Following The Hornets

Hornets On Cox Sports Television

The New Orleans Hornets and Cox Sports Television will begin their sixth year of bringing a variety of both home and road games into the homes in the Greater New Orleans area.

CST will broadcast 65 regular season games on Cox Communications in Louisiana. Games will be aired on CST (New Orleans cable channel 37) in Louisiana.

Bob Licht enters his third season handling the television play-by-play duties for the Hornets, while Gil McGregor begins his 20th season of providing color analysis for the team. Jordy Hultberg will return for his sixth season as sideline reporter.

Prior to each game, fans can tune in to "Hornets Tonight," a 30-minute pregame show hosted by Hultberg that covers up-to-the-minute NBA news, information and features on the Hornets, while previewing that night's game. Also, Coach Byron Scott's weekly show will air on Cox each Thursday evening during the regular season in Louisiana.

Radio Network Flagship Station - KMEZ 102.9 FM

All 82 regular season games, eight preseason games and the Hornets' entire playoff schedule will be heard on the team's flagship station, KMEZ 102.9 FM "Old School 102.9" in New Orleans, as the Hornets begin the first of a multi-season agreement with Citadel Broadcasting.

Bob Licht

Television Play-by-Play Announcer

Bob Licht begins his third season on screen as the Hornets TV play-by-play announcer and his 12th season with the team. Prior to beginning his current role, he spent nine seasons as the radio voice of the Hornets.

Licht, known for his high-energy, colorful broadcasts (including his signature big basket call, "Bottom!"), is also responsible for negotiating and building the Hornets Radio Network, as well as authoring a weekly column (In The Lane) on hornets.com.

For five seasons Licht was the play-by-play voice of the WNBA's Charlotte Sting and co-host of the Hornets and Sting monthly TV magazine shows.

The 31-year broadcast veteran also has an extensive background in professional baseball, spanning three levels of minor league play. During that time, the Detroit native served as play-by-play voice for the Florida Marlins' Triple-A team (Charlotte Knights, International League) in 1996 and 1997 and the Pittsburgh Pirates' Double-A team (Carolina Mudcats, Southern League) from 1990-1995. He was named the league's broadcaster of the year in 1995.

Licht graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism in 1981. During his time at Syracuse, he was involved in radio broadcasts of S.U. football, basketball and lacrosse. As a junior, he served as a reporter at the 1980 Lake Placid Winter Olympics and did play-by-play for the Toronto Blue Jays' Triple-A team (Syracuse Chiefs). Following his graduation, Licht was the play-by-play voice of Marietta (Ohio) College football, basketball and baseball. From there, he moved back to North Carolina where he worked with the Wake Forest University football and basketball network as an engineer, color analyst and play-by-play broadcaster.

Gil McGregor

Television Color Analyst

Gil McGregor is an original member of the Hornets broadcast team and begins his 20th year behind the microphone.

McGregor currently serves as an analyst for all Hornets telecasts on Cox Sports Television. McGregor is also an analyst of Atlantic Coast Conference Basketball telecasts with Jefferson Pilot/Raycom Sports. His other broadcast experience includes the NCAA Tournament on ESPN, MEAC Basketball telecasts on ESPN2, CIAA Basketball and Football and analyst for Southern University Jaguar basketball on Cox.

A nationally-known keynote/motivational speaker, McGregor has been an ambassador for the Hornets' "Stay In School" program. He has also been a regular visitor at area schools where he addresses the importance of students completing their education and staying away from drugs and violence. McGregor has addressed educators on issues of school morale and professional development.

The 6-8 McGregor joined the Hornets after serving as academic advisor of athletics at his alma mater, Wake Forest University. He was the starting center for the Demon Deacons from 1968 to 1971 after being named one of the top 50 high school players in the country in 1966-67. He was drafted out of college by the Cincinnati Royals (now the Sacramento Kings) in the 1971 NBA Draft and played in 42 games with the Royals during the 1971-72 season. McGregor concluded his basketball career by playing seven years professionally in Belgium, France and Italy.

McGregor's various activities in the community include School To Career, Teach America and the Louisiana High School Athletic Director Association. He has served on numerous boards, including the Foundations of the Carolinas Grant Advisory Board, the Board of Visitors of Chapel Hill Children's Hospital and the Board of Visitors of UNC-Charlotte. McGregor also served as the honorary chairman of the March of Dimes Walk America. He was also a member of St. Charles Avenue Presbyterian Church in New Orleans and Sigma Pi Phi.

