Portland scored 21 points and shot 31.8% in the fourth quarter...
OT WIN ON OPENING NIGHT
The Memphis Grizzlies defeated the New York Knicks, 115-112 in overtime, on opening night on Oct. 19 at FedExForum... This was just the second season-opening overtime in franchise history after a triple-overtime tilt in 2006...also against the Knicks.

OPENING NIGHT 12
Ja Morant scored 34 on opening night against the Knicks, his third consecutive 30-point performance in a season opener... Morant has the highest season-opening scoring average (32.3 points) in NBA history among players with at least four such games.

GRIZZLIES’ FRANCHISE RECORDS IN 2021-22
The Memphis Grizzlies matched their 2012-13 franchise record for wins in a season with 56 in 2021-22... The Grizzlies also bested single-season franchise records in several other categories.

* Memphis has set franchise records for scoring average in every season since hiring Taylor Jenkins and drafting Ja Morant in 2019.

SOUTHWEST DIVISION CHAMPIONS
The Grizzlies captured the Southwest Division championship in 2021-22, the first division title in franchise history.

NO. 1 RANKS
Memphis led the NBA in 2021-22 in an array of categories that measure performance on both ends of the court.

* The Grizzlies became the first NBA team to lead the league in rebounds, steals and blocks since steals and blocks became official stats in 1973-74.

RECORD-HIGH SCORING
The Grizzlies’ highest-scoring seasons have come in Taylor Jenkins’ first four years as head coach... Memphis has set a new franchise record for scoring average in every season with Jenkins on the sidelines.

POINTS IN THE PAINT
The Grizzlies have dominated the paint since drafting Ja Morant and naming Taylor Jenkins head coach before the start of the 2019-20 season... Memphis led the league in points in the paint for the third consecutive season and posted the third highest average for a team since the league began tracking data in 1996-97.

* Memphis scored 60+ paint points 36 times this season and 70+ 15 times.
SECOND CHANCES

The Grizzlies were unmatched in hustle stats in 2021-22, and one of the best examples was their ability to turn offensive rebounds into points... Memphis' second chance scoring average was comfortably the most by any NBA team since the league began tracking the stat in 1996-97 (Sportradar).

THE LITTLE THINGS

Memphis have dominated the miscellaneous scoring categories over the past three seasons after hiring Taylor Jenkins as head coach and drafting Ja Morant second overall in the 2019 NBA Draft.

MISCELLANEOUS LEADERS

For the second season in a row, Memphis leads the NBA in points in the paint, fast break points and second chance points... Only one other franchise in the last 25 seasons has led the league in all three categories (Sportradar).

STEALS AND BLOCKS

In addition to leading the league in several miscellaneous scoring categories, the Grizzlies also topped the NBA in steals and blocks per game... This would be the second straight season Memphis has led the league in steals.

* Memphis had 59 games with 5+ steals and 5+ blocks this season, the most in the NBA (Sportradar, Stathead).
Taylor Jenkins enters his fourth season as head coach of the Memphis Grizzlies after being named to the position on June 11, 2019.

Last season, Jenkins guided the Grizzlies to a 56-26 record, the second-best record in the NBA and tied for the best single-season record in franchise history. Memphis earned the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference Playoffs, a franchise best, and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals for the first time since 2015. The Grizzlies also captured the Southwest Division championship during the regular season, the first division title in franchise history.

Jenkins finished second in the voting for the 2021-22 NBA Coach of the Year award and received Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for December 2021. Memphis led the NBA in rebounds, offensive rebounds, steals, points in the paint, second chance points and fast break points last season, setting franchise records in every category. The Grizzlies also paced the league in blocks and became the first team in NBA history to lead the league in rebounds, steals and blocks.

Memphis has established a new franchise record for scoring average in each of Jenkins' first three seasons on the sidelines, scoring 115.6 points per game in 2021-22. Jenkins has guided the Grizzlies, one of the league’s youngest rosters, to the NBA Playoffs in each of the last two seasons and the NBA Play-In Game in 2020.

Jenkins joined the Grizzlies after serving the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach under two-time NBA Coach of the Year Mike Budenholzer with the Milwaukee Bucks, helping guide the team to the NBA's best regular season record (60-22), a trip to the 2019 Eastern Conference Finals and the league's highest-scoring offense (118.1 points per game). He was an assistant coach for Team Giannis in the 2019 NBA All-Star Game.

Before his time with the Bucks, Jenkins spent five seasons (2013-18) as an assistant coach under Budenholzer with the Atlanta Hawks, where he helped coach the team to four postseason appearances, including the 2015 Eastern Conference Finals. He was an assistant coach for the 2015 NBA Eastern Conference All-Star Team.

Jenkins’ previous experience includes one season (2012-13) as head coach of the Austin Toros (now Spurs), the NBA G League affiliate of the San Antonio Spurs, where he led the team to the NBA G League Playoffs. Jenkins had spent four seasons (2008-12) as an assistant coach with the Toros, working under head coaches Quin Snyder and Brad Jones, and was a member of the club’s 2012 championship team and playoff runs in 2009 and 2010. He interned with San Antonio’s basketball operations department during the 2007-08 season.

Jenkins attended The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics while concentrating in Management and minoring in Psychology. He and his wife, Chantall, have three sons and one daughter.
