BOSTON CELTICS 109, MIAMI HEAT 101 (1/28/20): On the second night of a back-to-back home set, the HEAT fell to the Boston Celtics, 109-101, in Miami. Two Celtics players scored in double figures in the first, helping Boston take an eight-point, 36-28, lead after one. Miami held the Celtics to just 27.3 percent from the field in second, cutting their lead to five, 53-48, at the half. The HEAT outscored Boston by one in the third to again cut their lead, this time down to four, 80-76, entering the final frame. The Celtics pushed their advantage to 11 at the 7:39 mark as Miami cut it to five, 101-96, with 2:43 remaining but couldn’t get any closer than that as the best of the way as Boston closed out the, 109-101, win. Goran Dragić scored a team-high 23 points, all off the bench, as Gordon Hayward led the Celtics with 29.

MIAMI HEAT 113, ORLANDO MAGIC 92 (1/27/20): In the first of back-to-back home games, the Miami HEAT recorded a, 113-92, win against the visiting Orlando Magic. Bam Adebayo scored 10 points in the first, helping Miami take a 10-point, 31-21, lead after one. Orlando outscored the HEAT by four in the second to cut the Miami lead to six, 54-48, at the break. The HEAT shot 55 percent from the field in the third to push their advantage to 14, 85-71, heading into the final frame. Miami held a 20-point lead for most of the fourth, closing the game with the, 113-92, win. Adebayo finished with a 20-point, 10-rebound, 10-assist triple-double as both Aaron Gordon and Nikola Vučević each led Orlando with 13 apiece.

LOS ANGELES CLIPPERS 122, MIAMI HEAT 117 (1/24/20): The Los Angeles Clippers became just the second team to earn a victory in Miami this season after defeating the HEAT, 122-117. Miami jumped out to a 15-point lead in the first before closing the quarter up eight, 30-22. The Clippers scored 41 in the second, cutting the Miami lead down to two, 65-63, at the break. Kawhi Leonard scored 17 in the third to help give LA a 16-point, 101-85, advantage entering the final frame. The HEAT cut it down to just three twice in the fourth, but couldn’t take the lead as the Clippers held on for the, 122-117, win. Six Miami players scored in double-figures led by Jimmy Butler’s 20 while Leonard finished with 33 for Los Angeles.

HOT TAKES:
- The HEAT has recorded a 20-plus point lead in the first quarter five times this season.
- Miami has scored at least 70 first half points five times this season, already the most for any season in franchise history.
- Miami has recorded a +9.7 scoring margin at home this season, the third-highest in the NBA, outscoring opponents by +233 (3rd-best).
- Miami has totaled 5,262 points this season, the most through the first 47 games of a season in franchise history.
- The HEAT are 27-3 this season when out-rebounding their opponent.
- Duncan Robinson has connected on at least six three-point field goals 7 times this season, helping Miami to a perfect 7-0 in those games.
- The HEAT has currently shot at least 80 percent from the foul line in six-straight games, their longest such streak since 3/4/90 – 3/14/90.

MULTIPLE TREYS: Duncan Robinson has currently connected on multiple three-point field goals in a new franchise record 17-straight games, surpassing the previous record of 14 consecutive games that he set earlier this season from 11/25 – 12/20. HEALTH NOW YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Bam Adebayo and Jimmy Butler have both been selected to the 2020 NBA All-Star Team. This marks Adebayo’s first All-Star selection and the fifth for Butler. It is also the 12th time Miami has had multiple All-Star selections in the same season. Adebayo, who was named Eastern Conference Player of the Week on December 16, and Butler, who was named Eastern Conference Player of the Week on December 9, have paired to become the only HEAT teammates to record multiple triple-doubles in the same season. Additionally, they are the first pair of teammates in the NBA with at least three triple-doubles apiece prior to the All-Star break since Jordan and Pippen accomplished the feat during the 1992-93 season.

RISING STARS: HEAT rookies Tyler Herro and Kendrick Nunn were each selected to play in the NBA Rising Stars game during All-Star Weekend. They become just the second pair of Miami teammates to be selected, joining Dwyane Wade and Udonis Haslem who did so in both 2004 and 2005. They now mark the eighth and ninth HEAT players to be selected in the game, joining Norris Cole (2012), Michael Beasley (2009 & 2010), Dwyane Wade (2004 & 2005), Udonis Haslem (2004 & 2005), Caron Butler (2003), Kurt Thomas (1996) and Khalid Reeves (1995). Additionally, Herro and Nunn both started on Opening Night, becoming just the fourth set of rookies to start a season opener for the HEAT. Below are where Herro and Nunn currently rank among all rookies in different categories this season.

