LAST GAME: FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 2024: MINNESOTA TIMBERWOLVES 127 - LOS ANGELES LAKERS 117

Naz Reid hit six 3-pointers while scoring 31 points, and the Minnesota Timberwolves capitalized on LeBron James' absence and Anthony Davis' early exit with an eye injury for a 127-117 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers on Sunday night. Anthony Edwards added 26 points for the Timberwolves, who moved even with Denver atop the Western Conference at 54-24 with their seventh win in nine games. Minnesota didn't waste its golden opportunity to beat the surging Lakers, who played most of the night without their two superstars. James stayed home with flu-like symptoms, missing his 11th game of his 21st NBA season. Davis then went to the locker room after getting hit in the face by Kyle Anderson while scoring a tip-in basket late in the first quarter. The nine-time All-Star didn't return to the game, and Lakers coach Darvin Ham had no postgame update on his condition. Davis took another blow to his left eye, which already was injured from a hit taken last month in a game against Golden State. "Obviously, we caught a break there," Minnesota coach Chris Finch said. Minnesota blew open a tight game without Davis patrolling the middle, putting up a 46-point second quarter. Los Angeles' supporting cast kept it close in the third, but Rudy Gobert scored six of his 18 points in the fourth quarter while Minnesota comfortably held on. Gobert also had 16 rebounds. "Offensively, we were playing the right way," said Nickeil Alexander-Walker, who scored 15 points. "Things just opened up because their defense was lacking length, and I think for us, we just kept making the right play. Coming down the stretch, Naz was making big plays. Ant was making the right read. All the talent we have was just able to come through and make shots, make plays." With an opportunity to be the No. 1 seed in the West for only the second time in franchise history, Minnesota rebounded from its worst offensive performance of the season in Phoenix last Friday. The Wolves and the defending NBA champion Nuggets meet in Denver on Wednesday, with Minnesota traveling to the second game of a back-to-back. "I think all year it's been a goal for us," Reid said of the No. 1 seed. "That's something that we hunger for, and we talk about it all the time. Obviously we want the standings to be in our favor, so we've got to go out and make it in our favor." Rui Hachimura scored 30 points for the Lakers, whose four-game winning streak ended with only their second loss in 11 games. Los Angeles also fell right back into ninth place in the ultracompetitive West after finally moving up to eighth on Saturday for the first time since late December. Backup big man Jaxson Hayes had a season-high 19 points and 10 assists while playing 33 minutes in Davis' absence, and Spencer Dinwiddie added 18 points and seven assists for the Lakers. D'Angelo Russell struggled when Los Angeles needed a huge game from its No. 3 option, missing 14 of his 19 shots to finish with 15 points and 11 assists. Minnesota quickly broke open a close game after Davis left, streaking to a 79-64 halftime lead with Reid scoring 18 points in the second quarter. Reid, who also grabbed 11 rebounds, racked up 46 combined points in the Wolves' two previous meetings with the Lakers. "I just stand out in the lights," Reid said with a grin. "I'm sorry. I don't know. I just go out there and compete, and it just happened to be on TV."

