• BINGO: In Game 5 vs. Dallas, the Clippers made a postseason franchise-record 22 three-pointers. Overall, the Clippers were 22-for-35 (62.9%) from beyond the arc. Since 1983-84, it was the highest 3P% (min. 30 3PA) in an NBA Playoff game. The Clippers also had five players hit at least three three-pointers for the first time in the postseason in franchise history. In Game 4 at Denver, the Clippers made their 120th three-pointer this postseason which is the most three-pointers made in a single postseason in franchise history.

• PLAYOFF KAWHI: In Game 1 vs. Dallas, Kawhi Leonard had 29 points, 12 rebounds, six assists and three steals. Leonard joined Blake Griffin (4/28/15 vs. San Antonio) as the only players in franchise history to have at least 29 points, 12 rebounds, six assists and three steals in a Playoff game. Leonard is also the first player in NBA history to lead three different franchises in all three stat categories (points, rebounds, assists) in an NBA Playoff game. In Game 2 vs. Dallas, Leonard became the second player in franchise history to have at least 35 points and 10 rebounds in a Playoff game. Leonard was the first to achieve the feat since Bob McAdoo on 4/15/76 at Philadelphia. In Game 3 at Dallas, Kawhi Leonard hoined Bob McAdoo as the only players in franchise history to have at least 35 points in consecutive Playoff games. Leonard also became the first player in franchise history to have at least 36 points, nine rebounds and eight assists in a Playoff game. Leonard has 100 points in the first three games of the Playoffs which is the most points in scored through the first three games in team history. In Game 6 vs. Dallas, Leonard extended his 30-point streak to five games which is the longest such streak in his career. Leonard's streak is also the second-longest in the postseason in franchise history. Also in Game 6, Leonard joined Michael Jordan (5/13/89 vs. New York) as the only two players in NBA history to have at least 33 points, 14 rebounds, seven assists and five steals in a Playoff game. In Game 1 vs. Denver, Kawhi Leonard joined Michael Jordan as the only two players since the merger (1976-77) to score at least 29 points in each of the team's first seven postseason games. In Game 4 agt Denver, Leonard tied a postseason career-high in assists and became the first player in franchise history to have at least 30 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists in a Playoff game.

• HIGH SCORE: In Game 3 at Dallas, the Clippers scored 45 points in the second quarter, which is the most points scored in a single quarter in the postseason in franchise history. The Clippers had seven players in double figures in a Playoff game for the first team since 4/21/14 vs. Golden State. In Game 5 vs. Dallas the Clippers scored 76 points in the first half which was the most points scored in a first half in a Playoff game in franchise history. Overall, it was the second-most points scored in either half of a Playoff game in franchise history. The Clippers ended up with a postseason franchise-record 154 points scored in Game 5, which is the third-most points scored in an NBA Playoff game. L.A. won Game 5 by 43 points which is the largest point differential in the postseason in franchise history. The Clippers were also 53-for-84 (63.1%) from the floor which if a postseason franchise record for highest FG%. The Clippers have score 880 points through their first seven postseason games which is the fourth-most in NBA history.

• PLAYOFF P: In Game 5 vs. Dallas, Paul George became the first player in the Shot Clock Era to have at least 35 points in under 25 minutes played in an NBA Playoff Game.

• REGULAR SEASON: The Clippers concluded the 2019-20 regular season with a 49-23 (.681) record, tied for the sixth-most wins in franchise history and the fourth-best winning percentage. L.A. set single-season franchise records for three-pointers made (895), three-pointers made per game (12.4) and points per game (116.3). The Clippers finished second in offensive rating (113.3 pts/100), marking their ninth consecutive top-10 finish, the only team in the NBA to do so in the last nine seasons.

• ELITE FOUR: The Clippers were the only team in the NBA to have four players average at least 18.0 ppg (Kawhi Leonard 27.1 ppg, Paul George 21.5 ppg, Montrezl Harrell 18.6 ppg, Lou Williams 18.2 ppg). The last time an NBA team had at least four players (min. 40 games played) average at least 18.0 ppg was the 1967-68 San Francisco Warriors (Rudy LaRusso, Nate Thurmond, Fred Hetzel, and Jeff Mullins).

• DEEP SQUAD: The Clippers had a season-high 85 bench points on 1/5 vs. New York. The Clippers ranked first in the NBA in bench scoring (50.3 ppg) for the second season in a row, second in bench rebounds (20.5), and rank tied for second in field goal percentage (46.9%). L.A. has outscored their opponents' bench in 56 of 72 games this season. Also on 1/5 vs. New York, Williams and Harrell became the third duo since 1970-71 to each score 30+ points off the bench in the same game. It was the first time this feat has occurred in a game that ended in regulation. Williams ranked fourth in bench scoring (17.4 ppg) and Harrell ranked second in the NBA in bench scoring (18.4 ppg). Williams and Harrell are the first duo since the NBA started designating starters in 1970-71 to each average 17+ ppg off the bench.

