PACERS IN THE PLAYOFFS

The Indiana Pacers return to the postseason for the first time since the 2019-20 season. The Pacers finished the 2023-24 regular season with a 47-35 record, making Indiana the sixth seed in the Eastern Conference.

The Pacers defeated the No. 3 seed Milwaukee Bucks in the First Round, marking their first win in a playoff series since the 2014 Eastern Conference Semifinals against Washington.

Indiana will face the New York Knicks in the 2024 Eastern Conference Semifinals. The Pacers are appearing in the East Semifinals for the 11th time in team history.

Indiana is making its 28th overall appearance in the NBA playoffs. Over the last 35 seasons (since 1989-90), the Pacers have made 26 postseason appearances - the most in the Eastern Conference over that span.

The Pacers have made eight appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals since the 1993-94 season. Only the Boston Celtics (9) and Miami Heat (10) have appeared in the Eastern Conference Finals more times over that span than Indiana.

PACING THE FIELD

Indiana posted historic numbers on the offensive end of the court this season, becoming the first team in NBA history to reach 10,000 points and 2,500 assists over the course of a regular season.

The Pacers earned a 157-152 road victory at Atlanta, 11/21, to secure East Group A in the In-Season Tournament. Indiana's 157 points set a new NBA franchise record for the most points scored, and is the highest scoring total in the NBA this season. The 309 combined team points marked the Pacers' highest-scoring game, and it was the first game in franchise history in which both teams shot 60 percent or better.

Indiana tied its franchise record with 157 points on 65-for-100 shooting in the season finale win over Atlanta April 14.

HISTORY AGAINST THE HAWKS

Indiana's record-setting offense broke several single-game franchise records this season, multiple of which have come in games against the Atlanta Hawks.

The Pacers earned a 157-152 road victory at Atlanta, 11/21, to secure East Group A in the In-Season Tournament. Indiana's 157 points set a new NBA franchise record for the most points scored. The 309 combined team points marked the Pacers' highest-scoring game, and it was the first game in franchise history in which both teams shot 60 percent or better.

The Pacers posted a 150-116 win over the Atlanta Hawks Jan. 5. The Pacers finished with a franchise-record 50 assists on 60 field goals. That total is tied for the seventh-most in NBA history and was only the second time a team has posted 50 assists since 1990 (50 assists by Washington against Indiana during the 2020-21 season). Indiana also matched its season high by placing eight players in double figures. Indiana posted 150+ points for the third time this season, which is one shy of tying the record for the most in a season in NBA history (1971-72 Lakers and 1978-79 Spurs). Indiana's eight games with 140+ points is now tied for the third-most in NBA history and the most since the Denver Nuggets posted eight games with 140 or more in 1983-84.

Despite missing point guard Tyrese Haliburton in the first game after he suffered a hamstring strain, Indiana set a new franchise record for field goal percentage in a game as they finished shooting 67.1 percent from the field (53-79) in a 126-108 road win at Atlanta Jan. 12.

The Pacers squared off against the Hawks in the season finale April 14 for a key matchup with playoff implications. Indiana responded by tying the franchise record (set previously against Atlanta this season) with 157 points in a 42-point victory.

Five of the Pacers' top seven single-game scoring totals in NBA franchise history occurred this season, and three of the top five came against Atlanta:

HISTORIC SHOOTING WEEKEND

Indiana turned in a historic shooting effort against Charlotte Nov. 4, as the Pacers tied NBA records for 3-pointers made in a quarter (12 in the third period) and in a half (18 in the second half). The Pacers finished with 50 points in the third quarter, which was their second period with 50+ points in NBA franchise history, trailing only a 54-point effort in the third quarter against Denver on Nov. 10, 2010. Indiana finished with 22 3-pointers on the night, falling one shy of the franchise record.

Tyrese Haliburton tied his previous career high with 43 points against the Hornets and became the first player in franchise history to record 40+ points and 10+ assists as he added 12 assists. Haliburton tied previous franchise records for one quarter as he finished with 25 points and six 3-pointers in Indiana's third-quarter effort (he later passed that mark with 26 points and seven 3s in the third quarter at Atlanta, 11/21).

The Pacers followed that effort one game later by tying their previous NBA franchise record with 152 points in a 41-point victory over the San Antonio Spurs Nov. 6. Indiana tied its NBA franchise record for points in a half by scoring 86 in the first half. It was the team's ninth-largest margin of victory in NBA franchise history, and the largest win since earning a 152-95 road win (+57) at Oklahoma City on May 1, 2021, which was also the largest margin of victory on the road in NBA history.