McGregor has adult daughters and he and his wife, Frieda, have a son, Gilbert Odell.

Sean Kelley Radio Play-by-Play Announcer

Sean Kelley enters his third season as the radio play-by-play voice of the Hornets in 2007-08. Prior to joining the Hornets full time, he spent two seasons as the team's primary radio studio host while also doing occasional play-by-play work in a fill-in role on Hornets radio broadcasts.

Kelley served as the voice of the Tulane Green Wave from 2002-2005. While in that role, he provided play-by-play for the school's football, basketball and baseball action. He was also the host of the Tulane coach's television and radio shows. In addition to his work at Tulane, Kelley filled in as both radio play-by-play announcer and public address announcer for the New Orleans Zephyrs, the city's AAA baseball franchise.

Prior to his work with Tulane, Kelley was with KFRU-AM in Columbia, Mo., from 1998-2002. He was the station's sports director, anchor and host while doing play-by-play for the University of Missouri baseball team and also spent two years as the pregame, halftime and postgame host for the Missouri Tiger Radio Network. Kelley's broadcast experience during that time also included work on the prep circuit announcing football and basketball on radio and television in Missouri and Illinois.

Kelley studied broadcast journalism at Northeast Missouri State University and Southern Illinois University. He provided play-by-play for the Southern Illinois baseball and women's basketball teams from 1996-1998 and also spent time as sports director, anchor and host at WTOG-FM in Carbondale, Ill. Throughout his career, Kelley has worked as a talk show host, anchor and reporter at various special events, including the ACC Basketball Tournament.

Kelley and his wife, Kimberly, have two children, Keighley and Colin.

Gerry Vaillancourt Radio Color Analyst

Gerry Vaillancourt returns for his 18th season on the Hornets broadcast team. Vaillancourt serves as the color analyst on all Hornets radio broadcasts.

In his current role, Vaillancourt not only provides the commentary for 82 game broadcasts, but also hosts the Hornets "Final Buzz" post-game call-in show. While the team was in Oklahoma City, he hosted the "Gerry V" show on 1280 AM in New Orleans and currently hosts the same show on WRNO 99.5 FM in New Orleans.

In 2001-02, he shared duties as a television analyst while hosting the halftime and post-game shows and providing game reporting from inside the huddle during Hornet timeouts.

Vaillancourt served as the team's studio show host from 1994 to 1999. Prior to that, he spent two years as the team's television color commentator and two as a radio commentator. He also served as sports director of then-Hornets affiliate WCCB-TV from 1989 to 1991.

For 10 years, Vaillancourt made a mark on the Charlotte sports talk radio scene, as he was voted Talk Show Host of the Year in 1998, 1999 and 2000 by Creative Loafing magazine. He made his first appearance on the Charlotte airwaves in 1991 as host of "Sports Talk" on WCNT and spent two years at WFNZ in the same capacity. He switched stations in April 1996 to begin "The Gerry V Show," his own drive-time sports talk show, on WBT. He also hosted the NFL post-game call-in show on WBT after all Carolina Panther NFL games.

An ex-Gardner Webb University hoopster, Vaillancourt has extensive coaching experience, with stints at Bishop McGinnis H.S. in Winston-Salem, N.C., James Madison University in Virginia, Davidson College and Appalachian State University. He also dedicated summers to coaching a team in the Charlotte Pro-Am Summer League and has lectured several times each summer at the prestigious Five-Star Basketball Camp.

Vaillancourt spends a great deal of time participating in basketball clinics, giving motivational seminars and speaking publicly on the banquet circuit and to various businesses and corporations.

A New York City native, Vaillancourt, his wife, Tracy, and son, Mason (11), reside in River Ridge, La. He also has two daughters, Kellie and Shannon.

Jordy Hultberg

Television Host & Sideline Reporter

Jordy Hultberg begins his sixth season as the host of "Hornets Tonight," the Hornets pregame show on Cox Sports Television. He also serves as the sideline reporter during the telecasts and wraps things up as the host of the Hornets postgame show. In addition, Hultberg will serve as host of the Byron Scott television show throughout the NBA season.

