.471) all-time in the playoffs and are one of four teams in this year's postseason that did not qualify last year (along with Brooklyn, Golden State and Houston). The Bucks are 30-43 overall in Eastern Conference first round games and 6-9 in the first round.

BEEN HERE BEFORE – Of Milwaukee's 15-man roster, 11 players have had previous playoff experience. Entering the 2013 postseason, Marquis Daniels had seen action in a team-leading 62 postseason games, while J.J. Redick and Drew Gooden each had 44 playoff appearances under their belts. Overall, Bucks players combined for 221 playoff games and made 87 starts. The Bucks' first round meeting with the Heat marks the first career playoff action for Gustavo Ayón, Larry Sanders, John Henson and Ekpe Udoh.

FEAR THE DEER REWIND – Many fans remember the exciting 2009-10 playoff run that saw the sixth-seeded Bucks push Atlanta to seven games. Of that team, only Ersan Ilyasova, Brandon Jennings and Luc Richard Mbah a Moute remain on the current Bucks roster. Jennings and Mbah a Moute, in their rookie seasons, started all seven games, with Jennings recording 18.7 ppg and Mbah a Moute notching 9.1 ppg. Ilyasova came off the bench in each game to average 9.7 ppg and recorded the team's only two double-double performances with 13 points and 15 rebounds in Game 2 on April 20, 2010 and 13 points and 11 rebounds in Game 7 on May 2, 2010.

ROOKIE ON A RAMPAGE – With a career-high 28 points against Oklahoma City, John Henson led all scorers in the Bucks last regular season game on April 17. He is one of only eight rookie players to post a 28-point game this season and is the first Bucks rookie to do so since Brandon Jennings, three years ago to the day, notched 34 points in Game 1 at Atlanta on April 17, 2010.

Henson also recorded a career-high 25 rebounds on April 10 at Orlando, and averaged 15.0 boards over his last five regular season games to lead the league in rebounds per game over that span (April 10-17). His 25-rebound performance was the fifth-highest total among all players this season and the most among rookies. After also grabbing 18 rebounds against Miami on Nov. 21, 2012, he became one of just four rookies to record 16+ rebounds and the only one to grab 18+ on more than one occasion.

High rebounding games by a rookie this season:

Name	Date	Rebounds
John Henson	04/10/13	25
John Henson	11/21/12	18
Anthony Davis	03/09/13	18
Andre Drummond	01/29/13	18
John Henson	04/17/13	16
Anthony Davis	12/18/12	16
Jared Sullinger	01/09/13	16

In addition to his 25-rebound game on April 10, Henson also recorded seven blocks and 17 points. He became the first player to record those numbers since Shaquille O'Neal did so during the 2003-04 season. According to basketball-reference.com, he is just one of four players to record those numbers since the 1985-86 season, and the only player to do so while coming off the bench.

Players with 25+ rebounds, 7+ blocks and 17+ points in a game:

Name	Date	Rebounds	Blocks	Points
John Henson	04/10/13	25	7	17
Shaquille O'Neal	03/21/04	26	7	31
Dikembe Mutombo	11/11/94	26	9	19
Shaquille O'Neal	11/20/93	28	15	24
Hakeem Olajuwon	12/17/89	25	10	32

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR – The Bucks caused opponents trouble all season when it came to forcing turnovers. Milwaukee led the league with 54 games this season with 15+ opponent turnovers (basketball-reference.com turnover count does not include team turnovers), six games ahead of the second-place Clippers and Suns (48).

THIEF IN THE NIGHT – Monta Ellis recorded his league-leading 11th game this season with 5+ steals against the Hawks on April 12. That gave him 34 such games in his career, which is tied with Kobe Bryant for fifth-most among active NBA players. Ellis finished fourth in the league with 2.06 steals per game and has averaged 3.0 over his last seven regular season games.

LARRY BLOCKS – With six swats against the Raptors on April 6, Larry Sanders reached the 200-block mark for the season. He is the first Buck to record a 200-block season since Elmore Smith in 1975-76.

Most blocks in a single season by a Bucks player:

Name	Blocks	Season	GP
1. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar	283	1973-74	81
2. Elmore Smith	238	1975-76	78
3. Kareem Abdul-Jabbar	212	1974-75	65
4. Larry Sanders	201	2012-13	71

MILWAUKEE BUCKS GAME NOTES – APRIL 28, 2013 – Round 1, Game 4

COMMITMENT TO COMMUNITY …

BUCKS AND SAM'S HOPE HOST BOOK BLAST – Pairing with Sam's Hope Literacy Foundation, the Bucks hosted more than 1,000 Milwaukee grade school students for an afternoon of reading and entertainment at the 15th annual Bucks and Sam's Hope Literacy Foundation Book Blast on March 25. Each student in attendance received a new book to take home and also had the opportunity to "pay it forward" by selecting an additional book to give to a family member or friend. Milwaukee Bucks players and coaches were on hand to discuss the books with the children and spoke on the importance of this year's season-long "Words Matter" initiative.

SPECIAL OLYMPIC ATHLETES TRAIN WITH THE BUCKS - To recognize Special Olympics Awareness Month in March, many Bucks players and coaches, along with mascot Bango, hosted a basketball clinic at Elite Fitness in Mequon for 100 Special Olympic athletes and their coaches on Feb. 22. The annual clinic is part of the long-standing support of the Special Olympics by the Bucks. During the session, the athletes honed their skills at stations for ball handling, defense, rebounding and shooting, as Bucks professionals helped them prepare for their upcoming Special Olympics basketball competition. Bucks players Samuel Dalembert, Marquis Daniels, Mike Dunleavy, Monta Ellis, Drew Gooden, Ersan Ilyasova, Brandon Jennings and Luc Richard Mbah a Moute, and assistant coaches Joe Wolf and Anthony Goldwire guided the drills.