MORE NUNN: Kendrick Nunn has earned both Rookie of the Month awards (Oct/Nov & Dec) this season, becoming the first undrafted rookie in NBA history to earn the honor multiple times. His 713 points are the second-most by a rookie in franchise history to earn the honor multiple times. His 713 points are the second-most by an undrafted NBA rookie during the Common Draft Era (since 1966) while recording his 500th point in his 31st game, the fastest by a HEAT rookie in franchise history, surpassing Dwyane Wade’s 32 games. On 1/15 vs. SA, he became the first undrafted rookie in NBA history to shoot a perfect 8-of-8 from the field, including a perfect 4-of-4 from three-point, in a first half. He dished out nine assists with no turnovers on 1/2, becoming just the second HEAT rookie to record that many assists without a single turnover during a single game in team history. Earlier this season he posted three consecutive 20-point games, marking the first HEAT rookie to accomplish the feat since 2009. In his debut on Opening Night, he scored 24 points, just one point short from tying the all-time franchise record for points by a rookie in a season opener. His 24 points also tied the fourth-most by any player in their HEAT debut, only LeBron James (31), Antoine Walker (25) and Willie Burton (25) had more.

MORE HERRO: Tyler Herro became the youngest player (19 yrs, 276 days) in HEAT history to start a game after starting on Opening Night. He scored 29 points on 10/29 vs. ATL, all off the bench, marking the most by a rookie reserve in franchise history and tying the fifth-most points overall off the bench. He scored 19 of his 29 points in the second quarter, the most by a HEAT rookie during a quarter since 2003. In the same game, Herro paired with Goran Dragić (21 pts) to become just the 12th set of teammates to each post a 20-point game during the same contest as reserves.

LET’S SHOOT IT OUT: Duncan Robinson has connected on a team-high 158 three-point field goals this season, the fifth-most in the entire NBA, and his 43.8 percent from downtown is the highest in the league with at least 140 makes. He has currently connected on multiple three-point field goals in a team-record 17 consecutive games. Robinson recorded his 100th made three-point field goal this season on 12/27, in his 31st game, becoming the fastest to 100 made treys in team history. He hit seven three-point field goals in the second quarter on 11/20, the most for a single quarter in franchise history and tied the team record for three-point field goals made in a single game after hitting 10 on 12/10. Additionally, Meyers Leonard is shooting 42.6 percent (46-of-108) from downtown this season which is the 13th-highest percentage from qualified players. Below are the most made three-point field goals in the NBA this season.

AIRPLANE MODE: Derrick Jones, Jr. has recorded 46 dunks this season, accounting for 46 percent of all his field goals made (100 total FGM). When factoring just two-point attempts, his dunks account for 56.8 percent of his made field goals from inside the arc. He last participated in the NBA Dunk Contest during the 2017 All-Star Weekend in New Orleans, finishing as the runner-up. In the contest, he posted two perfect 50-point scores, going between the legs on a pass off the side of the backboard and going between the legs after taking off with two feet outside the dotted semicircle.
TRIPLE-Doubles: Bam Adebayo posted his third triple-double of the season on 1/27 vs. ORL, becoming just the fourth player in franchise history to record at least three triple-doubles in a single season, joining LeBron James (4), Jimmy Butler (3) and Hassan Whiteside (3). Adebayo and Butler are the only pair of Heat teammates to record multiple triple-doubles in the same season and the first pair of teammates in the NBA with at least three triple-doubles apiece prior to the All-Star break since Jordan and Pippen did so in 1992-93. Additionally, both Adebayo and Butler each posted a triple-double in the same game on 12/10 vs. ATL, becoming the first set of Heat teammates to achieve the feat during the same game in franchise history as Adebayo also became the youngest player in team history to post a triple-double (22 yrs, 145 days). The Heat have now recorded six triple-doubles on the season, already the most for a single-season in team history. PERFECT IN OT: Miami is a perfect 8-0 this season in overtime games, becoming just the third team in NBA history to ever win eight consecutive overtime games during a single season, and just the second to do so to begin a season, joining the 2003-03 Pistons (12/18/02 – 4/13/03) and the 1977-78 Bucks (12/4/77 – 3/26/78), no team has ever won nine straight. Miami’s eight overtime wins are already the most overtime victories in a single-season in Heat history. Additionally, the Heat’s defense are holding teams in overtime to just 6.5 points (52 total) on 28.6 percent (20-of-70) shooting from the field, including 15.2 percent (5-of-33) from three-point range, while outscoring teams by +50 (102-52).

