NOTE-A-BULL FOR TONIGHT

Wendell Carter Jr. has recorded at least one block in 16 of 17 games this season. He has 12 blocks over his last six games, and his 1.88 blocks per game is second among rookies and is ninth in the NBA.

Carter Jr. has also scored in double-figures in 10 of his last 12 games.

Zach LaVine has at least one theft in 10 of his last 11 games played and at least one steal in his last four games, the fourth-longest streak of his career.

The Bulls have come out of the gate strong this season, outscoring opponents 27.8 points per game to 27.1, and out-shooting them .479 to .437 in first quarters.

TEAM NOTE-A-BULLS

On Saturday vs. Toronto, Chicago recorded 13 steals marking their second-highest total of the season and highest total in the last seven games.

In Friday's game at Milwaukee, the Bulls scored 40 first quarter points, their second-highest scoring quarter of the season. Chicago also held Milwaukee to 18 points in the second quarter, which is tied for the lowest-scoring quarter by a Bulls opponent this season.

On Friday, Milwaukee's bench scored just 25 points, the fewest points scored by an opponent's second unit this year. The Bulls also forced 17 Bucks turnovers, which led to 30 Bulls points, which was the highest points off turnovers tally of the season.

On Wednesday at Boston, Chicago held the Celtics to 19 first quarter points, the fewest points a Bulls opponent has scored in the opening frame this year. Additionally, Boston scored only six second-chance points in the contest, another opponent season low.

PLAYER NOTE-A-BULLS

Zach LaVine scored 20+ points in the first 14 games of the 2017-18 season and scored at least 20 in 15 consecutive games dating back to last season. LaVine joined Jimmy Butler, Bob Love and Michael Jordan as the only Bulls to have a streak of at least 15 games with 20 points or more. LaVine's streak of games with 20 or more points is the longest streak in the NBA this season. He was the only NBA player to score at least 20 in each of his team's first 14 games of the year.

Ryan Arcidiacono made his first NBA start vs. the Cavaliers on Nov. 10 and has started every ensuing game. He scored a career-high 15 points against Cleveland, which was his fourth double-digit scoring game this season after posting no double-digit scoring games his rookie year. He currently ranks second in the NBA with a 5.67 assist to turnover ratio.

Justin Holiday has recorded at least one 3-pointer in his last 28 games played (3/21-11/17/18), which is the third-longest streak of his career (32 from the 2016-17 season to the 2017-18 season and 29 last season). He has 14 games this season with multiple 3-pointers made, which is tied for the second-most such games in the league. Holiday also has three games with five or more 3-pointers made, the second-most such games in the NBA.

Holiday is one of five players this season to have at least 10 games with multiple steals. He's posted 17 thefts over his last eight games. He also has four games with three or more steals, which is the fourth-highest total in the NBA this season. Holiday has recorded at least one steal in his last eight games, which is the second-longest streak of his career (11, 2017 season).

Jabari Parker had one of his best games of the young season on Friday at Milwaukee. Parker scored a season high 21 points on 9-19 from the field (both season highs). Fifteen of Parker's 21 points came in the first quarter, where he was 6-9 from the floor and 3-4 from behind the arc. The 15 first-quarter points are tied for the highest point total in a quarter by a Bulls player this year. It was also Parker's third 20-point effort this season.

At Boston on Nov. 14, Shaquille Harrison led the team with a season-high 16 points and recorded season highs of seven field goals and 10 field goals attempted. He followed that game up on Friday night at Milwaukee, by tying a career best with seven rebounds, and continued his strong play with a career-high five steals on Saturday vs. Toronto.

LaVine is one of 15 players this season to score more than 40 points in a game when he posted a career-high 41 at the Knicks on Nov. 5 in a double overtime game. The last Bulls player to score more than 40 was Jimmy Butler vs. Toronto on Jan. 7, 2017 (42). LaVine is the only player this season to have a game with at least three steals and two blocks to go along with his 40+ points.

LaVine currently ranks seventh in the NBA in free throws made per game (6.3) and ninth in free throw attempts per game (7.3).

ZACH ATTACK Zach LaVine is taking advantage of his athleticism this season and attacking the basket more often in his attempts to score, and his efforts are paying off as he's making 60.1 percent of those shots. LaVine's aggressiveness at the basket has also led to a career-high mark in free throw attempts, furthering his scoring ability.

Season	% of FGA Taken in Restricted Area	FG% in Restricted Area	FTA/gm
2018-19	43.5%	60.1%	7.3
2017-18	36.9%	50.4%	4.5

MEDIC! In the early stages of this season, the Bulls have been hit with four longer-term injuries to key players on their roster:

- Kris Dunn: Starting point guard and relentless defender who averaged 2.00 steals per game last season.
- Lauri Markkanen: Starting forward and All-Rookie First-Team selection who set a Bulls record for 3-pointers made in a season by a rookie (145).
- Bobby Portis: Had started all four games he played this season and was averaging a double-double of 10.5 points and 10.0 rebounds.
- Denzel Valentine: A key contributor who played a team-high 77 games in 2017-18 and was third on the Bulls with 143 3-pointers made last season.

While the team's motto is "next man up" during the time the players above are out, all told, those four combined for averages of 52.0 points, 23.7 rebounds and 12.1 assists last season.

ROOKIE SCALE Bulls No. 7 selection Wendell Carter Jr. is ranking highly among his 2018 Draft class peers this season. Here's how he stacks up in several categories among rookies (same qualifiers as regular leaders):

Category	PPG	RPG	APG	BPG	FG%	FT%	MPG
Ranking	7th	2nd	6th	2nd	5th	5th	6th
Average	11.3	7.4	2.3	1.88	.465	.796	25.9

DIRTY THIRTY With 30 points at Philadelphia on Oct. 18, 33 points vs. Detroit on Oct. 20, 34 at Dallas on Oct. 22 and 32 vs. Charlotte on Oct. 24, Zach LaVine became the second player in team history to open the season with four-straight 30-point games (Michael Jordan, 1986). Those four games were also a career-long streak of 30-point scoring for LaVine.

YOUTH MOVEMENT Looking at the rosters from around the NBA, the Bulls entered the 2018-19 season as the second-youngest group with an average age of 24.5 years old. In addition, Chicago has 13 players on its roster who are not yet 25 years old. No other team in the league had more than 11.

Three Youngest Teams in the NBA:

Team	# of Players	Age	# Over 30	# Under 25
Knicks	17	24.4	2	11
Bulls	17	24.5	2	13
Nuggets	17	24.6	1	11