No stranger to basketball in Louisiana, Hultberg was a two-year captain of the LSU Tigers basketball team under Dale Brown from 1976-80. He helped the Tigers win two SEC titles and make two NCAA Tournament appearances. Upon graduation with a degree in finance, he served as an assistant coach at LSU for three seasons, handling every aspect of the program, from on-the-floor coaching to scouting and recruiting.

In 1983, Hultberg began his career in sports broadcasting as a color commentator for the newly developed "Tigervision," an LSU pay-per-view broadcasting network. Since then, he has provided analysis for ESPN, ESPN Regional, Jefferson Pilot Sports, Fox Sports South and Comcast as a college basketball color commentator.

During football season, Hultberg works as a commentator for the LSU radio and television broadcasts as the sideline reporter and serves as the host of the Inside LSU Football television show. In addition to his work in the sports world, Hultberg is also the vice president of the Gregory Advertising Group, an agency that specializes in television, radio and print advertising, primarily for automotive dealerships.

Hultberg has three children, Jordan, Richard and KK, and lives in Baton Rouge with his wife, Shannon, and their daughter, Catherine Jordan.

Scott Hall
Director of Basketball Communications

Scott Hall enters his seventh season with the Hornets in 2007-08, his third as director of basketball communications. He was promoted to his current position shortly after the team's temporary move to Oklahoma City in September of 2005 after spending the previous three seasons as sports public relations manager. Hall began his tenure with the team as public relations assistant during the 2001-02 season (the team's final season in Charlotte).

Hall oversees all internal and external communications regarding the team's on-the-court activities. His duties in that role include serving as team spokesman, acting as a liaison to local and national media and accommodating press needs both at home and on the road. Hall's department is responsible for producing the team's annual regular season and postseason media guides, compiling game notes, scheduling and overseeing player and staff interview requests both locally and nationally, writing news releases, maintaining statistical upkeep and biographical information and the general dissemination of information regarding the team.

Before joining the Hornets organization, Hall spent four seasons in the Continental Basketball Association. He began his career in the CBA as media relations and broadcasting coordinator with the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Fury in 1997. After two seasons with the Fury, Hall was named director of media, public and community relations for the Idaho Stampede. Following the conclusion of the 1999-2000 season, he returned to Fort Wayne as director of media relations and broadcasting. Before his time in the CBA, Hall worked as director of media relations for the Austin Lone Stars professional soccer team.

Originally from West Virginia, Hall earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas in 1997. He currently resides in New Orleans with his wife, Kirsten, and their son, Robert.

Michael Thompson
Director of Corporate Communications

Michael Thompson begins his eighth season with the Hornets, and his fourth in the corporate communications role. Prior to this promotion, Thompson served as the team's community relations assistant for two seasons and director of youth programs for two seasons.

As director of corporate communications, Thompson is responsible for handling the team's non-basketball communications function, working in conjunction with various departments to craft and deliver the team's corporate message.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Thompson spent two seasons with the Yakima Sun Kings of the Continental Basketball Association as a client services specialist and eventually director of public relations.

A graduate of Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wash., Thompson was born in Chicago, but raised in Hong Kong, where he graduated from the Hong Kong International School. He and his wife, Tara, reside in Kenner with their daughter, Madeleine.

Dennis Rogers

Basketball Communications Manager

Dennis Rogers begins his fifth season with the Hornets, his third as basketball communications manager.

Rogers assists in all aspects of the communications department, including compiling all game notes, editor of the media guide and post-season guide, overseeing the statistical crew, traveling with the team on designated road trips, writing news releases, fulfilling player and staff interview requests both locally and nationally, while maintaining statistical upkeep of player performances. He is also a regular contributor to Hornets.com and Hornets Magazine.

During the off-season, Rogers serves as the director of public relations for the NBA Summer League (formerly the Vegas Summer League) where he coordinates all PR duties for the league and writes all content for the website and the media program. Rogers has been with the summer league, which featured 21 NBA teams this past July, since its inception in 2004.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Rogers served as a basketball operations assistant for Momentum Sports Agency in San Antonio and interned with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2002 season. Rogers graduated from Southern Methodist University in Dallas with a bachelor's degree in corporate communications/public affairs. He served as the graduate volunteer for the Mississippi State men's basketball team during the 2000-01 season, during which the Bulldogs appeared in the Elite Eight of the NIT Tournament, while pursuing his masters in sports administration.

Born in Los Angeles, but raised in Texas, Rogers grew up in Dallas and San Antonio.