• 13,000: On 8/12 at Denver, Paul George eclipsed 13,000 regular-season points in his career, becoming 1 of 22 active players in the NBA to reach the milestone. George is also 1 of 4 active players to have at least 13,000 points, 4,000 rebounds, 2,000 assists and 1,500 three-pointers made.

• 1,000: On 8/9 vs. Brooklyn, Lou Williams appeared in his 1,000th career regular-season game. Williams is 1 of 13 active players in the NBA to reach the milestone and is the 135th player in NBA history to appear in 1,000 regular-season contests.

• ZU: On 8/6 at Dallas, Ivica Zubac was a perfect 10-for-10 from the field which tied the franchise record for the most field goals made in a game without a miss. Zubac also became the first player in franchise history to have at least 20 points and 15 rebounds in under 25 minutes played and he became the first player in NBA history (since 1954) to have at least 20 points and 15 rebounds while shooting 100% from the floor in under 30 minutes of play.

• BEYOND THE ARC: On 8/1 vs. New Orleans, the Clippers set a franchise record for the most three-pointers made in a game going 25-for-47 (53.2%) from beyond the arc. It is the ninth time in NBA history that a team has made at least 25 three-pointers in a regular-season game. The Clippers also set a franchise record for most three-pointers made in a first half, going 16-for-24 (66.7%) from deep. The performance also tied a franchise record for the most three-pointers made in either half set earlier this season. Paul George made eight three-pointers in the contest marking the sixth time in franchise history that a Clipper has made at least eight three-pointers in a game and the first since Lou Williams on 1/10/18 at Golden State.

• WINNING RIVERS: Head coach Doc Rivers recorded his 900th career victory with the Clippers' 107-101 win over the Portland Trail Blazers on November 7, 2019. Rivers is just the 13th coach all-time to win at least 900 games and joins Gregg Popovich as the only active head coaches to do so. He is also the fifth-winningest active coach and 9th winningest coach all-time among 31 coaches that have coached at least 1,000 games. On 8/1 vs. New Orleans, Rivers recorded his 939th career victory which moves him pass Red Auerbach for sole possession of 11th on the NBA's all-time wins list.

HIGHEST WINNING PERCENTAGE, ACTIVE COACHES (1000+ games coached, All-Time) MOST REGULAR SEASON WINS (ACTIVE COACHES)

• PLAYOFF BOUND: With the shortened season, the Clippers secured a postseason berth for the eighth time in the last nine seasons and the 15th time in franchise history. L.A. is one of only six teams in the NBA to appear in at least eight of the last nine NBA postseasons (Boston, Houston, Indiana, Oklahoma City, San Antonio).

• ALL-STAR: On 1/23 Kawhi Leonard was announced as a Western Conference starter in the 69th NBA All-Star Game in Chicago. Leonard had a nine-game streak with at least 30 points scored from 1/10/20 - 2/1/20. It was the longest such streak by a Clippers player since World B. Free had an 11-game 30+ point streak from 1/2/80 - 1/23/80 and it was the second longest streak in franchise history. The streak was also the longest in Leonard's career and is the longest such streak in the NBA this season.

• INCREASED SCORING: On 1/5 vs. New York, Paul George (32), Lou Williams (32) and Montrezl Harrell (34) became the first trio in Clippers franchise history to each score at least 30 points in a single game. The last time an NBA team accomplished the feat in a non-OT game was the Oklahoma City Thunder on 4/1/15 vs. Dallas. The Clippers have 13 games this season where they have scored at least 130 points which co-leads the NBA. The 13 130-point games are also the most in a single season in franchise history. The Clippers ranked fourth in the NBA in points (116.3).

• CONTINUING TO BUILD: The Clippers played their 4,000th regular-season game in franchise history on 12/19 vs. Houston. L.A. at 452-260 (.635) have the NBA's fourth-best regular season record since the start of the 2011-12 season.

