NOW TRENDING

The Pacers broke out of a recent shooting slump to points 137 points on 53.8 percent shooting in a 17-point road win at Dallas last Tuesday. Indiana matched its NBA franchise high as nine players scored in double figures, tying a mark previously accomplished twice, most recently in 2018.

Pascal Siakam has scored 20 or more points in two straight games, seven of his last 10, and 14 of his 24 games overall in a Pacers uniform. He finished with 13 points and 13 rebounds - his highest total with Indiana - in Tuesday's win at Dallas.

The Pacers are 15-7 this season when Turner scores 20 or more points and 10-4 when he posts a double-double. Turner became the second player in franchise history to reach 1,200 blocks at Sacramento Jan. 18, and is now 11 blocks away from breaking Jermaine O'Neal's franchise record for career blocks (1,245).

Ben Sheppard finished with a season-high 15 points and shot a perfect 5-for-5 from 3-point range in the win over the Mavericks, 2/25. His five 3-pointers fell one shy of the rookie record and his five attempts without a miss fell one shy of the team's rookie and franchise records.

After missing two games due to an illness, Sheppard returned to score 14 points off the bench Tuesday at Dallas. He has scored in double figures in four of his last eight appearances overall.

Andrew Nembhard scored a season-high 22 points to go with eight assists while filling in the starting lineup against Phoenix Jan.26. Nembhard has battled through injuries to score in double figures in 17 of his last 25 games while averaging 10.2 points (.504 FG) and 4.6 assists per game over that span. The Pacers are 19-11 with Nembhard in the starting lineup.

Pacers Head Coach Rick Carlisle needs four wins to move ahead of Dick Motta (935) into 13th place in career NBA coaching victories, and seven wins to move ahead of Red Auerbach (938) into 12th place.

PACING THE FIELD

The Pacers lead the NBA in scoring this season with an average of 123.1 points this season.

Indiana has led the NBA in several offensive categories throughout most of the early portion of the regular season.

Indiana topped 120 points in seven consecutive games from Nov. 3-14, which was the longest streak in franchise history. The previous streak of consecutive games with 120 or more points was set last season (five straight from Dec. 27, 2022 - Jan. 4, 2023).

The Pacers have reached 140 or more points eight times this season (8-0 record) - which is the most in franchise history - 130 or more points 20 times (18-2) and 120 or more 42 times (32-10) through 63 games.

The Pacers have shot 60 percent or better from the field seven times this season, most in franchise history. They set a franchise record by shooting 67.1 percent from the field (53-79) in a 126-108 road win at Atlanta Jan. 12.

Indiana rallied back from a 10-point first half deficit to earn a 132-129 home win over the Rockets, 2/6. The Pacers have now won 10 games this season after trailing by 10 or more points.

The Pacers earned a 157-152 road victory at Atlanta, 11/21, to secure East Group A in the In-Season Tournament. Indiana's 157 points set a new NBA franchise record for the most points scored, and is the highest scoring total in the NBA this season. The 309 combined team points marked the Pacers' highest-scoring game, and it was the first game in franchise history in which both teams shot 60 percent or better.

Indiana leads the NBA in scoring and ranks among the league leaders in the following:

NBA TEAM RANKINGS- 2023-24

Category	Avg./Pct.	NBA Rank
Points	123.1	1st
Field goal percentage	.502	1st

HISTORY FOR HALIBURTON

Tyrese Haliburton has posted record offensive numbers to begin the 2023-24 season. His list of achievements so far include:

- Haliburton leads the NBA with an average of 11.7 assists this season. That mark would be the most in a season since John Stockton in 1991-92 (13.7). Haliburton has recorded double-doubles in 37 games.

- He has 11 games with at least 15 assists, the most in a season in franchise history and most by any player since Russell Westbrook in 2020-21 (14).

Haliburton returned to the lineup at Portland Jan. 19 after missing the previous five games with a hamstring strain and finished with 21 points, 17 assists and zero turnovers in 35 minutes. He is now the only player in NBA history to record three career games with 20+ points, 17+ assists and zero turnovers. All three of those games have come this season.