Vicki Guerra

Corporate Communications Manager

Vicki Guerra is entering her second year as a member of the Hornets communications staff. In her role as corporate communications manager, Guerra is responsible for the development of the organization's public relations plans and campaigns. In addition, she maintains the Hornets Speakers Bureau schedule.

Guerra was promoted to her current position in August, 2006 after serving as a fan experience representative. Prior to her arrival at the Hornets, Guerra interned at the American Junior Golf Association and spent two years with the University of Oklahoma athletics department under its senior woman administrator. At OU she served as media contact for OU National Girls and Women in Sports Day (a national campaign with Nike featuring WNBA standout Lisa Leslie) and also worked in the media relations department as a student assistant.

Guerra graduated from OU in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and in 2006 with a master's degree in intercollegiate athletics administration.

Lindsey Wyckoff

Basketball Communications Coordinator

Lindsey Wyckoff begins her first season with the Hornets as basketball communications coordinator.

Wyckoff's responsibilities include compiling information for game notes and media guides, assisting with the credential process, writing news releases and maintaining statistical upkeep.

A native of North Canton, Ohio, Wyckoff spent a year as an assistant in the Rutgers Athletic Communications department. During her time with the Scarlet Knights, Wyckoff served as the primary contact for seven sports and acted as the secondary contact for the women's basketball team, as well as helping execute the communications efforts for the football team.

Wyckoff, a 2006 graduate of Bloomsburg University, worked for three years in the Sports Information department, while also participating in the Public Relations Student Society of America and overseeing the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. In four seasons as a member of the Huskies' tennis team, she helped the squad to three appearances in the NCAA Division II Sweet 16, as well as three conference titles.

Each team is required to carry 12 players on its Active List and one player on its Inactive List. Teams may have a maximum of three players on the Inactive List. A team may periodically carry 11 players on its Active List and/or no players on its Inactive List, but for no more than two consecutive weeks at a time. There are no limitations to the amount of time spent on the Inactive List or number of times players can move back and forth between the Active and Inactive Lists. Teams must have a minimum of eight players dressed, eligible and able to participate in all exhibition and regular season games.

NBA Development League

During a player's first two seasons in the NBA (regardless of his age when he entered the league), his team will be permitted to assign him to a team in the NBA Development League. A player can be assigned to the D-League up to three times per season. The player will continue to be paid his NBA salary and will continue to be included on his NBA team's roster (on the Inactive List) while playing in the D-League. Players sent to the NBA Development League will continue to count on a team's Inactive List.

Ten-Day Contracts

Beginning on January 8, 2008, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. No player may be signed to more than two 10-day agreements.

Trading Deadline

No trades are permitted after 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on Thursday, February 21, 2008. From that point to the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through the waiver procedure or by signing free agents.

Waivers

From August 15, 2007 to the end of the regular season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 business hours after notice. Players waived at any other time may be claimed within seven days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent.

Guaranteed Contract Date

On January 10, 2008, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

Playoff Rosters

Teams must submit their playoff rosters by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on the day following the last day of the regular season (regular season ends April 16, 2008).

Renunciation Of Amateur Eligibility

A person who is at least 19 years of age and who is one year removed from high school shall become eligible for the college draft if he renounces his intercollegiate basketball eligibility by written notice to the NBA at least 60 days prior to the draft (NBA Draft is on June 26, 2008). Prior to the 60 days before the draft, teams may not make direct contact with players who have intercollegiate basketball eligibility left. Clubs may contact players without remaining eligibility but may not discuss compensation.

Salary Cap

The salary cap for the 2007-08 season is $55.63 million.

As we enter into the 2007-08 NBA season, the communications department would like to establish a professional working relationship with the members of the media who are new to the organization and continue the positive relationships we have with the members of the media who have covered us in the past. Please read through the following guidelines and if you have any further questions, feel free to contact Scott Hall at (504) 593-4828, Dennis Rogers at (504) 593-4829 or Lindsey Wycokoff at (504) 593-4830.

Media Credentials

Single game requests should be directed to the Hornets communications office no later than noon the day before the game you wish to cover (Friday at noon for Sunday and Monday games). First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the aforementioned deadline. Because of limited press seating, credentials and/or courtside seats cannot be guaranteed. Credentials are good for admittance to the pressroom, dining area, locker rooms and seating areas and may be picked up at the press entrance (located at the loading dock entrance, which is across the street from Lot #4 at the New Orleans Arena). Credentials must be worn at all times and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and the forfeiture of the credential. An autograph request by a media member will also result in the forfeiture of the credential.

