In conjunction with Spalding, The Los Angeles D-Fenders would like to celebrate their "Season Of Cheering" with you by offering you FREE tickets. The D-Fenders are the development team of the Los Angeles Lakers and are part of the NBA Development League. They play all their home games at STAPLES Center. Jordan Farmar and Coby Karl are just two former D-Fenders that have had the opportunity to don a Lakers uniform. In fact, there have been over 100 D-League players that have been called up to NBA teams and the talent pool continues to grow. This year's D-Fenders team features players that have an opportunity to follow in the footsteps of Jordan, Coby and others.

You have the opportunity to see them now!