- He became the first player in NBA history to record multiple career games with 25+ points, 15+ assists and zero turnovers, and did so during consecutive games at Philadelphia Nov. 12 and 14...Haliburton finished with team highs of 33 points, 15 assists and zero turnovers in the team's In-Season Tournament win at Philadelphia, 11/14. He finished with a team-high 25 points, a season-high 17 assists and zero turnovers in 37 minutes at Philadelphia, 11/12...His 32 assists without a turnover is the most over a two-game span in NBA history...He later added a third game to his total as he finished with 27 points, 15 assists and zero turnovers in 37 minutes in the In-Season Tournament semifinal win over Milwaukee in Las Vegas, 12/7.

- Haliburton finished with 31 points, 12 assists, three blocks and zero turnovers in last Wednesday's win over Milwaukee. He joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar as the only players in NBA history to record 30+ points, 10+ assists, 3+ blocks and zero turnovers in a game.

- Haliburton recorded a double-double in 11 straight games, which was the longest streak of his NBA career and the longest streak of 10+ assist games in franchise history. His 11 straight games with 10+ assists was the NBA's longest streak since Russell Westbrook posted 11 straight double-figure assist games during the 2018-19 season.

- Haliburton scored 21 points and set a new career high with 20 assists while he did not commit a turnover in the road win at Chicago, 12/28. He became the second player in franchise history to post 20+ points and 20+ assists in a game, and the second player in NBA history to record 20+ points, 20+ assists and zero turnovers (Chris Paul, 20 points, 20 assists, Dec. 10, 2016). One game later, Haliburton scored 22 points and matched a Pacers franchise record with a career-high 23 assists in the win over the Knicks, 12/30. Haliburton became only the third player in NBA history to record consecutive games of 20+ points and 20+ assists (Magic Johnson, Dec. 18-19, 1984; John Stockton, March 1-3, 1990).

- He recorded 84 assists and only six turnovers in five games from Dec. 28-Jan. 5. He is the first player with 80+ assists and six or fewer turnovers in any five-game span since individual turnovers were first tracked in 1977-78.

Now accomplished four times in his Pacers career, he is the only player in the NBA since the start of the 2018-19 season to record at least 17 assists without a turnover.

- Haliburton led Indiana with 37 points and 16 assists in the win at Atlanta, 11/21. He set franchise records for one quarter with 26 points and seven 3-pointers in the 3rd period...He followed that effort with 33 points and 16 assists Toronto, 11/22. He became just the ninth player in NBA history to record 35+ points and 15+ assists in consecutive outings, and the first since James Harden in Nov. 2016.

- He capped the month of November with a career-high 44-point outing to go with 10 assists at Miami, 11/30. He joined Michael Jordan (March 1989) and LeBron James (Feb. 2017) as the only players to average 25+ points, 10+ assists with 50 percent shooting and 40 percent from 3-point in a single month (27 ppg, 11.8 apg, .519 FG, .447 3FG).

- Haliburton recorded his first NBA triple-double as Indiana outscored Boston 74-57 in the second half to defeat the Celtics Monday during the quarterfinal win...In addition to his triple-double, Haliburton did not register a turnover in 40 minutes. He became only the third player in NBA history age 23 or younger to record 25+ points, 10+ rebounds, 10+ assists and zero turnovers in a game (Nikola Jokic, 10/20/2018; Grant Hill, 1/13/1996).

- Haliburton was selected to his second straight NBA All-Star Game and as a starter for the first time in his career. Haliburton becomes the fourth individual and will mark the seventh time overall a Pacers player will start an NBA All-Star Game, joining Paul George (twice), Reggie Miller (once) and Jermaine O'Neal (three times).

- Overall since he was acquired in February 2022, Haliburton has appeared in 134 games with the Pacers and recorded 80 double-doubles. He passed 1,000 assists in a Pacers uniform with 10 against Detroit, 11/24, and 2,000 points against Portland, 11/27. Haliburton joined Oscar Robertson (1960-62) as the only players in NBA history to record 2,000+ points and 1,000+ assists in their first 100 games with a new team.

BENCH AND BALANCE

The Pacers currently have seven players who are averaging 10 or more points per game and have received key contributions off the bench from several players all season. The Pacers are 30-11 this season when six or more players score in double figures.

