SERIES STATS

The Bulls and the Houston Rockets were only able square off one-time during the 2019-20 season due to the global pandemic that struck and temporarily shut-down the league in early March, 2020. By the time the NBA was able to resume play during the summer down in Disneyworld, the league decided to leave eight teams at home, and Chicago was one of the eight ... In the lone game between the two played at the United Center on November 9, 2019, Houston broke open a fairly tight contest in the the 3rd quarter to capture its third win in a row, running away with a 117-94 victory ... Rockets All-Star James Harden just missed recording his first triple-double of the season in posting 42 points, 10 rebounds and 9 assists ... after opening the game 2/7 from the field (1/5 from behind the 3-point arc), Harden went 10/20 the rest of the way, including 8/14 from downtown to the lead all scorers ... fellow Rockets All-Star Russell Westbrook chipped in 26 points, while Houston's starting center, Clint Capela, contributed a double-double of his own with 16 points and 20 rebounds ... Lauri Markkanen, Chandler Hutchison, Wendell Carter Jr. and Thaddeus Young (off the bench) each scored 13 points to tie for Bulls high scoring honors ... Carter Jr. also grabbed a team-best 16 rebounds ... for the night, Houston shot 47.0% (39/83) overall, and 43.2% (19/44) from behind the arc ... Chicago, on the other hand, connected on only 37.8% (37/98) from the field and a woeful 12.5% (4/32) from distance ... the Rockets also out rebounded the Bulls, 55-46.

CH-CH-CH-CHANGES Chicago's offseason saw major changes to the leadership of the basketball operations side of the organization. Michael Reinsdorf spearheaded the search and hired Artūras Karnišovas from the Denver Nuggets to lead the team as Executive Vice President – Basketball Operations. Karnišovas hired Marc Eversley from the Philadelphia 76ers to be the Bulls' new General Manager. In September, they brought on Billy Donovan as head coach.

- Karnišovas joined the Bulls with nearly two decades of front-office experience, where he played a key role in the construction of championship contenders with the Denver Nuggets and the Houston Rockets. He most recently served as General Manager of the Nuggets. Denver improved its winning percentage in each season that Karnišovas was on staff.
- Eversley came to Chicago with 14 years of NBA experience, working for the Toronto Raptors, Washington Wizards and Philadelphia 76ers. In his latest role as Senior Vice President of Player Personnel with the 76ers, he not only oversaw personnel and talent evaluation, but was also involved in Philadelphia's recruiting and decision-making process. He helped Philadelphia transition from a team that won 28 games his first season in 2016-17 to one that won 50-plus games the next two seasons, and 43 of 73 games in 2019-20.
- Donovan joined Chicago after spending the last five seasons manning the sidelines for the Oklahoma City Thunder. While in Oklahoma City, his teams amassed a record of 243-157 (.608) and made five consecutive trips to the playoffs. His winning percentage ranks 16th (min. 100 games) in NBA history, and trails only Nick Nurse (.721), Steve Kerr (.709) and Gregg Popovich (.675) among active coaches. He is also one of only four active first-time head coaches in the league (along with Rick Carlisle, Kerr and Erik Spoelstra) to lead their teams to the playoffs in each of their first five seasons as a head coach.

GETTING TO KNOW THE 2020 DRAFT PICKS Chicago had one first-round and one second-round selection in the 2020 NBA Draft: Patrick Williams (Florida State) at No. 4 and Marko Simonovic (Montenegro) at No. 44. Williams played one year for the Seminoles and was named 2019-20 ACC Sixth Man of the Year, selected to the 2019-20 All-ACC Freshman Team and earned a spot on the 2019-20 ACC Academic Honor Roll, all while helping the Seminoles earn their first ACC regular-season championship in program history. Simonovic will remain in Europe this season.

UNITED NATIONS The Bulls currently have four non-American players on the team: Cristiano Felício (Brazil), Adam Mokoka (France), Lauri Markkanen (Finland), Tomáš Satoranský (Czech Republic).

BACK-TO-BACKS In the first half of the 2020-21 season, the Bulls are scheduled to play eight back-to-back sets of games. The second half of the schedule will be released by the NBA at a later date.