Press Parking/Press Gate

Working media should park in Lot #4 (off of Girod Street) under the Harrah's billboard sign and cross the street to enter the New Orleans Arena through the doors by the loading dock. You will be able to pick up your credential at a table in front of the security office windows upon entering the arena. Your name will be on a parking list held by the security guard at the entrance of the lot.

Press Room

The pressroom is located at the west end of the arena to the right of the loading dock areas and is open four hours before game time. We must limit pressroom usage to the working media and game staff only. We are not able to accommodate any family, friends or guests. Telephones, fax service, internet access, game notes, statistics, quotes and out-of-town scores are available in this area. Please use common courtesy in securing a quiet working environment in the pressroom.

Pre and Post-Game Interviews

In accordance with NBA policy, the locker rooms are open to members of the media until 45 minutes before the game and within 10 minutes after the game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. Your cooperation is requested in maintaining a professional atmosphere in the locker room for pre and post game interviews. Per NBA policy, use of cellular phones in the locker room is prohibited. Head Coach Byron Scott will be available approximately 10 minutes following the game in the pressroom.

Game Notes and Statistics

Game notes and additional press materials are available in the pressroom three hours before each game. Statistics are distributed to the working media during the game and are also available in the pressroom. Postgame notes and quotes are distributed a short time following the completion of the game. Statistics monitors are provided at courtside for television and radio broadcasts as well as for print and television media.

Fax Service

The Hornets will provide complimentary fax service to members of the working media following each game. Please contact a member of the communications department if you need to use the fax machine.

Photographers

Season passes will be provided to accredited photographers from New Orleans area daily newspapers and television stations who plan on covering at least 30 of the Hornets' 41 regular season home games. Weekly newspaper photographers will be handled on an individual game basis. Photographs are also available from the communications department. Photographers must be on assignment for a publication to be credentialed. Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area. Photographers may not sit on equipment cases and live television cameras have first priority on location and right of way. All NBA league rules regarding photography apply.

Meals

A pregame meal is served in the room adjacent to the media workroom at the arena two and a half hours before each game. Beverages and snacks are available in the pressroom at halftime and following each game.

Practice Policy

The Hornets practice at the Alario Center in Westwego, located off of the West Bank Expressway (2000 Segnette Boulevard). Media should enter through the main entrance of the building (adjacent to the box office window) and park in the general parking lot. Parking in the turnaround area is not permitted, and violators will be towed. Practices are closed to the public, but open for the final 30 minutes to the media. The players and coaches are available immediately following the practice for courtside interviews. Please contact the Hornets communications department to confirm practice times and the availability of the players and coaches. Interviews lasting longer than five minutes should be scheduled in advance with the Hornets communications department. Photographers and television crews may shoot the final 30 minutes of practice. There is a press area with phone access available to the media throughout practice.

Directions From the N.O. Airport (Louis Armstrong) to the N.O. Arena

Follow airport access road to I-10 East. Go approximately eight miles, stay in the right lanes at I-10/I-610 split (after Bonnal Blvd. Exit) and follow I-10 Eastbound towards downtown New Orleans. Go approximately three miles after the split, stay in the middle lanes and take the Superdome Exit. Turn right at the end of the ramp onto Girod Street. The arena is in the first block on your right. Driving time is approximately 30 minutes, but allow 45 minutes during rush hour.

Directions From the N.O. Airport to the Alario Center (Practice Site)

Follow airport access road to I-10 East. Take Clearview Parkway Southbound. Follow Clearview Parkway, proceed onto Huey P. Long Bridge. At traffic circle at the end of the bridge, take second exit and follow US 90 Westbound. Go approximately 1.75 miles and follow signs to West Bank Expressway. Alario Center will be approximately 1.5 miles on your right. The address is 2000 Segnette Boulevard. Driving time is approximately 40 minutes.

Directions From Downtown N.O. to the Alario Center (Practice Site)

Take the Crescent City Connection Bridge (US 90 W/Pontchartrain Expressway) towards the Westbank (will become Westbank Expressway). Continue on expressway as it goes to ground level. Stay on the ground level as it goes through Marrero and Westwego. You will pass Bayou Segnette State Park on your left. The second traffic light from there will be Segnette Blvd. Turn left at the light into the Alario Center.