PREVIOUS GAME: FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 2024: MINNESOTA TIMBERWOLVES 87 - PHOENIX SUNS 97

Grayson Allen scored 23 points, Kevin Durant had 22 and the Phoenix Suns raced to a 15-0 lead in a 97-87 victory over the Minnesota Timberwolves on Friday night. Bradley Beal had 14 points for the Suns, who have won four straight home games. Devin Booker, coming off games with 52 and 40 points, finished with 13 points and 13 assists. His only 3-pointer of the night gave the Suns a 94-72 lead with 4:02 remaining. Jusuf Nurkic, who was a game-time decision with a left calf injury, played 26 minutes and had 11 points, 15 rebounds and six assists. It was only the fourth time the Suns didn't score 100 points in a game, but it was the first time in those games that they won, "This was one of our best communication games of the season," Allen said abou the Suns' defensive effort. "Just great all around." All five Suns starters scored in the 15-0 run, capped by Beal with a dunk. Minnesota finally scored when Mike Conley made two free throws with 7:35 left in the quarter. "We had eight turnovers in the first quarter. We fought the game the whole time," Timberwolves coach Chris Finch said. "We didn't make the easy pass when it was there and when we did have opportunities at the rim we didn't finish strong. A complete breakdown offensively." "We've been playing better than this offensively, and it was on us to be able to finish some of the opportunities we did create, and I got to do a better job of giving these guys some solutions too." The Suns led 32-20 after the first quarter, 57-41 at halftime and were never in danger after that, with Minnesota scoring the final 13 points of the game to make the final score closer. Phoenix (46-31) held on to the No. 6 position in the Western Conference. Minnesota (53-24) is tied with Denver for the best record in the West. Anthony Edwards struggled from the field, making just 6 of 19 shots and finishing with 17 points. Durant had most of the coverage on the All-Star guard. "He's tough. He moves so smooth and effortlessly," Durant said about Edwards. "We did a solid job of forcing tough shots, not putting him on the free-throw line, and getting out and running." Nickell Alexander-Walker was the only other Timberwolves player in double figures with 13 points. Naz Reid had 11 rebounds. Neither team was especially efficient — Minnesota had 19 turnovers and Phoenix had 18. The Suns scored 24 points off the Timberwolves' mistakes. The Suns won the teams' previous meeting, 133-115 Nov. 15 in Phoenix — the most points the Timberwolves have allowed in a game this season. This time, Minnesota's 87 points marked the lowest total by the Timberwolves as well as the fewest permitted by the Suns this season. "We just keep improving," Suns coach Frank Vogel said. "We don't want to be a good defense, we want to be a great defense. Guys have responded. (Nurkic) has really grown throughout the season as a rim defender, blocking everything that's coming to the basket, trusting his teammates to go attack." Minnesota is still without Karl-Anthony Towns (left meniscus tear), who the Timberwolves hope will be back before the end of the regular season. He last played March 4. Each team has five games remaining after tonight. The teams finish the season against each other April 14 in Minneapolis.

PREVIOUS GAME: WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 2024: MINNESOTA TIMBERWOLVES 133 - TORONTO RAPTORS 85

Anthony Edwards scored 28 points, Naz Reid added 23 and the Minnesota Timberwolves routed the short-handed Toronto Raptors 133-85 on Wednesday night to move into a tie for first-place in the Western Conference. Rudy Gobert had 11 points and 15 rebounds for Minnesota, whose 48-point win marked its largest margin of victory this season. The Timberwolves began the day tied with Oklahoma City for second in the West, one-half game behind first-place Denver. Minnesota's win moved it into a tie with the idle Nuggets with six games remaining for both teams. "Taking care of business, taking advantage of a severely depleted team, and just kind of kept growing the lead," Timberwolves coach Chris Finch said. "That was the challenge at halftime was to play against our own standard. Guys I thought for the most part did a great job of that all game long." Immanuel Quickley, Gradey Dick and Javon Freeman-Liberty all had 16 points for Toronto, which has lost 15 straight since its last win on March 3rd. The 48-point loss was the largest in Raptors franchise history. "First quarter, we were competitive. We did a good job of preventing them to get out in transition and run. We made them a half court team, and they scored 23 points," Raptors coach Darko Rajaković said. "I thought as the game was wearing on, we were getting more and more tired. We just started to turn the ball over. Once we started to turn the ball over, everything opened up for them." Reid was hot from deep throughout the game as he shot 6 for 10 on 3-pointers. Edwards was 5 for 12 on 3s after combing to go 0 for 19 from deep over his last three games. "They felt the same as yesterday," said Edwards, who missed all six shots he took from deep Tuesday against the Rockets. "Yesterday, I had a couple ins and outs, so I knew today was going to be the day that they (were) going to fall." A bevy of injuries left Toronto with just eight available players. Gary Trent Jr. was a late scratch with back spasms, and Bruce Brown (knee), RJ Barrett (knee) and Kelly Olynyk rested after all playing in Tuesday night's 128-111 loss against the Lakers. Malik Williams made his NBA debut, getting the start for the Raptors the same day he signed a 10-day contract. The former Louisville big man averaged 11.1 points and 9.3 rebounds per game this year for Sioux Falls of the G League. Williams was held scoreless but grabbed five rebounds and had two blocks in his debut. Veteran guard Mike Conley rested for Minnesota after playing the previous night in a 113-106 win against Houston. The Wolves sat Edwards, Reid and Jaden McDaniels for the entire fourth quarter of this game with a 91-60 lead after three quarters.

ANT TAKING THE CROWN FROM THE KING

Anthony Edwards added 26 points on 9-of-20 shooting and eight assists in Los Angeles on April 7, his 46th 25+ point game of the season (138th career). In all four games against the Lakers this season Edwards scored 25+ points, becoming the second player in Timberwolves history to have four 25+ point games against the Lakers in a single season (Andrew Wiggins also had four in 2016-17).

