UNIVISION ANNOUNCES “PREMIO LO NUESTRO” 2006 NOMINEES

Shakira, Marc Anthony, Luis Miguel, Laura Pausini, Daddy Yankee, Juanes, Intocable, Conjunto Primavera, Marco Antonio Solís, Wisin y Yandel, and Monchy y Alexandra Among Multiple Nominees

MIAMI, FL, DECEMBER 12, 2005 -- Univision Communications Inc. (NYSE: UVN), The 18th Annual “Premio Lo Nuestro a la Musica Latina” (Lo Nuestro Latin Music Awards) nominees were announced today during a press conference televised live on the Univision Network morning show “Despierta América.” As in years past, the hottest names in Latin music make up the list of nominees for the longest running and most popular Latin music award program in the U.S. “Premio lo Nuestro” will be broadcast by the Univision Network on Thursday, February 23 from 8-11 pm ET/PT (7-10 pm Central/Mountain) live from Miami’s American Airlines Arena.

Dominican Bachata duo Monchy y Alexandra lead the competition with the most nominations at five in Tropical Genre categories such as “Album of the Year,” “Best Group or Duo,” “Song of the Year,” and “Artist of the Year.” Groups or artists with four nominations each include Colombian singer/songwriter Shakira, Mexican super-group Conjunto Primavera, Italian pop star Laura Pausini, Puerto Rican “Woman of Fire” Olga Tañón, Norteño group Intocable, Colombian rocker Juanes, Regional Mexican group K-Paz de la Sierra, Reggaetón star Daddy Yankee and Puerto Rican pop sensation Luis Fonsi.

Additional multiple nominees include Salsa music idols Marc Anthony (3) Gilberto Santa Rosa (2), and the legendary group El Gran Combo (3), Urban music stars Wisin y Yandel (3), Andy Andy (3), and Don Omar (2), Regional Mexican artists Marco Antonio Solís (3), Beto y Sus Canarios (3), Luis Miguel (3) and Pepe Aguilar (2).

Among other nominated superstars are Mexican “Golden Girl” Paulina Rubio, Colombian recording artist Carlos Vives, Mexico’s legendary Vicente Fernández and perennial favorites Los Tigres del Norte.

With finalists in 32 categories divided into the 5 most popular Latin Music genres of Pop, Tropical, Regional Mexican, Rock and Urban, along with the Video of the Year, “Premio Lo Nuestro” awards are bestowed annually to the very best talent in the Latin music industry. Music nominations were determined from charts compiled by the prominent recording industry trade magazine Radio & Records® for the time period of October 1, 2004, to September 30, 2005.

Starting today, Latin music fans can go to www.univision.com to cast their votes online and determine all of “Premio Lo Nuestro’s” winners. By logging onto Univision.com (Uniclave: Premio) between now and January 18, 2006, they can vote for their favorite artists in all categories. Univision.com will also have a dedicated section on the website with exclusive coverage that includes artist profiles, streaming video and music clips of the nominees.

“Premio Lo Nuestro” is the highest-rated annual special among Hispanics in the United States. It was viewed by more than nine million Hispanics in 2005, beating all other English or Spanish language awards programs. Year to year, it consistently beats the Academy Awards, Latin Billboard Music Awards, Emmy Awards, VMA Awards and the Golden Globes among all major demographics.