Obi Toppin ranks second in field goal percentage as he is shooting 57.1 percent off the bench this season. Toppin has reached double figures in scoring 17 times off the bench in his first season with the Pacers.

Jalen Smith has scored in double figures in 13 appearances off the bench this season for an average of 10.1 points per game. He posted a season-high 20 points off the bench at New York 2/1.

T.J. McConnell ranks second among all bench players with 5.5 assists per game and 10th overall in the NBA with an assists-per-turnover ratio of 3.79. He posted season highs and his first double-double of the year with 20 points and 11 assists off the bench in the win at Miami, 12/2.

Isaiah Jackson ranks third among all bench players and ranks 21st overall in the NBA with 1.18 blocks per game.

After leading the NBA in bench scoring last season, the Pacers' bench currently ranks among league leaders in the following categories in 2023-24:

On their way to a 137-120 road win at Dallas March 5, Indian tied an NBA franchise high as nine Pacers players - including five off the bench - scored in double figures. The only other times Indiana placed nine players in double figures in an NBA contest came during a 141-135 win over the Detroit Pistons on Feb. 2, 1983, at Market Square Arena in Indianapolis.

CLIM3ING THE LADDER

Myles Turner became one of four players in Pacers NBA franchise history to make 500 3-pointers in his career earlier this season.

With the acquisition of Doug McDermott on Feb. 8, the Pacers now have three active players on the roster in the top 15 in NBA franchise history in 3-pointers made. Entering his second tenure with the Pacers, McDermott ranks fourth in NBA franchise history in career 3-point percentage as he shot 41.1 percent over three seasons in Indiana (323-786) from 2018-21.

TURNER'S BLOCK PARTY

Myles Turner currently ranks 10th in the NBA in blocks with 1.7 per game while the Pacers rank ninth as a team with 5.7 per game.

Turner became the second player in franchise history to reach 1,200 blocks at Sacramento, 1/18. He needs 11 blocks to pass Jermaine O'Neal (1,245) for the franchise record for blocked shots in a career.

Turner finished fifth in the NBA last season in blocks with 2.3 per game. He has ranked in the NBA's top five in blocked shots six times over the past seven seasons, including the 2018-19 and 2020-21 seasons in which he led the league in blocks. The team finished second in the league with 5.8 blocks per game in 2022-23.

Turner is in his ninth season with the Pacers after being selected 11th overall in the 2015 NBA Draft. Only seven players in NBA franchise history have completed longer tenures with the Pacers than Turner (Reggie Miller, 18 seasons; Jeff Foster, 13; Rik Smits, 12; Vern Fleming, 11; Dale Davis, 10; Austin Croshere, 9; Danny Granger, 9).

HISTORY AGAINST THE HAWKS

Indiana's record-setting offense has broken several single-game franchise records this season, multiple of which have come in games against the Atlanta Hawks.

Despite missing point guard Tyrese Haliburton in the first game after he suffered a hamstring strain, Indiana set a new franchise record for field goal percentage in a game as they finished shooting 67.1 percent from the field (53-79) in a 126-108 road win at Atlanta Jan. 12.

The Pacers posted a 150-116 win over the Atlanta Hawks Jan. 5. The Pacers finished with a franchise-record 50 assists on 60 field goals. That total is tied for the seventh-most in NBA history and was only the second time a team has posted 50 assists since 1990 (50 assists by Washington against Indiana during the 2020-21 season). Indiana also matched its season high by placing eight players in double figures. Indiana posted 150+ points for the third time this season, which is one shy of tying the record for the most in a season in NBA history (1971-72 Lakers and 1978-79 Spurs). Indiana's eight games with 140+ points is now tied for the third-most in NBA history and the most since the Denver Nuggets posted eight games with 140 or more in 1983-84.

The Pacers earned a 157-152 road victory at Atlanta, 11/21, to secure East Group A in the In-Season Tournament. Indiana's 157 points set a new NBA franchise record for the most points scored. The 309 combined team points marked the Pacers' highest-scoring game, and it was the first game in franchise history in which both teams shot 60 percent or better.