5. Houston Rockets	447-265 (.629)

CLIP BOARD

- CONSISTENT WINS: With their win on 2/28 vs. Denver, the Clippers secured their 40th win of the season. It is the ninth-straight season that the Clippers have had at least 40 wins which is the second-longest current streak in the NBA (San Antonio Spurs 20). Also with their win on 3/3 at Oklahoma City, the Clippers extended a franchise record of securing a record above .500 to nine consecutive seasons which is also the second-longest current streak in the NBA (Oklahoma City 11).
- MVP: During the 2020 NBA All-Star Game on 2/16, Kawhi Leonard won the first ever Kobe Bryant MVP Award. Leonard had a game-high 30 points including eight made three-pointers. It was the first All-Star Game MVP for Leonard in his fourth career All-Star Game start. Leonard joined Chris Paul and Randy Smith as the only players in franchise history to win the All-Star Game MVP. With the award, Leonard also joined Michael Jordan as the only two players in NBA history to win an All-Star Game MVP, a Defensive Player of the Year Award and an NBA Finals MVP.
- FOUR WITH 24: In their win on 3/1 vs. Philadelphia the Clippers had four players with at least 24 points (Leonard 30, George 24, Harrell 24, Williams 24). It is just the second time in franchise history and the first time since 4/15/1989 vs. Lakers (Smith 26, Grant 25, Benjamin 24, Norman 24) that four Clippers have recorded at least 24 points in a single game.
- BOARDS AND DIMES: In their win on 2/24 vs. Memphis the Clippers had 50 rebounds and 33 assists. It was the third game this season that the Clippers have had at least 50 rebounds and 30 assists in a single game. L.A. is 3-0 in those games. Additionally, the Clippers are 23-3 this season when they have at least 25 assists and are 26-3 when they have at least 50 rebounds. The 29 games with at least 50 rebounds ranks tied for second in the NBA this season.
- LOU AND TREZ: On 2/13 at Boston Lou Williams and Montrezl Harrell both made history off the bench. Williams became the first player since 1973-74 (when blocks were first recorded) to have at least 35 points, eight assists, six rebounds and two blocks off the bench. It was Williams' 15th career game with at least 35 points off the bench which is the most such games in NBA history. Montrezl Harrell became the first player in franchise history to have at least 24 points, 13 rebounds and three blocks off the bench. He is the first NBA player to achieve the feat since Hassan Whiteside on 3/22/16 at New Orleans.
- DEPTH: The Clippers are 10-1 this season when they enter a contest with no injuries to report. Overall this season, the Clippers have used 33 starting lineups which is tied for the most different starting lineups in the NBA this season.
- BOUNCE BACK: The Clippers are 20-3 this season following a loss which is the third-best record in the NBA. The Clippers have only lost back-to-back-games three times this season which is the second-fewest in the NBA.
- BEST START: With their win on 2/3 vs. San Antonio the Clippers improved to 35-15 which is the best start through a season's first 50 games in franchise history.
- HOME SWEET HOME: The Clippers have achieved several milestones at home so far this season. The Clippers had the fourth-best home record in the NBA at 27-9. At home this season, the Clippers ranked second in the NBA in rebounds (49.4), fourth in plus/minus differential (8.5) and fifth in points (117.5).
- CLOSERS: In their win on 11/22 vs. Houston, the Clippers scored a season-high 42 points in the fourth quarter. As a team, the Clippers ranked tied for 13th in fourth quarter points (27.3), second in rebounds (11.9) and sixth in plus/minus differential (0.7).
- TRIPLE DOUBLE: On 1/24 at Miami, Kawhi Leonard (33 points, 10 rebounds, 10 assists) recorded his first career triple-double. Leonard tied a career-high with 10 assists in the contest. Leonard joined Blake Griffin and Lou Williams as the only players in franchise history to have a 30+ point triple-double. Additionally, Leonard's 33 point triple-double tied Blake Griffin's triple-double on 3/23/11 vs. Washington as the highest scoring triple-double in franchise history.
- MOVING ON UP: On 1/10 vs. Golden State, Williams scored his 357th career three-pointer as a Clipper moving him into sole possession of seventh place on the Clippers all-time three-point field goal list. On 1/16 vs. Orlando, Williams scored his 365th career three-pointer as a Clipper moving into sole possession of sixth place on the Clippers all-time three-point field goal list. On 1/18 at New Orleans, Williams scored his 368th career three-pointer as a Clipper moving into sole possession of fifth place on the Clippers all-time three-point field goal list.