EDWARDS KEEPS HIS SWIPE STREAK ALIVE IN PHOENIX

On April 5 at Phoenix, Anthony Edwards led the way for the Timberwolves with teamhigh 17 points, eight rebounds, three assists and a game-high-tying three steals. With his three steals on the night, Edwards has had at least one steal in 17 straight road games, tied for the fourth-longest such streak in team history. SIXTH ON THE ROSTER, FIRST IN OUR HEARTS

Naz Reid ended the night of April 3 vs. Toronto with 23 points on 8-of-15 shooting, including a game-high-tying 6-of-10 from deep, seven rebounds and two blocks, marking his second consecutive and 13th 20+ point game this season (28th career).

Reid scored 18 of his 23 points in the first half against the Raptors, marking his second consecutive game scoring 15+ points before the half. It also marked the ninth time this season he has scored 15+ points in a single half (17th career).

With his one made three in the April 5 contest at Phoenix, Reid has now made 158 threes this year, the second most made threes by a forward and/or a center in a single season in franchise history, trailing only Kevin Love.

Player	Season	Made Threes
Kevin Love	2013-14	190
Naz Reid	2023-24	158
Karl-Anthony Towns	2021-22	150

The April 3 win vs. Toronto marked Reid's fourth career game making 6+ threes. He becomes just the eighth player in franchise history to record 4+ such games and just the third forward/center in franchise history to do so, joining Karl-Anthony Towns (eight games), Chuck Person (four games) and Love (four games).

ANT LEADS THE WAY VS. TORONTO

Anthony Edwards led the way for the Timberwolves on April 3 vs. Toronto with a gamehigh 28 points on 10-of-23 shooting, including 5-of-12 from deep, game-high-tying six assists and two steals, marking his 45th 25+ point game of the season (137th career) and his 30th such game with 5+ assists (71st career).

It marked Reid's seventh game this season with 10+ rebounds (19th career). The April 5 contest marked the fourth game this season (13th career) that Reid has tallied multiple steals and multiple blocks in the same game.

ÉCRAN TOTAL

GOBZILLA FEASTS ON THE RAPTORS

On April 3 vs. Toronto, Rudy Gobert added 11 points on 3-of-6 shooting, a game-high 15 rebounds and two blocks, marking his sixth consecutive double-double and his 50th double-double of the season (436th career). His six consecutive double-doubles are the second most such consecutive games for Minnesota this season (nine games; Feb. 2 - Feb. 27).

In recording two blocks, Gobert notched his 48th game this season with multiple blocks (472nd career) and his 36th double-double of the season with at least two blocks (304th career). His two blocks give him 148 rejections this season, tying him with Eddie Griffin for the fourth most blocks in a single season in franchise history (2005-06). With two more blocks, Gobert will tie Kevin Garnett's 1997-98 season (150 blocks) for the third most blocks in a season in team history.

April 3 also marked the 25th time this season Gobert has recorded 15+ rebounds, the second most such games in the NBA this season (Domantas Sabonis: 28 games) and the 214th such game of his career. Since entering the league in the 2013-14 NBA Draft, only Andre Drummond (311 games) and DeAndre Jordan (215 games) have recorded more 15+ rebound games in the NBA. His 214 career games rank 26th in NBA history.

OVERALL RECORD: 158-125 SEASONS AS HEAD COACH IN LEAGUE: 4th RECORD WITH MINNESOTA: 158-125 SEASONS WITH MINNESOTA: 4th

Chris Finch was named Head Coach of the Minnesota Timberwolves on February 22, 2021, becoming the team's 16th Head Coach. On April 11, 2022, the Timberwolves announced a multi-year contract extension for Finch along with his coaching staff.

His 158 total wins over the last four seasons rank second in team history and his .558 winning percentage passes Flip Saunders' franchise-best mark (.521). After the Timberwolves' 99-96 win over the Golden State Warriors on Mar. 26, Finch recorded his 100th career win, joining Saunders as the only two coaches in Wolves history

On Dec. 4, 2024, the NBA named Finch Western Conference Coach of the Month for October and November after guiding the Wolves to a 14-4 record to begin the 2023-24 season. It was the first monthly honor of his coaching career, he became the third Timberwolves head coach to win the award, joining Kevin McHale (January 2009) and Flip Saunders (April 2004, February 2003, January 2001 and January 2000). Following the Wolves' Feb. 4 win vs. Houston, Finch was selected to represent the Western Conference at the 2024 NBA All-Star Game in Indianapolis, given to the team with the best record through Feb. 4 (including tiebreaker scendrios).