HISTORIC SHOOTING WEEKEND

Indiana turned in a historic shooting effort against Charlotte Nov. 4, as the Pacers tied NBA records for 3-pointers made in a quarter (12 in the third period) and in a half (18 in the second half). The Pacers finished with 50 points in the third quarter, which was their second period with 50+ points in NBA franchise history, trailing only a 54-point effort in the third quarter against Denver on Nov. 10, 2010. Indiana finished with 22 3-pointers on the night, falling one shy of the franchise record.

Tyrese Haliburton tied his previous career high with 43 points against the Hornets and became the first player in franchise history to record 40+ points and 10+ assists as he added 12 assists. Haliburton tied previous franchise records for one quarter as he finished with 25 points and six 3-pointers in Indiana's third-quarter effort (he later passed that mark with 26 points and seven 3s in the third quarter at Atlanta, 11/21).

The Pacers followed that effort one game later by tying their previous NBA franchise record with 152 points in a 41-point victory over the San Antonio Spurs Nov. 6. Indiana tied its NBA franchise record for points in a half by scoring 86 in the first half. It was the team's ninth-largest margin of victory in NBA franchise history, and the largest win since earning a 152-95 road win (+57) at Oklahoma City on May 1, 2021, which was also the largest margin of victory on the road in NBA history.

THE OPENING ACT

The Pacers opened the 2023-24 regular season with a 143-120 win over the Washington Wizards at Gainbridge Fieldhouse Oct. 25. The Pacers' 143 points marked their most points scored in a season opener in franchise history and was the fifth-highest total by a team on Opening Night in NBA history. It was the NBA's highest scoring total on Opening Night since the 1990-91 season.

The Pacers made 20 3-pointers in their win over the Wizards, marking their most 3-pointers made on Opening Night in franchise history. It marked the third-highest total on Opening Night in NBA history, falling short of the Chicago Bulls' record of 23 triples made on Oct. 23, 2019, a team coached by Pacers assistant Jim Boylen.

Bruce Brown set a new career high with six 3-pointers on his way to a team-high 24 points in the win. He tied Chris Duarte's 2021 record for the most 3-pointers made in an opener in team history.

5. INDIANA PACERS	vs.	Washington Wizards	W, 143-120	Oct. 25, 2023

The Pacers had eight players score in double figures during their Opening Night win over the Wizards, matching their 2022-23 season high, which was accomplished twice.

THE CARLISLE FILE

After he was hired in June 2021, Rick Carlisle returns in 2023-24 to continue his third tenure with the Indiana Pacers, including his second as head coach. He guided the Pacers to a 181-147 (.552) record during four seasons from 2003-07. In his first season as Pacers head coach in 2003-04, Carlisle led Indiana to a franchise-record 61 wins, posted the best record in the NBA, won a Central Division title and reached the 2004 Eastern Conference Finals.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle's 276 wins stands as the most by a head coach in Pacers NBA history. He passed Frank Vogel for most on the list with Indiana's win at Miami, 12/2. He is now one of four coaches to lead two different franchises in NBA coaching victories (Red Auerbach, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens).

Carlisle ranks second among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich. He reached 900 wins for his NBA career with Indiana's 152-111 win over San Antonio Nov. 6.

ALL-STAR INDY 2024

NBA All-Star to returned to the Circle City for the first time since 1985 when Indianapolis hosted the event at the Hoosier Dome downtown. Originally announced in December 2017, Indianapolis was scheduled to host All-Star festivities in 2021 before being rescheduled to 2024 because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Bringing NBA All-Star back to Indiana has been years in the making. Larry Bird originally delivered the team's bid to host the event to NBA Commissioner Adam Silver by driving an Indy Car through New York City to the league offices in April 2017. NBA Commissioner Adam Silver announced that Indianapolis would host NBA All-Star during a press conference at Gainbridge Fieldhouse on December 10, 2017.

In the years since, leaders from Pacers Sports & Entertainment and the All-Star Host Committee - featuring the city and state's brightest leadership stars - have traveled to NBA All-Star Games every season, studying the many components of the event and how each city executes it, with the goal of integrating arts and entertainment elements throughout the downtown streets and executing the greatest and most interactive All-Star event the league has ever seen.