- EFFICIENT SCORER: On 1/14 vs. Cleveland, Kawhi Leonard collected his fifth-career game and second game this season with at least 40 points scored. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Kawhi Leonard is the third player (fourth instance) since the shot-clock era began in 1954-55 to score 43+ points in under 29 minutes played. Leonard is also the first Clipper in franchise history to score 40+ points in under 30 minutes played.
- CHRISTMAS DAY: On 12/25 at the Lakers, the Clippers overcame a 12-point halftime deficit. It was the largest halftime deficit overcome to win on Christmas Day since 2003 (Mavericks down 16 at half vs. Kings), and the fifth-largest overcome to win over the last 50 years. Kawhi Leonard's 35 points was the most scored by a Clipper in a Christmas Day game. Leonard's performance was the 10th time in NBA history that a player has recorded 35+ points, 10+ rebounds and 5+ assists on Christmas Day.
- HISTORY IN MINNESOTA: On 12/13 at Minnesota, Paul George (46) and Kawhi Leonard (42) became the first duo in Clippers history to have 40+ points each in a regular-season or playoff contest. It was the 21st instance in NBA history (including playoffs) where a duo has each scored 40+ points, Leonard and George's 88 combined points is tied for fifth all-time and is tied for the most all-time among games that concluded in regulation (Anthony Davis and Jrue Holiday, 88 points, 4/21/18). Additionally, Leonard and George became the first duo to each score 35+ points through the first three quarters of a game over the last 20 NBA seasons. Paul George and Kawhi Leonard are currently the fifth highest scoring duo in the NBA this season (48.6 ppg).
- TREZ: Clippers center Montrezl Harrell has had numerous career nights this season. On 12/1 vs. Washington, Harrell gathered a career-high 15 rebounds in route to securing a double-double in the first half for the first time in his career (12 pts/10 reb). Harrell became the first Clipper in franchise history to have 20+ points and 15+ rebounds off the bench. Finally, on 12/14 at Chicago Harrell became the first Clipper in franchise history to have 30+ points and 3+ blocks off the bench. Harrell had another game with 30+ points and 3+ blocks on 1/22 at Atlanta which made him the third player in NBA history (Kevin McHale and Thurl Bailey) to have multiple games with 30+ points and 3+ blocks off the bench in a single season. The Clippers center is currently tied for first in the NBA with four 30+ point games off the bench, first with 11 double-doubles off the bench, and is second in the NBA with 10 25+ point games off the bench. Harrell also ranked tied for fourth in the NBA with a 58.0 FG% (min. 600 FGA).
- 14,000: On 1/10 vs. Golden State, Lou Williams collected his 14,000th career point. Williams is one of 15 active NBA players to achieve the milestone.
- DUNK FEST: The Clippers had a franchise-record 20 dunks in their win on 12/21 at San Antonio. According to ESPN Stats & Information, it is the most dunks in the NBA since 1996-97 when dunks were first tracked.
- STRONG DECEMBER: The Clippers finished the month of December with a 10-5 record which was tied for the third-best record in December. L.A. finished third in points (116.7), fourth in plus/minus differential (7.5), seventh in 3PT% (37.3) and tied for eighth in steals (8.5).
- QUICK THREES: On 12/28 vs. Utah, Landry Shamet made his 200th career three-pointer in his 96th career game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Shamet is tied for the sixth-fastest to reach 200 threes in NBA history.
- PG-13: On 12/19 vs. Houston, Paul George collected his 4,000th career rebound. George is one of 10 active players in the NBA to have at least 12,000 points, 4,000 rebounds, 2,000 assists and 1,000 steals. George also had his sixth game of 2019-20 with at least six three-pointers made. That is the most games with at least six three-pointers made in franchise history. George is also the first Clipper with 30+ points, 6+ three-pointers made and 2+ blocks.
- HISTORY IN D.C.: In their win on 12/8 at Washington, Kawhi Leonard and Paul George both made NBA history. Kawhi Leonard became the first Clipper since Blake Griffin on 4/6/11 at Oklahoma City to have 30+ points, 10+ rebounds and 5+ assists while shooting at least 65% from the floor. The last time this feat was achieved by any NBA player was by Nikola Jokic on 1/13/19 vs. Portland. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Paul George joins Luka Doncic (11/20/19) as the only two players since the 1973-74 season (when steals were first tracked officially) to have 25+ points, 5+ rebounds, 5+ assists and 4+ steals in under 26 minutes played.

