MONDAY, MAY 7, 2018 - 8:30 P.M. - QUICKEN LOANS ARENA

TV: TNT/TSN RADIO: SPORTSNET 590

TEAM NOTES

- The Toronto Raptors travel to Quicken Loans Arena for Game 4 of an Eastern Conference semifinal playoff series versus the Cleveland Cavaliers. The Raptors are 0-6 during playoff games at Quicken Loans Arena the past three years. Since 2014 the Toronto has managed at least one road playoff victory in five of eight playoff series.
- Toronto is 0-2 all-time when it falls behind 0-3 in a playoff series. The Raptors have been swept (Cleveland 2017, Washington 2015 and New York 2000).
- Toronto has been out-scored 52-19 (-33) on points off turnovers through three games against Cleveland. The Raptors ranked eighth during the regular-season averaging 17.1 points off opponent turnovers and seventh defensively holding opponents to 15.0 points.
- Jonas Valanciunas is averaging 15.0 points, 13.8 rebounds and shooting .468 from the field over the last five games. He recorded the franchise's first 20-20 playoff game May 1 in Game 1 vs. Cleveland, collecting a career-best 21 rebounds and 21 points. Valanciunas has a franchise-record 17 career playoff double-doubles.
- DeMar DeRozan averaged a first-round series career-high 28.8 points against Washington. He also made career-best 10 three-pointers and recorded 29 assists. DeRozan scored a playoff career-high 37 points Apr. 17 in Game 2 vs. Washington. He holds the franchise-record for most 30-point games in the playoffs (13).
- Toronto was +18 (66-to-48) on made three-pointers during the first round vs. Washington. It was the first time the Raptors made more three-pointers than its opponent since the 2016 second-round series against Miami – a streak of three consecutive series.
- Toronto was +10 (44-to-34) on three-pointers made against Cleveland during three regular-season games. The Cavaliers are +58 (129-to-71) on three-pointers made during 10 playoff games against the Raptors the past two seasons. Cleveland was +34 (61-to-27) on three-pointers made during last year's playoff series.
- The Raptors were 51-16 in the regular-season season when recording 20-or-more assists in a game. Toronto dished out 20+ assists 34 times (26-8) last season. The Raptors ranked sixth in the NBA averaging 24.3 assists per game. Kyle Lowry led the team with 6.9 assists, while DeMar DeRozan averaged a career-high 5.2 assists.
- Toronto's bench finished fourth in the NBA averaging 41.8 points. The Raptors ranked 26th in bench scoring each of the past two seasons (2015-17). Toronto's bench ranked first after Jan. 1 averaging 44.3 points.
- Toronto has the youngest roster based on average age among the eight remaining playoff teams. The 15 players eligible to participate for the Raptors in the playoffs have a combined average age of 25.9 years. Cleveland ranks second among remaining playoff teams with an average age of 29.4 years. Houston leads all teams with an average age of 29.5 years.

SECOND-ROUND SERIES RECAPS

GAME 1 - MAY 1, 2018 CLEVELAND 113, TORONTO 112 (OT)

TORONTO - LeBron James had 26 points, 13 assists and 11 rebounds, J.R. Smith scored 20 points and the Cleveland Cavaliers beat the Toronto Raptors 113-112 in overtime to win Game 1 of their second-round playoff series ... Kyle Korver scored 19 points, including the go-ahead 3-pointer in overtime after Cleveland never led in regulation ... Tristan Thompson had 14 points and 12 rebounds for the Cavaliers ... Toronto's Fred VanVleet missed a 3-pointer with 3.4 seconds to go in overtime that could have won it for the Raptors, who couldn't hold on to a 14-point, first-quarter lead ... Jonas Valanciunas had 21 points and 21 rebounds, Kyle Lowry had 18 points and 10 assists, and DeMar DeRozan scored 22 points for the Raptors ... Jeff Green scored 16 points and Kevin Love had 13 rebounds ... Korver's 3 early in overtime gave the Cavaliers their first lead of the game, 108-105 ... Lowry's three-point play made it 113-112 with 57 seconds to go and, after the Cavs were called for a shot-clock violation, Toronto had one more chance to win, but VanVleet couldn't come through ... VanVleet was one of four Raptors to miss in the final seconds of regulation.