For more information and a full, detailed recap of city-wide initiatives and events, please visit Pacers.com/AllStar.

Tyrese Haliburton is putting together a historic offensive season and continues to fuel the Pacers and the best offensive attack in the NBA.

A first-time All-Star last season, Haliburton earned his second straight All-Star selection, and became the seventh Pacers starter in an NBA All-Star Game and the first since Paul George in 2015-16. He led all Eastern Conference guards in voting amongst fans, coaches and media.

Haliburton was part of the Pacers' winning team during Saturday Night's Skills Challenge. He competed in the 3-point Shootout for the second straight year after finishing as runner up in 2023.

He capped the weekend by recording 32 points, seven rebounds and six assists in the East's 211-186 victory. He finished second in All-Star Game MVP voting for the evening.

Myles Turner competed in the Skills Challenge for the first time in his career as part of All-Star Saturday Night at Lucas Oil Stadium and helped the Pacers' team come away with the win.

Turner is putting together arguably the most complete season on both ends of the court of his NBA career. He was a key figure in the Pacers' run to the NBA In-Season Tournament championship game as he averaged 20.2 points, 8.5 rebounds, 1.0 assist, 1.0 steal and 2.7 blocks per game over the team's six Tournament wins.

Turner continues to rank among the NBA's best shot-blockers, while his continued growth on the offensive end and the glass has paid dividends this season. Turner's productivity has generally led to success for the Pacers, as the team has posted a 13-6 record when he scores 20 or more points and a 10-4 mark when he posts a double-double.

Bennedict Mathurin was named Most Valuable Player in the 2024 Panini Rising Stars, which will take place on Friday, Feb. 16 at Gainbridge Fieldhouse

Mathurin, who also competed in the Rising Stars contest as a rookie at NBA All-Star 2023, is averaging 14.3 points and 3.9 rebounds per game during his sophomore season.

He was joined by two-way teammate Oscar Tshiebwe, who represented both the Pacers and Indiana Mad Ants as one of 10 G League players to be selected. Tshiebwe has averaged 12.0 points and a league-best 12.1 rebounds per game during the G League regular season.

INDIANA'S IN-SEASON TOURNAMENT RUN

The Indiana Pacers enjoyed a magical run during the NBA's inaugural In-Season Tournament as they defeated each of the top four seeds from last season's Eastern Conference standings to earn an appearance in the Tournament's championship game. The Pacers posted a 6-0 record before falling to the Los Angeles Lakers in the title game at T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas.

The Pacers were placed into East Group A in pool play along with three Eastern Conference playoff teams from a season ago - the Atlanta Hawks, Cleveland Cavaliers and Philadelphia 76ers - and their Central Division rival Detroit Pistons. Indiana posted a 4-0 record to earn the No. 2 seed in the East and a home matchup in the Quarterfinal round against Boston.

In front of a raucous sellout crowd at Gainbridge Fieldhouse Dec. 4, the Pacers overcame a slow start as they outscored the Celtics by 17 in the second half to earn a 122-112 victory and punch their ticket to Las Vegas for the Semifinal round.

The Pacers led by 12 at halftime and were able to weather a 43-point third-quarter storm by Milwaukee before locking down in the final period to earn a 128-119 win over the Bucks in the Semifinals in Las Vegas and earn a chance to compete for the NBA Cup.

Despite struggling from the field for much of the championship game, the Pacers cut the lead to three points with under six minutes to play in the game but were ultimately unable to make enough plays and fell to the Los Angeles Lakers, 123-109.

Tyrese Haliburton averaged 27.8 points, 5.5 rebounds and 13.7 assists per game throughout tournament play and was one of five players to earn All NBA In-Season Tournament Team honors.

Haliburton and the rest of Indiana's young core rose to the occasion and proved they are a threat in the playoff race for the remainder of the 2023-24 season.

Indiana Pacers 121, Cleveland Cavaliers 116 Pool Play Game #1, November 3, 2023

Indiana led by 17 points at the break, by a point after three quarters, and came up clutch on both ends of the floor down the final stretch against their Central Division rivals. With 16 seconds left in the game, Tyrese Haliburton hit a step-back jumper just inside the 3-point arc to put the Blue & Gold up by three points. On the ensuing play, Pacers center Myles Turner blocked a dunk attempt by Cavs 7-footer Evan Mobley with 11 seconds remaining before pulling down the rebound on the inbound.

