1975-76 (Suns 42-40 Regular Season)

Beginning with the 1974-75 season, the league was divided into the four divisions and two conferences we know today. Five teams from each conference advanced to the playoffs. The winningest three teams received a bye in the first-round, the remaining two teams played in a best-of-five first-round series. The best-of-seven semifinals pitted the first-place team against the winner of the first-round and the second and third-place teams against each other, with the winners advancing to the conference finals and the NBA Finals.

This procedure changed slightly prior to the start of the 1976-77 season when additional teams were added to the league. At that time, six teams advanced to the playoffs and each of the division winners received a bye to the semifinals. Again, the first-round of the playoffs was a best-of-five series and each of the three following series were best-of-seven.

The playoff format, as we know it today, was implemented. Eight teams from each conference make the playoffs, with the division winners having the top two seeds in each conference. Seedings are then determined by record.