GAME 2 - MAY 3, 2018 CLEVELAND 128, TORONTO 110

TORONTO - LeBron James had 43 points and 14 assists, Kevin Love added 31 points and 11 rebounds, and the Cleveland Cavaliers beat the Toronto Raptors 128-110 to take a 2-0 lead in their second-round playoff series ... J.R. Smith scored 15 points, Jeff Green had 14 and George Hill 13 as the Cavaliers posted their eighth consecutive postseason victory over the Raptors and halted Toronto's four-game winning streak in Game 2s ... The Raptors entered 6-1 all-time when playing Game 2 at home ... James had eight rebounds, narrowly missing his second straight triple-double. He connected on 19 of 28 attempts, while Love shot 11 for 21 ... DeMar DeRozan scored 24 points and Kyle Lowry had 21 for the Raptors ... Jonas Valanciunas had 16 points and 12 rebounds and Fred VanVleet scored 14 points, but the Raptors lost back-to-back home games for the first time all season.

GAME 3 - MAY 5, 2018 CLEVELAND 105, TORONTO 103

CLEVELAND - LeBron James banked in a running one-hander at the buzzer, giving the Cleveland Cavaliers a 105-103 win over Toronto in Game 3 ... After the Raptors tied it on rookie OG Anunoby's 3-pointer with eight seconds left, James took the inbounds pass, dribbled the length of the court and rose off the floor on the left side of the basket just feet from Toronto's bench ... James finished with 38 points, Kevin Love added 21 and 16 rebounds and Kyle Korver scored 18 for the Cavs, who have won nine straight postseason games over the Raptors ... It was the fifth career postseason buzzer-beater for James, the second of these playoffs, and this one had maybe the highest degree of difficulty of them all ... Kyle Lowry scored 27 for Toronto, which played much more physically and clawed back in the fourth quarter while All-Star DeMar DeRozan was on the bench ... DeRozan went just 3 of 12 from the field and scored eight points.

FIRST-ROUND SERIES RECAPS

GAME 1 - APRIL 14, 2018 TORONTO 114, WASHINGTON 106

TORONTO - Serge Ibaka had 23 points and 12 rebounds, Delon Wright scored 11 of his 18 points in the fourth quarter, and the Toronto Raptors snapped a 10-game losing streak in playoff openers by beating the Washington Wizards 114-106 ... DeRozan scored 17 points, C.J. Miles and OG Anunoby each had 12 and Kyle Lowry had 11 points and nine assists for the Raptors, whose only previous victory in the opening game of a playoff series came in the second round at Philadelphia on May 6, 2001 ... Toronto entered having lost an NBA-worst 10 consecutive Game 1s since, including six at home ... Toronto put its streak in the past by hitting 16 of 30 3-point attempts, a team record for a postseason game ... John Wall had 23 points and 15 assists for the Wizards, while Markieff Morris had 22 points and 11 rebounds ... Bradley Beal scored 19 points for Washington, while Mike Scott had 14 and Marcin Gortat 12 ... Washington led 91-88 when Scott was called for a flagrant foul after using his elbow to knock Lowry down early in the fourth. Lowry made both free throws and, on the ensuing possession, Wright gave Toronto the lead with a layup ... After a missed shot by Morris, Miles hit a 3 to cap a 7-0 run that gave the Raptors a 95-91 lead with 9:26 left.

GAME 3 - APRIL 20, 2018 WASHINGTON 122, TORONTO 103

WASHINGTON - Bradley Beal and John Wall scored 28 points apiece and the Washington Wizards beat Toronto 122-103 in Game 3, cutting the Raptors' lead in their opening round playoff series to 2-1 ... DeMar DeRozan scored 23 points to lead the Raptors on a chippy night, while Kyle Lowry had 19. Jonas Valanciunas finished with 14 and OG Anunoby had 12 ... The Raptors, who were swept by Washington on the same court in the opening round of the 2015 playoffs, never led by more than nine points, falling behind for good early in the second quarter ... Ty Lawson drilled a three with less than a second left in the third quarter, it sent the Wizards into the fourth with a 101-82 advantage ... The Raptors pulled to within 13 points on a three-pointer by Lowry with 7:06 left to play, but any hopes of a comeback were short-lived, and by the time Mike Scott sank a wide-open three with 3:06 to play, the Wizards were back up by 19 points, and coach Dwane Casey subbed off his starters ... The Raptors coughed up 28 points on 19 turnovers.