From there, Haliburton drained four total free throws in the final seven seconds to put the game away. -- Pacers.com

INDIANA'S IN-SEASON TOURNAMENT RUN

Indiana Pacers 132, Philadelphia 76ers 126 Pool Play Game, #2, November 14, 2023

In a frustrating night for Myles Turner through three quarters, the Pacers' center battled foul trouble in Indiana's In-Season Tournament game against reigning NBA MVP Joel Embiid and the 76ers, tallying just two points and playing just 7:45 over the first three periods.

But the nine-year veteran wasn't deterred in the fourth quarter. Turner scored 15 points in the final frame and All-Star guard Tyrese Haliburton then capped a spectacular night with the game-sealing 3-pointer to lift Indiana (7-4) to a 132-126 victory over Philadelphia (8-2). -- Pacers.com

Indiana Pacers 157, Atlanta Hawks 152 Pool Play Game #3, November 21, 2023

The Indiana Pacers orchestrated an all-time offensive performance to earn the league's first-ever In-Season Tournament quarterfinals bid.

The Pacers scored an NBA franchise record 157 points in a 157-152 nail-biter over the Atlanta Hawks at State Farm Arena.

Blue & Gold point guard Tyrese Haliburton conducted the scoring onslaught, putting up a franchise-record 26 points in the third quarter and finishing with a team-high 37 points (11-for-18, 9-for-15 3-point range) to go along with 16 assists, five rebounds and three steals. -- Pacers.com

Indiana Pacers 136, Detroit Pistons 113 Pool Play Game #4, November 24, 2023

The Pacers the final In-Season Tournament game with a simple mission: beat the Detroit Pistons at Gainbridge Fieldhouse to secure homecourt advantage for the Quarterfinals. It seemed easy enough on paper against a Pistons team that entered Friday's contest having lost 12 straight games. But Detroit made it difficult, hanging tough for most of the night and even leading in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter.

Nonetheless, the Pacers took care of business down the stretch, closing the game with a 32-9 run to a 136-113 victory. -- Pacers.com

Indiana Pacers 122, Boston Celtics 112 Quarterfinal Round, December 4, 2023

Tyrese Haliburton has never played in a playoff game in his young career, but you wouldn't know it from the performance Indiana's All-Star guard put on in Monday's In-Season Tournament Quarterfinal at Gainbridge Fieldhouse.

Haliburton recorded his first career triple-double, scored 19 points in the second half, and converted a four-point play that will go down in Pacers lore to give Indiana the lead for good, as the Blue & Gold (11-8) stunned the heavily favored Boston Celtics — owners of the NBA's best record — to advance to the In-Season Tournament Semifinals on Thursday night in Las Vegas with a 122-112 win.

Indiana Pacers 128, Milwaukee Bucks 128 Semifinal Round, December 7, 2023

The Pacers' All-Star guard did Reggie Miller -- sitting sideline on the ESPN broadcast -- proud, coming through in winning time with a game-sealing three in the final minute to seal a 128-119 victory over the Milwaukee Bucks.

After Brook Lopez missed a three with 1:25 remaining, Haliburton took a 30-footer. He missed, but he followed the shot and got his own rebound, bringing the ball back to the top of the key to reset. He dribbled down the shot clock, then weaved his way to the left wing, drilling a step-back trey with 49.5 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

Los Angeles Lakers 123, Indiana Pacers 109 Championship Game, December 9, 2023

The Pacers' magical run in the inaugural In-Season Tournament came to an end at the hands of LeBron James, Anthony Davis, and the Los Angeles Lakers.

The Blue & Gold won over the hearts of fans across the NBA with their inspired play and All-Star guard Tyrese Haliburton emerged as a legitimate NBA superstar in the new event, as the Pacers ran off a 6-0 record against Eastern Conference opponents, including wins over all the top four seeds from last year's East standings to reach Saturday's Championship. But their dreams of being the first team to hoist the NBA Cup came to an end on Saturday with a 123-109 loss to the Lakers.