UNDRAFTED: Kendrick Nunn has totaled 713 points in the first 44 games of the season. His 713 points are the second-most by an undrafted NBA player in their first 44 games during the Common Draft Era (since 1966). HOT FROM THE FIELD: Miami shot 53.2 percent from the field, 50 percent from three-point range and 93.8 percent from the foul line on 1/27 vs. ORL, marking just the second time in franchise history the Heat have shot at least those totals in each category. The only other time in team history was on 1/11/00 at MIN (55.6% FG, 73.3% 3FG, 93.8% FT).
DECADE: The HEAT finished the decade with a .605 (488-319) winning percentage, which included two NBA Championships, four Eastern Conference Championships and six Division titles. Miami’s .605 winning percentage was the best in the Eastern Conference this past decade, and the fifth best overall, trailing only San Antonio, Oklahoma City, Golden State and Houston.

FIRST HALF: Miami has posted a 29-12 (.707) record through 41 games this season. Their 29 wins tie for the third-most victories at the midway point of a season in team history. Only the 30 wins in 2010-11 and the 30 wins in 1996-97 are more.

20-PLUS: Kendrick Nunn scored at least 20 points in three consecutive games from 1/12 – 1/17, the second time he has done so this season after almost scoring at least 20 points in three consecutive games from 11/12 – 11/16. He is the last HEAT rookie to post at least three consecutive 20-point games since Michael Beasley accomplished the feat in five-straight games from 4/7/09 – 4/15/09.

CLOSE CALLS: The HEAT recorded consecutive one-point wins in back-to-back days, marking the first time in franchise history Miami has recorded one-point wins in consecutive days. The first came in a, 113-112, win against IND on 12/27 and then a, 117-116, overtime win vs. PHI on 12/28.

NUNN BETTER: Kendrick Nunn scored 20 first half points on 1/15 vs. SA while shooting a perfect 8-of-8 from the field, including a perfect 4-of-4 from three point range, becoming the first undrafted rookie in NBA history to be perfect from the field with at least eight attempts, including four from downtown in a first half. Additionally, he finished with a game-high 33 points on 72.2 percent (13-of-18) shooting from the field, becoming just the fourth HEAT rookie to score at least 30 points and shoot at least 70 percent from the field in a single game, joining Sherman Douglas (4/12/90), Grant Long (2/19/89) and Rony Seikaly (1/10/89).

TEAM EFFORT: Miami scored 122 points at IND on 1/8, resulting in a, 122-108, win in which seven different HEAT players scored in double-figures, but no one more than 20-plus. That marked as the first time in team history Miami has scored at least 122 points without a single 20-point scorer. Additionally, the 122 points were the most points Miami has ever scored against the Pacers, surpassing the previous record of 121 set on 1/17/90.

HOME SPOILER: The HEAT recorded a, 108-104, win at Philadelphia on 12/18, recording the Sixers first home loss of the season after they started 14-0 at home as Miami previously beat Toronto, 121-110, in overtime on 12/3 also recording the Raptors first home loss of the season after they started 9-0 at home. According to Elias, the HEAT have become the first team in NBA history to snap multiple home win streaks of at least nine games to start a season.

DEFENSIVE TURNAROUND: The HEAT held Toronto to just 76 points last night, a -47 point difference from Miami’s previous game at Washington on 12/30 in which the Wizards scored 123 points. The -47 point defensive turnaround in consecutive games tied the fourth-highest point differential in team history. Below are the best defensive turnarounds between games in franchise history.

MR. ROBINSON: Duncan Robinson scored 21 points in the second quarter in just 5:11 minutes of action on 11/20 vs. CLE, that marks as the most points in a quarter by any player in just 5:11 or fewer minutes over the last 20 years (when play-by-plays were more accessible). Additionally, Robinson connected on seven three-point field goals in the quarter, the most treys in a quarter in franchise history, surpassing the previous record of six which has been done three separate times.