GAME 4 - APRIL 22, 2018 WASHINGTON 106, TORONTO 98

WASHINGTON - DeMar DeRozan had 35 points, but shot just 2-for-8 in the fourth quarter, and the Washington Wizards scorched Toronto down the stretch en route to a 106-98 win, tying the opening-round Eastern Conference series at two games apiece ... Bradley Beal scored 31 points in Washington's 106-98 win over Toronto to even up the 1st round playoff series at 2-2 ... Next time is on Wednesday in Toronto, where the Raptors have lost just seven times this season ... Kyle Lowry had 19 points and seven assists, Jonas Valanciunas had 11 points, Jakob Poeltl finished with 10 and Serge Ibaka grabbed 10 rebounds ... Toronto's turnovers - 18 giveaways for 19 points - proved costly once again ... Bradley Beal scored 31 points, and John Wall chipping in with 27 for Washington ... Toronto opened the fourth with an 8-0 run capped by a steal and basket by Delon Wright ... The Wizards tied the game with 5:40 to play ... Wall pounced on a Raptors turnover with 1:57 to play and his basket gave the Wizards a three-point lead ... Then with the noisy crowd on its feet, Wall calmly drained a jumper that gave the Wizards a six-point lead with a minute to play ... Kelly Oubre iced the victory with a pair of free throws with 22 seconds left.

GAME 6 - APRIL 27, 2018 TORONTO 102, WASHINGTON 92

WASHINGTON - The Toronto Raptors have advanced to the Eastern Conference semifinals for the third consecutive season ... Kyle Lowry scored 24 points and the Raptors beat Washington 102-92, winning the opening-round playoff series four games to two ... DeMar DeRozan added 16 points for Toronto, while Jonas Valanciunas finished with 14 points and 12 rebounds, and Pascal Siakam scored 11 off the bench ... Bradley Beal had 32 points to top the Wizards, while John Wall added 23 ... The home team had won each of the first five games of the series ... The Raptors trailed by 12 points early, but maintained their composure before finally taking their first lead of the game - 65-64 - midway through the third quarter ... Trailing 78-73 with one quarter to play, the Raptors' "bench mob" which had been among the best in the league in the regular season, opened the fourth with a 15-5 run, punctuated by a Pascal Siakam dunk with 6:51 left that gave Toronto an 88-83 lead ... Siakam took flight for another dunk that stretched the Raptors' lead to 96-88, then four consecutive points by Lowry made it a 10-point game with 1:55 to play.

FRANCHISE RECORD STREAKS...

- Toronto made at least 10 three-pointers in a franchise-record 17 consecutive games (Feb. 26 - Mar. 27); shooting .385 (224-for-582) from beyond the arc during this stretch.
- The Raptors won a franchise-record nine straight road games (Feb. 11 - Mar. 20). Toronto has the fourth-best road record in the NBA (24-15) this season and has tied the franchise-record for road victories in a season set during the 2015-16 campaign.
- Toronto topped the 100-point mark in a franchise-best 23 consecutive games (Jan. 28 - Mar. 18); averaging 115.9 points during this span.
- The Raptors tied their longest winning streak in franchise history with 11 straight victories (Feb. 26 - Mar. 16). Toronto also won 11 consecutive games Jan. 6-30, 2016. The Raptors' average margin of victory during the win streak was 11.7 points.
- Toronto matched a franchise record with 12 consecutive home victories (Nov. 7 - Jan. 1). The last time the Raptors won 12 in a row at Air Canada Centre was Jan. 18 - Mar. 4, 2016.

ADDITIONAL TEAM NOTES...

