TONIGHT'S OPPONENT

KINGS VS. DENVER NUGGETS (10/21 at Pepsi Center: Sacramento heads to the Mile High City to take on the Denver Nuggets at the Pepsi Center in Denver, CO. The game marks the team's first back-to-back of the 2017-18 season after finishing with a record of 6-13 in the second night of a back-to-back. Last season, these two teams split the series as both won two consecutive games against one another, one at home and one on the road. The final contest between these two saw the Kings pull to within six points at the end of the third quarter, but were unable to fight off the Nuggets. Guard Gary Harris led all-scorers with 24 points while big man Nikola Jokic totaled 20 points and 14 rebounds for a double-double. Kings guard Buddy Hield recorded 17 points in the matchup and will look to keep the hot hand as Sacramento looks to snap their current two-game losing streak to the Nuggets and find more success in Denver.s.

KINGS 2017-18 REGULAR SEASON NOTES

'TIS THE SEASON: The Sacramento Kings opened up the 2017-18 regular season at home against the Houston Rockets. The purple and black were defeated by James Harden and company, 100-105, at the Golden 1 Center. The young Kings team were tied with Houston with 3:33 left to play in the third quarter after Kings guard Buddy Hield scored 10 straight points. The fourth quarter saw runs by each team, but the Rockets would sustain the upperhand as guard Eric Gordon and Harden combined for 21 points in the final quarter. Harden led the game with 27 points and nine assists, while Gordon added 25. Center Willie Cauley-Stein recorded a double-double as he led the team with 21 points and 10 rebounds and forward Skal Labissiere added 12 points and 10 rebounds for a double-double of his own. Guards George Hill and De'Aaron Fox made their presence felt in their Sacramento debuts as Hill scored 16 points and Fox notched 14 points to go with a team-high five assists. After opening up the season with a home game, the Kings head out for a three-game road trip against the Dallas Mavericks, Denver Nuggets and Phoenix Suns.

RECORD WATCH: Since joining the National Basketball Association during the 1998-99 season, Kings forward Vince Carter has produced a Hall of Fame resume, surpassed many milestones and entrenched himself in league record books. Heading into the his 20th professional season, the oldest active player currently ranks 22nd all-time in career points (24,455), tied fifth in three-point field goals made (2,049) with Minnesota Timberwolves guard, Jamal Crawford, and 13th in career regular season appearances (1,347).

ALL-TIME ACTIVE LEADERS THREE-POINT MAKES

1. Jason Terry	2,242
2. Kyle Korver	2,054
3. Vince Carter	2,053
4. Jamal Crawford	2,052
5. Joe Johnson	1,939
6. Stephen Curry	1,924

20 YEAR FUTURE HALL OF FAMERS: Sacramento's Vince Carter and Dallas' Dirk Nowitzki who are both in their 20th NBA season, squared off against each other on 10/20 in Dallas. The only other time two players with 20-or-more years of NBA experience faced each other was in 2015-16, when Minnesota's Kevin Garnett (21st season) and the L.A. Lakers' Kobe Bryant (20th) played against each other. It was the first time that two players in their 20th season (exactly) went head-to-head against each other however. Nowitzki (10 points and nine rebounds in 29 minutes) finished one board shy of a double-double, while Carter finished with six points and three boards in 17 minutes.

GOING ON 30: Heading into the 2017-18 season, Grant Napear begins his 30th season as the Kings TV play-by-play announcer. The New York native started calling Kings televised games beginning with the 1988-89 season up until the 1993-94 season. Following that season, Napear took on Kings radio play-by-play duties for two seasons from 1995-97. After serving on the radio for two seasons, Napear rejoined the television broadcast in 1998 and has been calling Kings games ever since. Napear is not only an important media figure for the team, but in the city of Sacramento as well, as he hosts the city's top-rated afternoon sports talk show, The Grant Napear Show with Doug Christie, on KHTK. Here's to year 30, Grant.

ROOKIE STARTS: Justin Jackson began his career in a starting role for the Kings. A role not common for most rookies in the starting lineup, Jackson became the first rookie to start in a season opener since DeMarcus Cousins did so on 10/27/2010. The Kings defeated the Minnesota Timberwolves 117-116 that night, as Cousins had 14 points.

KINGS 2017-18 PRESEASON NOTES

WRAPPED UP: After their final preseason showdown with the Golden State Warriors on October 13, Sacramento finished with a record of 1-5 in the 2017 preseason, averaging 90.7 points per game and shooting nearly 43 percent from the field. The Kings, however, allowed their opponents to shoot over 47 percent from the field and almost 38 percent from beyond the arc as they averaged 101 points per contest versus the Kings. Sacramento did score 106 points on last season's top two teams in the Western Conference in the Warriors and San Antonio Spurs. Forward Zach Randolph's 12.3 points per game led the team in the preseason, while center Kosta Koufos grabbed 7.0 rebounds a game for a team-best.

VEGAS STRONG: The Sacramento Kings announced that, along with the Los Angeles Lakers, T-Mobile Arena, AEG and MGM Resorts International, it will donate the proceeds from October 8th's preseason game vs. Los Angeles in Las Vegas to aid those affected by the tragic incident on October 1.

"To say we are united in grief does not fully convey the sadness we feel as we offer our deepest sympathies and support to those impacted," said Sacramento Kings Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "Our thoughts and prayers go out to the victims, their families and everyone enduring this heartbreaking tragedy. Together we will remain Vegas strong."

RIGHT ON TRACK: On October 6, the Sacramento Kings announced that rookie forward Harry Giles will be out through at least January. The Kings training staff will work with Giles and focus on a measured and sustained progression plan designed to improve physical strength in his surgically repaired knees. The Duke product is otherwise healthy and will continue to participate in controlled elements during team practice. The methodical approach is supported by many elements and Giles will be re-evaluated routinely throughout the program.

KINGS OFFSEASON NOTES

WELCOME TO SACRAMENTO: Of the 17 players on the Kings current roster, only seven players from last season remain on the team. Kings General Manager Vlade Divac continued building the team's future foundation with the free agent signings of Vince Carter, George Hill and Zach Randolph, while acquiring De'Aaron Fox, Harry Giles, Justin Jackson and Frank Mason III during the 2017 NBA Draft..

ON THE DOTTED LINE: On September 27, 2017, the Sacramento Kings announced that the team extended the contract of General Manager Vlade Divac, while also picking up Head Coach Dave Joergel's fourth year option. After spending just one season together, the tandem will continue working alongside one another as both of their contracts now run through the 2019-20 season. Divac enters his third year as the GM of the organization after joining the front office during the 2015-16 season. Joergel begins his second season as the Kings' head coach after finishing with a record of 32-50 in 2016-17 and will look to continue to develop the young core of the team in the upcoming season.

SUMMERTIME IN VEGAS: During the summer, the Kings took part in the annual Las Vegas Summer League, which 10 players on the current preseason roster competed in. Sacramento went 2-4 in competition, but saw productivity out of their youthful roster. Buddy Hield and Justin Jackson both averaged 16.7 points per contest, which ranked as the 20th best scoring average amongst all players. Jackson was especially impressive as he scored 25 points or more in two out of the six games he played in, including a 29-point performance that helped guide the Kings to a comeback victory after being down for the majority of the game against the Phoenix Suns. Georgios Papagiannis finished tied for 20th in rebounds per game at 7.3, while De'Aaron Fox ranked sixth in steals per game.
