The NBA and the NBPA have agreed in principle that the goal of the season restart will be to find tangible and sustainable ways to address racial inequality across the country. Leaders from the NBA and the NBPA have also discussed strategies to increase Black representation across the NBA and its teams, ensure greater inclusion of Black-owned and operated businesses across NBA business activities, and form an NBA foundation to expand educational and economic development opportunities across the Black community. In recognition that long-term change can only come from an informed and sustained commitment, conversations regarding these efforts will continue and additional details will be released at a later date.

2019-20 END OF SEASON QUICK NOTES

CHANGES IN THE FRONT OFFICE: The Sacramento Kings announced on Friday, Aug. 14, that Vlade Divac will step down from his role as General Manager with Joe Dumars named as Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations in the interim. Dumars will assume General Manager duties as he and the team will look for a permanent GM in the future.

"This was a difficult decision, but we believe it is the best path ahead as we work to build a winning team that our loyal fans deserve," said Kings Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "We are thankful for Vlade's leadership, commitment and hard work both on and off the court. He will always be a part of our Kings family."

"It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as the General Manager for the Kings," said Vlade Divac. "I want to thank Vivek for the opportunity and recognize all of the incredible colleagues who I had the great pleasure of working with during my tenure. Sacramento and the Kings will always hold a special place in my heart and I wish them all the best moving forward."

On Saturday, Aug. 15, it was announced that Peja Stojakovic will step down from his role with the organization as Assistant General Manager.

"It has been a great joy and honor to work in the Kings front office for the past five years," said Peja Stojakovic. "I want to thank the organization and especially the incredible fans around the world for the support over the years. Sacramento will always be home to me and I wish the franchise nothing but the very best."

"We are deeply appreciative to Peja for his contributions and commitment to the Kings and to the city of Sacramento both as a legend and as an executive," said Kings Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "Peja is a pillar of the community and he will always remain a part of our Kings family. We wish him and his family all the best in the future."

TIME IN THE BUBBLE: The Sacramento Kings finished their time in the bubble going 3-5 overall as Sacramento went on to average 119.0 points per game during their eight seeding games, the seventh highest scoring average among the 22 bubble teams. The Kings also went on to average 27.0 assists and 8.5 steals per game, ranking fourth and fifth respectively among the teams who participated in the 2020 NBA Restart. Sacramento averaged 13.3 3s per game, the 11th best among the 22 teams as the Kings set the franchise record for 3-point field goals made in a single quarter with nine in the first quarter vs. Dallas on Aug. 4 and nine in the third quarter at Los Angeles on Aug. 13. In their win over the Lakers on Aug. 13, the Kings tied their franchise record with 21 3-pointers, marking the third time the team reached that mark this season with the other two times coming on Mar. 7 at Portland at Jan. 30 at the Clippers.

Sacramento received strong play from guard De'Aaron Fox who appeared in six seeding games and posted 26.2 points, 7.3 assists and 1.7 steals per contest. Fox finished with the ninth best scoring output, eighth highest assist average and was tied for 14th in steals per game among bubble league leaders. Only Fox and Rockets guard James Harden averaged at least 26.0 points, 7.0 assists and 1.5 steals per game during the restart. Guard Bogdan Bogdanovic was a big factor in the success Sacramento found, posting 19.8 points, 4.5 rebounds and 4.8 assists per game in eight seeding games as he ended the bubble with the 29th highest scoring average.

LEAGUE-WIDE RANKINGS: In 72 games Sacramento ended the season ranked 10th in total 3-point field goals (914), 11th in 3-point field goals made (12.7) and ninth in points off turnovers (17.4) per game. The Kings were fifth in opponent fast break points (12.1) and fourth in opponent second chance points (11.9).

Guard De'Aaron Fox ranked 21st in points (21.1), 15th in assists (6.8) and 16th in steals (1.5) per game in the NBA while guard Buddy Hield finished second in total 3-point field goals made this season with 271, third in 3s per game with 3.8 per contest and 36th in The Association in scoring at 19.2 points per outing. Forward Nemanja Bjelica knocked in .419% of his 3-point attempts, the eighth best percentage in the NBA.

STRONG SEASON PERFORMANCES AGAIN: This season, Sacramento guard De'Aaron Fox ended the year averaging 21.1 points, 3.8 rebounds, 6.8 assists and 1.5 steals per game after averaging 17.3 points, 3.8 rebounds, 7.3 assists and 1.6 steals per game during the 2018-19 season. Fox is one of four players along with Rockets guards James Harden and Russell Westbrook and Pelicans guard Jrue Holiday to average at least 17.0 points, 6.5 assists and 1.5 steals per game in both the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons. Fox is the first Kings player to post those averages in consecutive seasons since Reggie Theus (1985-87) as only Fox, Westbrook and Harden averaged 20.0 points, 6.5 assists and 1.5 steals per game during the 2019-20 season. Fox is the first Kings player to average at least 21.0 points and 6.5 assists in a season since Nate Archibald averaged 24.8 points and 7.8 assists per game during the 1975-76 season.