- The Raptors won a franchise record 34 home games and tied Houston for the best home record in the NBA this season 34-7 (.829). Toronto won a franchise record-tying 12 straight home games earlier this season (Nov. 7 - Jan. 1). Air Canada Centre has been sold-out for 178 consecutive games (including playoffs) - the longest streak in team history.
- Toronto has scored at least 120 points in a franchise record 24 games this season, second most in the NBA behind only Golden State (29). The Raptors are 21-3 this season when they score 120-or-more points.
- Toronto became the first team this season to secure a playoff berth with a 121-119 victory Mar. 7 at Detroit (OT). This marks the earlier date the Raptors have ever qualified for the postseason and the fewest number of games played (64) to qualify. Previously, the earliest Toronto has ever qualified for the playoffs was Mar. 23, 2016.
- The Raptors finished the month of February with an Eastern Conference-best 9-2 record, which included six victories of 20 points-or-more points. Toronto's average margin of victory last month was 19.3 points. According to Elias, the Raptors also had the best point differential (+15.27) in the month of February since the 1990 Phoenix Suns, who had a +15.33 point differential. Toronto averaged 117.5 points (fourth in the NBA) last month.
- DeMar DeRozan was named the Eastern Conference Player of the Month for January. DeRozan earned the honour for the third time. He was named co-winner along with teammate Kyle Lowry in January 2016 and won for the first time in April 2015. DeRozan ranked second in the East in scoring (25.3 ppg) and added 5.9 assists as the Raptors went 10-5 in January. He scored at least 30 points in four games, highlighted by a franchise-record 52 points in an overtime victory Jan. 1 vs. Milwaukee. DeRozan had at least eight assists in four games and posted the highest assist average for any month of his nine-year career.
- DeMar DeRozan scored a single-game franchise-record 52 points in an overtime victory Jan. 1 vs. Milwaukee. DeRozan shot 17-for-29 from the field, 5-for-9 from beyond the arc and a perfect 13-for-13 at the free throw line. The previous scoring record was held by Vince Carter (51 - Feb. 27, 2000 vs. PHX) and Terrence Ross (51 - Jan. 25, 2014 vs. LAC).
- Dwane Casey was named Eastern Conference Coach of the Month for December. It's the fifth time in five seasons Casey has earned the honour, having previously won for December and January 2016, November 2014 and December 2013. Toronto finished the month with an Eastern Conference best 11-3 (.786) record and averaged a conference-high 111.0 points. The team's winning percentage marked the best December record in franchise history.
- Dwane Casey coached his 500th game for the Raptors on Dec. 10 at Sacramento. Casey is the longest serving coach in franchise history (seven seasons) and the winningest. Under Casey's guidance the Raptors improved their win total in five consecutive seasons (2011-16), including a franchise-record 56 wins during the 2015-16 season. Casey's also holds the team record for playoff victories (17) and guided the Raptors to the 2016 Eastern Conference Finals for the first time.
- Scotiabank and MLSE have announced an expanded sponsorship and philanthropic partnership which will see the home of the Toronto Raptors transformed into the Scotiabank Arena in July, 2018.
- The Toronto Raptors and Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada expanded their long-standing partnership to feature a prominent program in support of diabetes awareness and prevention, and beginning in the 2017-18 season, include the first jersey patch partnership in the team's history. The Sun Life patch will appear on the front left shoulder of Raptors game jerseys. Jersey sponsorships will be introduced league-wide as part of a three-year NBA pilot program.

Head coach Dwane Casey and his staff coached Team LeBron at the 67th NBA All-Star Game, which was played Sunday, Feb. 18 at Staples Center in Los Angeles. Casey was the first coach in franchise history to earn the honour. Under Casey's leadership the Raptors have won three Atlantic Division titles (2013-16) and advanced to the playoffs in a franchise-record four consecutive seasons (2013-17).

DeMar DeRozan and Kyle Lowry represented Toronto at the 2018 NBA All-Star Game in Los Angeles for a third straight season. DeRozan was voted as a starter by the fans, media and players, while Lowry was selected as a reserve by the coaches. DeRozan, a native of Compton, is a four-time All-Star and made his second straight start. He scored a team high-tying 21 points for Team Stephen. Lowry made his fourth consecutive All-Star appearance and recorded a game-high 11 assists for Team Stephen. Lowry also participated in his third straight Three-Point Contest as part of All-Star Saturday Night.

DWANE CASEY

HEAD COACH

Under Dwane Casey's leadership the Raptors have won three Atlantic Division championships and advanced to the postseason in a franchise-record four consecutive seasons. He has guided the club to a 261-215 (.554) regular-season mark, including the only two 50-win seasons in team history. He is the longest tenured coach in team history and is the franchise's all-time winningest coach.

The Raptors posted their second 50-win season in 2016-17, despite missing All-Star point guard Kyle Lowry for 21 games and integrating two new players into the rotation following the trade deadline. Casey earned his fourth Eastern Conference Coach of the Month honour in December. The Raptors averaged a conference-best 112.1 points with a +11.1-point differential. Toronto also finished the month ranked second defensively holding opponents to 101.1 points per game. He is the only coach in franchise history to earn the Coach of the Month award multiple times (January 2016, November 2014 and December 2013).

In 2015-16, Casey directed the Raptors to their fourth Atlantic Division championship and set a team record with 56 victories. It was the first time in franchise history the Raptors had topped 50 wins in a season. The Raptors finished second in the Eastern Conference, the highest position in franchise history. Casey showed an ability to adapt and succeed as he was missing two-fifths of his starting lineup for more than 60 games and started a rookie for 20 games following the All-Star break.

He earned his third Coach of the Month award for January after guiding the Raptors to a 12-2 mark, setting a team record for wins in January and the best winning percentage (.857) in a month with 10 or more games. The Raptors won a franchise-best 11 consecutive games (January 6-30) and swept a seven-game home stand for the first time in team history.

In 2014-15, Casey led the Raptors to a second consecutive Atlantic Division championship and 49 victories. His club had sole possession of first place in the Eastern Conference for the first time in team history and remained there from November 4 – January 1. The defensive-minded Casey showcased an up-tempo offence that set a franchise best with 726 made three-pointers and was the second-highest scoring unit in team history. They also finished in the Top-10 in the League for fewest turnovers for a third straight season.