This marked the first time in Finch's career being named an All-Star Head Coach and the second time in Timbervolves history a head coach has been named to the All-Star Game. Flip Saunders coached the Western Conference All-Stars to a 136-132 victory at the 2004 NBA All-Star Game in Los Angeles.

During the 2022-23 season, Finch led the Timberwolves to a 42-40 record, eclipsing 40 wins on the season in back-to-back seasons (46 in 2021-22) for the first time since the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. After defeating the Oklahoma City Thunder on Apr. 14 in the final NBA Play-In Tournament game, the Wolves clinched a spot in the NBA Playoffs for the second consecutive season. This marked the first time clinching back-to-back playoff appearances since a string of eight straight from 1997-2004. The team's second place finish in the Northwest Division is the highest since winning the division in 2003-04. With the team's 151-131 win over the San Antonio Spurs on Apr. 8, the Timberwolves clinched a .500 or better record this for the third time since 2004-05. The team has now done so in back-to-back seasons (.561 in 2021-22) for the first time since the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. After the team's 29 wins against Western Conference foes this season and 32 such wins lost season, Minnesota has won 25+ games against the West in back-to-back years for the first time since 2003-04 and 2004-05. The 11 wins in January of 2023 were the most by a Wolves team in the month of January since winning 12 games in January of 2004.

During the 2021-22 season, Finch led the Timberwolves to a 46-36 record, the seventh-best record in club history, including a trip to the Playoffs for just the second time in the last 18 years. He helped guide the Wolves to a 26-15 record at Target Center and a 32-20 record against the Western Conference, the second time since 2004-05 with 30+ wins against the West. With the 136-130 victory over the Denver Nuggets on April 1, the Wolves finished the season 12-4 against Northwest Division foes, the most division wins by the team since the division was formed in 2004 and just the third time since 2004 winning 10+ division games. Additionally, Minnesota finished the season winning 10 straight games against Northwest division opponents, the most since 2004. The team finished the 2021-22 campaign with 20 road wins for the first time since the 2004-05 season and just the fifth time winning 20+ road games.

Finch took the helm mid-season in the 2020-2021 season, leading the Timberwolves to win half of their last 22 games, finishing 16-25 overall. After the All-Star break, Finch was able to unlock another level of talent in young players such as 2020-21 NBA All-Rookie First Team honoree Anthony Edwards, as well as Jaden McDaniels. Under Finch's guidance, Edwards was named the Western Conference Rookie of the Month three times last season (March, April and May), becoming the third player in Wolves history to earn the honor multiple times (Karl-Anthony Towns in 2015-16 and Andrew Wiggins in 2014-15).

Since arriving in Minnesota, Finch has jumped into helping the Twin Cities community. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Second Harvest Heartland where he assists the organization, playing a critical role in helping Second Harvest Heartland fulfill its mission of ending hunger.

Finch, 54, has over 25 years of NBA and G League experience, serving most recently as an assistant coach under Nick Nurse and the Toronto Raptors this season. Prior to that, he made coaching stops with the New Orleans Pelicans as associate head coach from 2017-20, the Denver Nuggets as an assistant coach from 2016-17 and the Houston Rockets as an assistant coach from 2011-16. Finch was named the head coach of the Rio Grande Valley Vipers, the Rocket's G League affiliate in 2009. He led the Vipers to back-to-back G League Finals appearances, compiling a 67-33 (.670) record in his two seasons.

After leading Rio Grande Valley to the 2010 G League Championship, Finch received the Dennis Johnson Trophy as the league's best head coach.

The Reading, Pennsylvania native played overseas in the British Basketball League (BBL) for the Sheffield Sharks from 1993-97 before coaching the same team from 1997-2003. Finch was named the BBL Coach of the Year in 1998-99. He continued to coach overseas for 12 years including in Germany and Belgium.

Finch also served as the head coach of Great Britain's National Team from 2006-13, where he led the national team in the 2012 Summer Olympics in London. He also led them to a European Championship berth in 2009 and 2011, the team's first appearances since 1981.

A Franklin & Marshall College graduate in 1992, Finch was as a two-time All-American, and was inducted into the F&M Sports Hall of Fame in 2002. He started the final 115 games of his collegiate career and compiled a 102-13 record (387), which stood as the most career wins as a starter in NCAA Division III history.