The Kings also got help from guard Buddy Hield who was stellar from beyond the arc, finishing with 271 3-pointers marking the second straight season he had 270+ makes from distance. Hield's eight 3-pointers in the win at Los Angeles on Aug. 13 helped him become just the third player with 270 or more made 3-point field goals in consecutive seasons along with Harden (2018-20) and Warriors guard Stephen Curry (2014-17). Previously Hield joined Harden and Curry as well as Klay Thompson as the only four players with 250 3-pointers in back-to-back seasons. Hield made at least five 3-pointers in 25 games this season, the second most in the NBA this season and seventh most in NBA history.

The Kings finished the year with five games where the team made at least 20 3-point field goals, including setting and tying their franchise record on three occasions (8/13 @ LAL, 3/7 @ POR, 1/30 @ LAC). Sacramento had the third most games with 20+ 3s and the ninth most by any team in league history as they had 914 makes from beyond the arc, falling 13 shy of their record (927) set last season. The Kings went 5-1 this season in games with 20+ 3-pointers.

2019-20 KINGS REGULAR SEASON NOTES

SEASON-HIGHS TO END THE SEASON: The Sacramento Kings ended the 2019-20 season with a win over the Los Angeles Lakers, 136-122, on Aug. 13 as Sacramento tied their franchise record for 3-point field goals made in a game and quarter with 21 total and nine in the third quarter alone. The Kings also ended the game with 37 assists, which is the most by Sacramento in a single game since the Kings recorded 38 assists in a win at Atlanta on Nov. 1, 2018. Kings forward Nemanja Bjelica was a key contributor to the assist total, dishing out a new career-high 13 assists, including eight in the third quarter, a season-high for assists in a quarter by any Kings player. The Kings also finished with a new season-best, knocking down 54 field goals against the Lakers.

The Kings are 7-1 this season when making at least 19 3-point field goals in a game as Sacramento's made at least 10 3-pointers in 58 games this season falling one game short of franchise mark of 59 games with 10+ makes from beyond the arc set during the 2018-19 season

BREAKING RECORDS IN THE BUBBLE: The Sacramento Kings picked up their first victory in the 2020 NBA Restart, beating the New Orleans Pelicans, 140-125 on Aug. 6. Sacramento set a new season-high in points scored with help from a strong opening quarter as the Kings scored 49 points in the first quarter on 18-of-23 shooting (.783), including 7-for-9 from beyond the arc. The 49 points is the most in any quarter by the Kings in the Sac era, eclipsing the previous record of 48 points, which the Kings set in the second quarter in last season's finale at Portland on Apr. 10, 2019. Sacramento also set the franchise record for most points in a first quarter, surpassing the previous mark of 46 points as it had been done four other times since the 1985-86 season, including most recently vs. Houston on Mar. 20, 2001, according to Basketball Reference. 49 points is tied for the fourth highest scoring total in a single quarter in franchise history and is also tied for the second most points in a quarter by any team during the 2019-20 season, according to Basketball Reference.

The Kings opened up the second half with a strong performance as well, posting 40 points in the third quarter vs. New Orleans. This is just the eighth instance in franchise history where the Kings had multiple 40-point quarters in a single game and the first in the Sac era, according to Basketball Reference. The last time the franchise scored 40+ points in multiple quarters in a single game was on Dec. 1, 1982 vs. the Chicago Bulls (42 points in the 1st, 41 points in the 4th).

Once again, Sacramento starting backcourt provided a big spark as guard Bogdan Bogdanovic set career-highs in points (35) and field goals made (13) and recorded one steal to extend his streak with a steal to nine games. Bogdanovic scored 19 of his 35 points in the first quarter alone, going 7-of-8 from the floor and 5-for-6 from 3-point range as he exceeded 150 3-point field goals this season in the first. Bogdanovic is now the fifth player in franchise history with 150+ 3s in a single season as his 152 3s this season are the 12th most in franchise history. Guard De'Aaron Fox added 30 points and 10 assists marking his second game this season with at least 30 points and 10 assists as he also had two games with 30 points and 10 assists last season.

THE HAPPIEST PLACE ON EARTH FOR FOX: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox picked up where he left off in the month of March as he averaged 26.2 points, 7.3 assists and 1.7 steals per game in the 2020 NBA Restart. Fox scored 26 points vs. Houston on Aug. 9 to go with nine assists, marking the 13th time this season he totaled at least 25 points and five assists; he had at least 25 points and five assists in four of the six seeding games he appeared in. Fox had the most 25-point and five-assist performances by a Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins had 19 during the 2016-17 season. Fox ended the season by scoring at least 20 points in his final four games.