Indiana made significant strides in 2022-03, Carlisle's second season after returning to the team. The Pacers jumped from 25 wins in 2021-22 to 35 in 2022-23 and saw the development of young talent begin to rise as Tyrese Haliburton earned his first NBA All-Star appearance and Bennedict Mathurin, the team's highest draft choice since 1988, earned NBA All-Rookie First Team honors.

He earned 242 wins over his first seven combined seasons as Pacers head coach, and is poised to pass Frank Vogel (250 wins) during the 2023-24 season as the franchise's leader in NBA coaching victories.

The Pacers made postseason appearances in each of Carlisle's first three seasons (2003-06) as head coach while winning 18 playoff games over that span. Indiana reached the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 2004-05 before falling in six games to the eventual-Eastern Conference champion Detroit Pistons.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle ranks second among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich. He entered the 2023-24 season ranked 14th in NBA history in career wins as he posted an 896-793 mark (.530) over 22 seasons as a head coach.

Carlisle has led his teams to the playoffs 15 times in his 22 seasons and ranks 17th in NBA history with 63 playoff victories.

Carlisle began his head coaching career with Detroit in 2001-02. During his two-season tenure, the Pistons won 61 percent (100-64) of their games to go along with two Central Division championships and a trip to the 2003 Eastern Conference Finals. Following his first season, Carlisle earned the NBA's Coach of the Year award.

Including his two seasons with Detroit and first with Indiana in 2003-04, Carlisle became the first coach since Pat Riley to win 50 games and division championships in each of his first three seasons as a head coach.

Carlisle completed 13 seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Mavericks from 2008-21. He became the winningest coach in Mavericks history in 2015 and finished with a 555-478 overall record (.537) in Dallas. He guided the Mavericks to the franchise's first world championship in 2011 while posting a 16-5 mark during the 2011 postseason. Overall, Carlisle led the Mavericks to the postseason nine times in his 13 seasons with the team.

Also an NBA champion as a player with the Boston Celtics in 1986, Carlisle is one of only 14 individuals to win an NBA championship as both a player and a head coach.

In 1984, Carlisle began his NBA career as the only rookie to earn a roster spot with the Boston Celtics. He spent three seasons in Boston and enjoyed his best year as a professional for the 1986 NBA champions. He played one year with the New York Knicks under head coach Rick Pitino before moving on to New Jersey, where he played briefly for Fitch before being offered an assistant coaching position with the franchise.

A native of Ogdensburg, New York, Carlisle graduated from Virginia in 1984 with a B.A. in psychology. He and his wife, Donna, have a daughter, Abby. He enjoys golf, piano, table tennis, flying his plane and spending time with his family, which includes two dogs, Zoe and Daisy..

Also an NBA champion as a player with the Boston Celtics in 1986, Carlisle is one of only 14 individuals to win an NBA championship as both a player and a head coach.

Carlisle served as an ESPN studio analyst during the 2007-08 NBA season before taking the lead coaching role with the Mavericks. He also currently holds the role as president of the NBA Coaches Association.

Carlisle began his coaching career in 1989 as an assistant with the New Jersey Nets. In five seasons with the Nets, he had the opportunity to work under Hall of Fame coaches Bill Fitch and Chuck Daly. Carlisle then moved on to Portland, where he spent three seasons as an assistant under P.J. Carlesimo.

In 1984, Carlisle began his NBA career as the only rookie to earn a roster spot with the Boston Celtics. He spent three seasons in Boston and enjoyed his best year as a professional for the 1986 NBA champions. He played one year with the New York Knicks under head coach Rick Pitino before moving on to New Jersey, where he played briefly for Fitch before being offered an assistant coaching position with the franchise.

Collegiately, Carlisle played two years at the University of Maine before transferring to the University of Virginia, where he was co-captain of the Cavaliers' 1984 Final Four team.

A native of Ogdensburg, New York, Carlisle graduated from Virginia in 1984 with a B.A. in psychology. He and his wife, Donna, have a daughter, Abby. He enjoys golf, piano, table tennis, flying his plane and spending time with his family, which includes two dogs, Zoe and Daisy.
