

Contact: Barry Baum, 917-847-1737

December 17, 2008

THE NETS AND THE JARVIS HAYES FOUNDATION TO HOST TOYS FOR TOTS NIGHT

Fans encouraged to bring new, unwrapped toys to Nets-Heat game on Saturday, December, 20 at the IZOD CENTER

EAST RUTHERFORD, NJ – The Nets and The Jarvis Hayes Foundation will host Toys for Tots Night when the Nets face the Miami Heat at the IZOD CENTER on Saturday, December 20. Game time is 8:00 p.m.

Fans coming to the game are encouraged to bring new, unwrapped toys, which can be left in designated bins at every entrance to the IZOD CENTER. Toys will be donated to underprivileged children in the metropolitan area.

All fans who donate a toy will be entered into a raffle to win Nets autographed merchandise.

About The Jarvis Hayes Foundation:

Established in May 2007, The Jarvis Hayes Foundation is designed to create and support programs and initiatives that assist children and those in need in order to create a better world for everyone. The Foundation benefits a number of programs including: Support and Advocacy for the homeless, support for children living with cancer and diabetes, programs to assist children with life skills, mentoring, academics and athletics to develop well-rounded young adults. For more information about the Jarvis Hayes Foundation, visit <http://jarvishayesfoundation.org/>