Friday, February 28, 2020

STAPLES Center, Los Angeles, CA

The Clippers had one of their most impressive wins of the season with a 132-103 win over the Denver Nuggets at STAPLES Center. It was a wire-to-wire all around team effort as the Clippers tied a season-high with 35 assists and had seven players in double digits. L.A. also got 73 points from their bench compared to the Nuggets 49 bench points. The Clippers shot the ball extremely well as they were 48-for-89 (53.9%) from the floor and 18-for-39 (46.2%) from beyond the arc. L.A. also did an excellent job at limiting their turnovers as they only had 10 on the night. Paul George was fantastic as he had 24 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the floor and 6-for-8 from three-point range. It was George's 10th game this season with at least five three-pointers made which tied J.J. Redick for the most such games in a single season in franchise history. Montrezl Harrell was also excellent as he had 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting with 10 rebounds, four assists and three blocks off the bench. It was Harrell's 10th double-double off the bench this season which leads the NBA. Reggie Jackson was a spark plug off the bench as he had 10 points with eight rebounds and seven assists in just 18:32 minutes of play. Kawhi Leonard (19), Lou Williams (17), Landry Shamet (12) and Ivica Zubac (10) were also in double digits. The Clippers led the entire game and led by as much as 33 in this contest. L.A. limited Denver to just 39 rebounds and 19 assists while forcing 15 turnovers. Nikola Jokic was a standout for the Nuggets as he 21 points on 9-of-13 shooting while gathering nine rebounds in 25 minutes of action. The Clippers will look to continue this momentum against the Philadelphia 76ers this Sunday afternoon at STAPLES Center.

The Clippers took a commanding 3-1 series lead over the Denver Nuggets with a 96-85 win. L.A. did not give up the lead the entire game. Denver did tie the game early in the third quarter, but L.A. was able to build their lead shortly thereafter. The Clippers led by as much as 19 in this contest. This was a defensive contest as both teams did not shoot particularly well. L.A. was able to hold Denver to 12 first quarter points which was the second-fewest points allowed in any quarter in a postseason game in franchise history. The Clippers held the Nuggets to 27-for-68 (39.7%) from the floor and 9-for-27 (33.3%) from beyond the arc while forcing 14 turnovers on seven steals and five blocked shots. L.A. shot a little better from the floor going 33-for-79 (41.8%) and 8-for-28 (28.6%) from beyond the arc. Overall, the Clippers had six players in double figures. Kawhi Leonard was the star of this game as he had 30 points on 10-of-22 shooting to go along with 11 rebounds, nine assists, four steals and two blocks. Leonard became the first player in franchise history to have at least 30 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists in a postseason game. Ivica Zubac did an excellent job on defense and finished with 11 points and nine rebounds including four offensive rebounds. Paul George ran into early foul trouble so he only played 27 minutes tonight, but he had 10 points with three rebounds and three assists. Montrezl Harrell was a force off the bench finishing with 15 points on 6-of-10 shooting while gathering two rebounds. L.A. outrebounded Denver 41-38 and outscored them in points in the paint, 38-22. The Clippers did an excellent job on keeping Jamal Murray in check as he only had 18 points on 6-of-15 shooting. L.A. will look to close out the series and move on to the Western Conference Finals this Friday evening.

- 8/25 vs Dallas, became the first player in the Shot Clock Era to have at least 35 points in under 25 minutes played in a postseason game.

2019-20

- 8/12 at Denver, eclipsed 13,000 regular-season points in his career, becoming 1 of 22 active players in the NBA to reach the milestone. George is also 1 of 4 active players in the NBA to have atleast 13,000 points, 4,000 rebounds, 2,000 assists 1,000 steals and 1,500 three-pointers made in their career.
- 8/1 vs New Orleans, recorded a season-high 8 3PM becoming the sixth player in franchise history to make at least 8 three-pointers in a game.
- 12/19 vs Houston, became the first Clipper in franchise history with 30+ points, 6+ three-pointers made and 2+ blocks.
- 12/13 at Minnesota, recorded a season-high of 46 points. He became the first player in franchise history to have 46+ points and 7+ assists. According to ESPN stats, Leonard and George are the first duo to each score 35+ points through three quarters of a game over the last 20 seasons. They also become the first pair of teammates in Clippers history to each score 40 points. It is the 21st time teammates have done so in NBA history. Their combined 88 points is tied for the most all-time among games that concluded in regulation (Davis and Holiday, 88 points, 4/21/18).
- 12/8 at Washington, according to Elias Sports Bureau, Paul George joins Luka Doncic (11/20/19) as the only two players since the 1973-74 season to have 25+ points, 5+ rebounds, 5+ assists and 4+ steals in under 26 minutes played.
- 11/16 vs Atlanta, his 37 points are the most scored by a player in less than 21 minutes. He also passed Phil Smith for most points in a Clippers home debut.
- 11/14 at New Orleans, made his Clippers debut recording 33 points, which is the fourth-most points in a Clippers debut in franchise history. No other player has ever finished with 30+ points and 25 or fewer minutes in their first game with a team before George.
- Missed 11 games due to injury rehabilitation assignment - shoulder (10/22-11/13). Missed one game due to left hamstring tightness (1/4). Missed 10 games due to a left hamstring strain (1/10- 1/26, 2/22). Missed one game due to rest (8/9).
