BIENVENUE, BILAL

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT THE WIZARDS' ROOKIE

"Remember his name. He turned 19 in late July, making him the league's third-youngest player on opening night, and he was billed as an ultra-talented, but ultra-raw, prospect…He's shooting 47 percent from 3 on 3.1 attempts per game, and he's already starting to guard opponents' top perimeter scorers. I've been shocked by his uncommonly high level of poise. Nothing seems to rattle him, and nothing seems to make him overconfident. I thought he was the ultimate high-risk, high-reward pick when Washington traded up to draft him seventh. Again, I was wrong. After his first 11 games, I cannot say for certain whether he'll hit his ceiling, but there's no doubt in my mind that he will not be a bust. There's nothing risky about him."
-Josh Robbins, The Athletic on Nov. 16

"He's doing a good job of punishing defenders going under on screens [and] he has a positive assist-turnover ratio this year. He's attacking closeouts [and] making kick-out passes. There's been a couple of times that he's even been a screener for Tyus Jones within the flow of the offense and made short roll passes after rolling hard at the basket. Defensively, he's been really good this year defending a bunch of different types of players: Scottie Barnes, Duncan Robinson, Jaylen Brown, Spencer Dinwiddie, Tyler Herro – all different types of players, all different sized players. And then, his most impressive defensive game was against Luka [Doncic]. He had some great, great on-ball possessions sticking to Luka. A hard contest, keep it in front of him. Bilal Coulibaly, one of the most impressive rookies in all of the NBA so far this season."
-Kevin O'Connor, the Ringer on Nov. 17

"One of Coulibaly's most valuable characteristics, especially as a player who's supposed to take this year to absorb as much as possible, is that he moves on easily."
-Ava Wallace, Washington Post on Nov. 20

"The Wizards have the makings of a long-term contributor and maybe even an All-Star in French rookie Bilal Coulibaly."
-Jeff Zillgitt, USA Today on Nov. 21

"Rookie Bilal Coulibaly has been a pleasant surprise, with more offensive polish than expected. He's shot 20-for-26 (77%) in the restricted area and 9-for-17 (53%) on corner 3s."
-John Schuhmann, NBA.com on Nov. 21

"Coulibaly, the league's third-youngest player on opening night, has made significant strides since the Wizards traded up to snag him seventh overall in June's draft. Unseld already has assigned Coulibaly to defend opponents' best perimeter scorer; on Wednesday, for instance, Coulibaly guarded the Dallas Mavericks' Luka Doncic for stretches, giving Coulibaly a valuable learning experience in a season that already has been filled with them. On offense, Coulibaly has looked increasingly comfortable, showing improved ballhandling and — in the biggest surprise of Washington's season — has made 47 percent of his 3-point tries on 3.1 attempts per game."
-Josh Robbins, The Athletic on Nov. 17

"Bilal Coulibaly was my third-favorite prospect in this draft, and he's playing pretty well so far. He's played good basketball over the last week and a half."
-Zach Harper, The Athletic on Nov. 21

"He had very good moments [and] he played extremely hard. He was guarding [Damian Lillard], he wasn't scared of the moment. He had a couple backdoor cuts, a couple dunks in transition. Right now, he's in the right mindset. He's not trying to be flashy. He's trying to play extremely hard and help his teammates by being in the right position and play the game the right way. I feel like the more he has that attitude, eventually he is going to get the ball more to play-make for himself… The sky is going to be the limit for him."
-Giannis Antetokounmpo, Milwaukee Bucks, on Nov. 20

"He looked the part. He used his length pretty well. He didn't come off like he was worried or scared or anything like that… He has a chance to be a really good player."
-Damian Lillard, Milwaukee Bucks, on Nov. 20
