- Douglas C. Black, District President, Utah District, KeyBank

Our Suite at the EnergySolutions Arena has been an invaluable tool for entertaining high profile clients as well as allowing us opportunities for employee appreciation. The service and catering we have received has all been top notch. We use our Suite for every event and look at it as a very effective marketing tool for our day-to-day business. We can't imagine NOT having a suite at the EnergySolutions Arena.

- Jack Pelo, President/CEO, Swire Coca-Cola

We at IASIS Healthcare are very pleased with our Suite at the EnergySolutions Arena. We initially purchased it (for our four Utah hospitals) to improve physician relations and invite doctors and their guests to enjoy a Jazz game or two during the regular season. What it has blossomed into is a social gathering place for not only our physicians and administrative teams, but for local officials, employees and their families, visiting guests and many others. We love our Suite so much, that we even renewed a new three-year contract—even after the Jazz had their worst season in 20 years! The Suite has strengthened our relationships with many of our business partners. It allows us to host those we do business with in a non-threatening environment. In other words, we can let our guard down and simply enjoy each others company.

- Doug Boudreaux, Director of Hospital Marketing Western Markets, Iasis Healthcare

Delta Air Lines has had the privilege and honor of having Suite #1 at the EnergySolutions Arena since 1991. We have utilized our Suite for entertainment opportunities of customers, guests and executives, many of whom we have brought in from all across the nation. We use this venue for client incentive contests, reward and recognition events as well as special employee dates. We have found the staff to be excellent, going above and beyond our expectations. Many times we have had special requests that have been fulfilled without question. No request is dismissed.

- Ilene England-Stowe, Sales Account Executive Global Agency Sales, Delta Air Lines