OFFENSIVE: The HEAT scored 43 points in the second quarter while finishing the first half with 75 points on 11/20 vs. CLE, both tying the franchise records for points in a second quarter and first half. Miami previously scored 43 points in the second quarter on 2/25/11 at WAS and totaled 75 first half points on 11/19/97 vs. LAC. Additionally, the HEAT connected on 10 three-point field goals in the second quarter, the most for any quarter at home in team history and tying the most for any quarter with their 10 made treys in the third quarter at PHI on 10/30/13.
20-POINT GAMES: Jimmy Butler recorded nine-straight 20-point games from 12/1 – 12/16, tying the third-longest streak of his career. He has now recorded a team-high 16 20-point games this season. Below are the longest 20-point streaks of Butler’s career.

JIMMY BUCKETS: Jimmy Butler became the first player in NBA history to shoot at least 68.8 percent (11-of-16) from the field and be perfect from both three-point range (2-of-2) and the foul line (10-of-10) with at least that many attempts in each category at PHI on 11/7. His 18 first quarter points and 30 first half points were both career-highs. Additionally, only LeBron James (31 pts on 3/16/14 at CLE), Dwyane Wade (31 pts on 2/15/11 at IND) and Sherman Douglas (31 pts on 12/27/90 at DEN) have scored more in a first half in HEAT franchise history.

JIMMY ‘CREATING’ BUCKETS: Jimmy Butler dished out 13 assists without a single turnover vs. DET on 11/12, becoming just the fourth player in team history to have that many assists without a turnover in a single game. Additionally, his 13 assists were just one shy of his career-high of 14 which he set on 3/26/17 at MIN. Below are each instance in which a player had at least 13 assists without a turnover in franchise history.

HOT START: The HEAT started the game on a 15-0 run at CHI on 11/22, marking their best start to a game since their 18-0 start on 1/13/15 at LAL. Additionally, Miami held a 20-point, 31-11, lead in the first quarter, the second time this season the HEAT has had a 20-point advantage in a first quarter with the other occurrence when they had a 32-point first quarter lead vs. HOU on 11/3.

COMEBACK KIDS: The HEAT were down by 21 points, 74-53, about a minute into the third quarter on 10/26 before they came back to win, 131-126, in overtime at MIL. The 21-point comeback win was their largest since 11/1/15 when they also overcame a 21-point deficit vs. HOU. Additionally, it was their largest comeback on the road since 3/20/13 when they overcame a 27-point deficit at CLE.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Bam Adebayo was named Eastern Conference Player of the Week for games played from December 9 through December 15 after helping Miami to a 2-1 record and averaging 20.0 points, 11.3 rebounds, 8.7 assists, 1.33 steals and 1.00 blocks. He posted two triple-doubles and a double-double during the week while leading the team in rebounds, assists and blocks twice and in plus/minus, minutes and steals once each. It was the first Player of the Week honor of his career and the 59th time in team history a HEAT player earned the award.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Jimmy Butler was named Eastern Conference Player of the Week for games played from December 2 through December 8 after helping Miami to a 3-1 record and averaging 27.5 points, 9.0 rebounds, 8.5 assists and 1.25 steals. He posted two triple-doubles during the week and led the team in assists in all four contests, in points three times, in minutes and blocks twice and in rebounds and steals once each. It marked the fifth time Butler has been named Player of the Week and was the 58th time in franchise history a HEAT player earned the honor.

ROM: Kendrick Nunn was named the Eastern Conference Rookie of the Month for games played during December after also earning the award for Oct/Nov. He has now become the first undrafted NBA rookie in league history to win the award multiple times and just the second HEAT player to earn the award more than once, joining Caron Butler (four times). Nunn led all rookies in December in points (233) and field goals made (92) while ranking second in assists (59), tied for second in three-point field goals made (28) and third in plus/minus (+49).
COMMUNITY NOTES

PLAYER TICKET PROGRAM: One of the most generous and trend-setting programs in the NBA, the Miami HEAT’s Community Player Ticket Outreach Program will spend the entire 2019-20 regular season reaching out to children and youth less fortunate who typically would only dream of watching a HEAT game live. HEAT players Goran Dragić, Udonis Haslem, James Johnson, Derrick Jones, Jr., Meyers Leonard and Justise Winslow, along with Head Coach Erik Spoelstra, will join forces to donate tickets for every single home game to local charitable organizations that would otherwise not have the means to attend HEAT games. Each player, based upon availability, graciously provides several private “Meet & Greet” opportunities for the groups prior to each HEAT home game, where the players give inspiring talks to the children, sign autographs and take pictures with the group. The participating organizations also attend a private viewing of the team warm-ups. Over the course of the season, the children, many for the first time, will have the opportunity to enjoy a HEAT game, courtesy of their favorite HEAT players and role models.

