

Week in Review: 12/29/08 – 1/4/09

LAST FEW GAMES

- Friday, January 2nd – at Reno Bighorns
 - Tierre Brown and Geno Carlisle sparked a fourth-quarter rally Friday night as the Anaheim Arsenal edged the reeling Reno Bighorns, 109-106, for their second road win of the season.
- Saturday, January 3rd – vs. Dakota Wizards
 - The Arsenal seized the momentum at the second half, rallying from a 24-point deficit. Cedric Bozeman scored 11 of his 28 points in the third quarter as the Arsenal outscored the Wizards 37-17 to take a seven-point lead into the fourth. The Wizards were able to rally back and defeat the Arsenal 103-98.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

CEDRIC BOZEMAN - #00 – G

- For the week of 12/28/08 - 01/03/09, Cedric is in the top 10 of points per game, shooting percentage, free throw percentage and, steals per game.

G	FGM- FGA	3PM-3PA	FTM-FTA	TOT REB	AST	STLS	PTS
1/2/09 at Reno	7-13	0-2	5-5	4	4	3	19
1/3/09 vs. Dakota	10-15	5-6	3-6	8	1	3	28

NBA D-LEAGUE SHOWCASE

- All 16 teams of the NBA D-League travel to Orem, Utah to play in front of all the NBA scouts and general managers.
- Anaheim plays the Utah Flash on January 6th at 6:15 p.m. (PST)
- You can catch all the games for free on the NBA Futurecast. For more information, check out nba.com/futurecast

TICKET DEAL OF THE WEEK

- The Arsenal offers Family Plan Packs which offer a ticket and a voucher for a hot dog and drink for only $11.
- Fans may order as many Family Plan Packs as they want, however, the minimum order is two Family Plan Packs.