THE OPENING ACT

The Pacers opened the 2023-24 regular season with a 143-120 win over the Washington Wizards at Gainbridge Fieldhouse Oct. 25. It was the NBA's highest scoring total on Opening Night since the 1990-91 season.

The Pacers made 20 3-pointers in their win over the Wizards, marking their most 3-pointers made on Opening Night in franchise history. It marked the third-highest total on Opening Night in NBA history, falling short of the Chicago Bulls' record of 23 triples made on Oct. 23, 2019, a team coached by Pacers assistant Jim Boylen.

THE CARLISLE FILE

Rick Carlisle continues his third tenure with the Indiana Pacers, including his second as head coach, into the 2023-24 season.

Carlisle guided the Pacers to a 181-147 (.552) record during four seasons from 2003-07. In his first season as Pacers head coach in 2003-04, Carlisle led Indiana to a franchise-record 61 wins, posted the best record in the NBA, won a Central Division title and reached the 2004 Eastern Conference Finals.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle's 288 wins stands as the most by a head coach in Pacers NBA history. He passed Frank Vogel for most on the list this season with Indiana's win at Miami, 12/2. He is now one of four coaches to lead two different franchises in NBA coaching victories (Red Auerbach, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens).

Carlisle ranks third among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich and Milwaukee's Doc Rivers. He reached 900 wins for his NBA career with Indiana's 152-111 win over San Antonio Nov. 6.

Carlisle climbed into 12th place in NBA history ahead of Red Auerbach (938) for the most career wins as a head coach with the Pacers' win over Brooklyn April 1.

Indiana made significant strides in 2022-03, Carlisle's second season after returning to the team. The Pacers jumped from 25 wins in 2021-22 to 35 in 2022-23 and saw the development of young talent begin to rise as Tyrese Haliburton earned his first NBA All-Star appearance and Bennedict Mathurin, the team's highest draft choice since 1988, earned NBA All-Rookie First Team honors.

He earned 242 wins over his first seven combined seasons as Pacers head coach, and is poised to pass Frank Vogel (250 wins) during the 2023-24 season as the franchise's leader in NBA coaching victories.

The Pacers made postseason appearances in each of Carlisle's first three seasons (2003-06) as head coach while winning 18 playoff games over that span. Indiana reached the Eastern Conference Semifinals in 2004-05 before falling in six games to the eventual-Eastern Conference champion Detroit Pistons.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Pacers under head coach Larry Bird from 1997-2000. Carlisle helped lead the team to three straight Eastern Conference Finals appearances, including the franchise's first appearance in the NBA Finals in 2000.

Carlisle ranks second among active NBA head coaches in career coaching victories behind San Antonio's Gregg Popovich. He entered the 2023-24 season ranked 14th in NBA history in career wins as he posted an 896-793 mark (.530) over 22 seasons as a head coach.

Carlisle has led his teams to the playoffs 15 times in his 22 seasons and ranks 17th in NBA history with 63 playoff victories.

Carlisle began his head coaching career with Detroit in 2001-02. During his two-season tenure, the Pistons won 61 percent (100-64) of their games to go along with two Central Division championships and a trip to the 2003 Eastern Conference Finals. Following his first season, Carlisle earned the NBA's Coach of the Year award.

Including his two seasons with Detroit and first with Indiana in 2003-04, Carlisle became the first coach since Pat Riley to win 50 games and division championships in each of his first three seasons as a head coach.

Carlisle completed 13 seasons as the head coach of the Dallas Mavericks from 2008-21. He became the winningest coach in Mavericks history in 2015 and finished with a 555-478 overall record (.537) in Dallas. He guided the Mavericks to the franchise's first world championship in 2011 while posting a 16-5 mark during the 2011 postseason. Overall, Carlisle led the Mavericks to the postseason nine times in his 13 seasons with the team.

Also an NBA champion as a player with the Boston Celtics in 1986, Carlisle is one of only 14 individuals to win an NBA championship as both a player and a head coach.

In 1984, Carlisle began his NBA career as the only rookie to earn a roster spot with the Boston Celtics. He spent three seasons in Boston and enjoyed his best year as a professional for the 1986 NBA champions. He played one year with the New York Knicks under head coach Rick Pitino before moving on to New Jersey, where he played briefly for Fitch before being offered an assistant coaching position with the franchise.

A native of Ogdensburg, New York, Carlisle graduated from Virginia in 1984 with a B.A. in psychology. He and his wife, Donna, have a daughter, Abby. He enjoys golf, piano, table tennis, flying his plane and spending time with his family, which includes two dogs, Zoe and Daisy..