In 2013-14, the Raptors recorded 48 wins, an Atlantic Division championship and the third overall seed in the Eastern Conference. Casey's squad also set a franchise record with 22 road wins and matched an all-time high with 16 victories against Western Conference opponents. Casey continued his emphasis on the defensive end of the court as Toronto ranked in the Top 10 in points allowed (98.0, 6th) and opponent field goal percentage (.450, 10th).

The season turned for Casey and the Raptors following a seven-player trade with Sacramento on December 9. From that point forward the club posted the best mark in the Eastern Conference at 41-22.

In the 2012-13 campaign, Casey and his coaching staff oversaw the marked development of a youthful core of players including DeMar DeRozan, Amir Johnson, Jonas Valanciunas and Terrence Ross. DeRozan established career highs in points, rebounds, assists and minutes. Johnson posted career bests in points, rebounds, assists, steals, blocks and minutes. Valanciunas earned NBA Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month honours.

In his first season with the Raptors, Casey took a unit that ranked near the bottom of the NBA in every defensive category and transformed the culture and results. The Raptors finished the 2011-12 campaign as the league's season leader for greatest improvement in opponent field goal percentage and opponent scoring. Toronto ranked in the Top 10 in fewest points allowed (9th), opponent field goal percentage (8th) and three-point field goal percentage (5th). The team had finished in the bottom third of the league in all three categories in the 2010-11 season.

Casey agreed to a multi-year contract extension June 7, 2016. He was named the eighth head coach in franchise history June 21, 2011 joining the organization just nine days after helping lead the Dallas Mavericks to the 2011 NBA Championship. Casey, 58, has served as a head coach, associate head coach and assistant coach in the NBA 20 of the past 21 years. He has coached in two NBA Finals (1996 and 2011) and two NBA All-Star Games (1996 and 1998).

Casey spent three seasons (2008-11) as an assistant with the Mavericks. Dallas posted a 162-84 (.659) mark during that span, winning 50 or more games in each of Casey's three seasons with the team. Casey was in charge of a defensive unit that held its opponents to 96.0 points per game (6th in the NBA) and .450 per cent shooting from the field (8th in the NBA) in the 2010-11 regular season. In the 2011 postseason, Casey's defense posted series victories over offensive powers the likes of Kobe Bryant, Kevin Durant, Russell Westbrook, LeBron James and Dwyane Wade. Dallas held its playoff opponents to 92.5 points per game and .447 per cent shooting from the floor.

Toronto is Casey's second stop as an NBA head coach. His first endeavor as a bench boss was with the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2005-07. He had the club in playoff contention with a 20-20 record when he was replaced January 25, 2007. His 2005-06 squad finished in the NBA's top 10 in fewest average points per game and lowest opponent field goal percentage.

Casey began his NBA coaching career in 1994 as an assistant with the Seattle SuperSonics. He spent 11 seasons with the Sonics where he served under long-time NBA head coaches George Karl, Paul Westphal and Nate McMillan. He was promoted to associate head coach in November 2000. Nine of his teams in Seattle finished above .500 with five winning 50 or more games. The 1996 squad won the Western Conference Championship after finishing the regular season with a franchise record 64 victories.

In 14 seasons as an NBA assistant, Casey's teams have registered a 689-427 mark (.617) with eight campaigns of 50 or more wins. His teams have qualified for the playoffs in 11 of those 14 seasons.

Prior to joining the Sonics, Casey spent five years as a head coach in Japan. He also coached Japan's National Team with basketball legend Pete Newell. In the summer of 1998, Casey coached the team to its first World Championship appearance in 31 years.

From 1985-89, Casey was an assistant under legendary collegiate coach Eddie Sutton at the University of Kentucky. The Wildcats posted a 90-40 mark during that span. He also served as an assistant under Clem Haskins at Western Kentucky University from 1980-85.

Casey began his coaching career at Kentucky in 1979 as a graduate assistant under Joe B. Hall. While at UK, he recruited and coached eventual NBA players Winston Bennett, Sam Bowie, Rex Chapman, LeRon Ellis, Shawn Kemp, Chris Mills, Dirk Minnifield, Irving Thomas and Melvin Turpin.

Casey played collegiately at Kentucky and helped the Wildcats register a 30-2 record in his junior season and capture the 1978 NCAA Championship. A four-year letterman, Casey was named team captain his senior year and won Kentucky's all-academic award.

A native of Morganfield, Kentucky, Casey earned a degree in business administration from Kentucky in 1979. He and his wife, Brenda, have a daughter, Justine, and son, Zachary.