2019-20 MIAMI HEAT GAME NOTES PAGE 11
ERIK SPOELSTRA (Portland)

Regular Season Coaching Record: 555-378, currently in 12th Season

Erik Spoelstra enters his 12th season as head coach of the HEAT and his 25th as a member of the organization. He was elevated to his current position on April 28, 2008. Spoelstra has rewarded the faith that HEAT President Pat Riley showed in him by garnering eight postseason appearances, six division titles, four conference championships and guiding the franchise to back-to-back NBA titles in 2012 and 2013.

In his previous 11 seasons at the helm, Spoelstra has already made his mark on the HEAT record book. Entering this season, he holds the franchise record in wins, winning percentage and games coached. In postseason play, he owns the franchise records in victories (71), winning percentage (.602), series won (15) and postseason games coached (118). Additionally, he has been named the NBA’s Eastern Conference Coach of the Month a franchise-record eight times.

When Spoelstra first took over the head coaching duties in 2008 he was given the task of improving a young team that had been ravaged by injuries the previous season and had won just 15 games. Two years later, after the summer of 2010 in which Miami re-signed Dwyane Wade and acquired All-Stars LeBron James and Chris Bosh, he found himself coaching a highly-talented, veteran group that was the most scrutinized team in the NBA. Spoelstra and his team have proven they were up for the challenge as he guided them to consecutive NBA Championships, four-straight Conference Championships and four consecutive NBA Finals appearances, becoming just the third franchise in NBA history to make four consecutive NBA Finals appearances. The Heat also added the next two franchises to the four major North American sports leagues to make four consecutive trips to the league championship. Individually, Spoelstra became just the fourth head coach in NBA history to lead his team to four-straight Finals appearances joining Red Auerbach, K.C. Jones and Pat Riley.

Spoelstra joined a very elite fraternity when he led the HEAT to a seven-game series win over the San Antonio Spurs in the 2013 NBA Finals. Upon capturing the 2013 NBA Championship he became one of just 13 head coaches in NBA history to have won multiple championships and only the eighth to win a championship in consecutive seasons.

The 2012 championship culminated a compressed 2011-12 season in which Miami went 46-20 and captured its second consecutive Southeast Division title. The regular season was highlighted by a nine-game win streak (Feb. 10-Mar. 1) with each victory a double-digit win. During that streak the HEAT became the first team to win road games on three consecutive nights (Feb. 12-14) since December of 1979 and the first to win each of those contests by double-digits since the 1970-71 season.

Before taking over as the sixth head coach in HEAT history, Spoelstra had served Miami in a number of roles in his first 13 years. He was originally hired as video coordinator and over the years was promoted to assistant coach/video coordinator, assistant coach/advance scout and assistant coach/director of scouting, a title he held during Miami’s 2006 NBA Championship, before ascending to head coach. He made a name for himself around the league with his game preparation and superb attention to detail. In his seven seasons as the HEAT’s assistant coach/director of scouting, he had the primary role of developing game plans for upcoming opponents. To that end, he coordinated the video staff and advance scouts while overseeing the development of scouting reports and videos.

In 1992, he graduated from the University of Portland with a degree in communications. While attending Portland, Spoelstra was the starting point guard for four years and was named the West Coast Conference Freshman of the Year in 1989. Upon graduating he spent two years as a player/coach for Tus Herten, a team in the professional sports league of Germany.

He has returned to his native Philippines to host clinics and promote education, health and wellness to thousands of at-risk youth through grassroots programs and events. The 9-day program in Manila in the summer of 2011 was the largest NBA FIT event ever hosted in Southeast Asia under the NBA Cares umbrella. In the summer of 2012, Coach Spoelstra expanded his reach into other Southeast Asia nations by conducting coaches clinics and other FIT activities in Singapore.

Raised in Portland, OR, Spoelstra, who was inducted into the Jesuit High School Athletic Hall of Fame in September 2009, is the first Asian/Filipino-American head coach in any of the major North American sports leagues.

Spoelstra is the son of Jon Spoelstra, a long-time NBA executive who has guided the Portland Trail Blazers, Denver Nuggets, Buffalo Braves and New Jersey Nets. His grandfather, Watson, was a Detroit Tigers beat writer for many years. He and his wife, Nikki, who were married in the summer of 2016, reside in Coral Gables, with their sons Santiago and Dante.