HISTORY FROM BEYOND THE ARC: The Sacramento Kings opened up the second half against the Los Angeles Lakers with nine made 3s on Aug. 13, marking their second time in the bubble with nine 3s in a single quarter. The Kings also made nine treys in the first quarter in their matchup against Dallas on Aug. 4, tying their franchise-high for 3-point field goals in a quarter. Sacramento has made nine treys in a single quarter two times this season, including in the second quarter on Jan. 30 at the Clippers and in the second quarter on Mar. 7 at Portland. The Kings finished with their franchise high (21) in 3-point field goals made at the Lakers, tying the record they previously set also on Jan. 30 and Mar. 7.

Sacramento received help from guard Buddy Hield who knocked in eight 3-point field goals at Los Angeles, to eclipse 270 3-pointers for the season. Hield-knocked won three 3-point field goals in the opening quarter vs. Dallas as he knocked in his 250th 3-point of the season in the first vs. Dallas on Aug. 4. Hield is one of three players with 270+ 3s in back-to-back seasons and one of four with at least 250 in consecutive seasons.

A LONG RANGE SCORER: Sacramento Kings guard Buddy Hield has totaled 271 makes from 3-point range this season, the second most in the NBA this season. In his fourth season, Hield felt just short of his franchise record of 278 treys set during the 2018-19 season as Rockets guard James Harden, Blazers guard Damian Lillard and Heat forward Duncan Robinson are the only players this season with 270+ 3s. Hield has 873 career 3s, including 785 in a Kings uniform as his three vs. New Orleans on Aug. 11 helped him surpass Mike Bibby (775) for third in franchise history in 3-point field goals made. Hield has the most 3s by a player through their first four seasons eclipsing Damian Lillard (828) on Mar. 3 vs. Washington. In his 296th career game vs. San Antonio on Feb. 8, Hield made nine 3-point field goals to become the quickest player to reach 800 3-pointers as Stephen Curry was previously the record holder as it took him 305 career games.

Hield made 11 3-pointers on Nov. 25 at Boston, setting the single-game franchise record as he has made five-plus 3s 50 times in a game during his Kings tenure after knocking down five 3-pointers vs. Dallas on Aug. 4. Hield passed Peja Stojakovic who had 39 games with five 3s for Sacramento for the most all time in franchise history. Hield has 24 games this season with five-plus 3-point field goals made, which is the second most games with five-plus 3s in the NBA and new franchise record surpassing his franchise mark that set during the 2018-19 season. Hield is 28th all-time in games with 5+ 3s with 52 over his entire career.

WELCOME TO THE BUBBLE: The Sacramento Kings kicked off the 2020 NBA restart, falling to the San Antonio Spurs 120-129. Sacramento received big nights from their starting guards De'Aaron Fox and Bogdan Bogdanovic, as Fox set a new career-high in scoring with 39 points going 17-of-33 from the floor, which are also new career-bests. Fox added six dimes to his career-high as he became the first Kings player to record at least 35 points and five assists in a game since DeMarcus Cousins (40 points, 12 rebounds, eight assists) on Feb. 4, 2017 at the Los Angeles Lakers. This game marked the sixth time this season where Fox scored 30+ points season as his 39 points are tied for the 11th highest single-game points total through the first week and a half of games played in the NBA 2020 Restart in Orlando.

Bogdanovic added 24 points for Sacramento as he went 8-for-15 from the field as well as 6-of-11 from 3-point range.

GETTING TO THE HOOP: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox scored 26 points versus Houston on Aug. 9 for his 13th game over his last 15 games with 20+ points as he had seven straight games with at least 20 points from Feb. 20 to Mar. 5; he's scored 20+ points in four straight seeding games from Aug. 4 to Aug. 9. Fox averaged 24.5 points, 6.4 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 1.4 steals per game in 15 games since returning from the All-Star break as only four other players accrued averages of at least 24.5 points, 6.0 assists and 1.0 steals per game over that period. Fox averaged 13.2 points in the paint per game since returning from the All-Star break, which was tied for eighth in the NBA over that time as the Kings were sixth in points in the paint per game since coming back from the break, averaging 52.0 points in the paint per game in their last 18 games. Fox averaged 5.3 made free throws on 6.9 free throw attempts per game over his last 15 games, which ranked 17th and 15th respectively in the league since the All-Star break. Fox dished out at least five assists in four games from Feb. 25 to Mar. 1, marking the longest streak by a Kings player with at least 20 points and five assists since DeMarcus Cousins also had a four-game streak from Jan. 10 to Jan. 18, 2017.

MARCHING ALONG: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox got off to a strong start in March as he averaged 23.8 points, 6.0 assists, 3.6 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game in five games during March. Fox ranked 19th in the month in scoring average as he scored at least 20 points in four of the five games he's played in during March. Fox was one of nine players averaging at least 23.5 points, 5.0 assists and 1.0 steals per game in March as he as also one of 11 players with four or more 20-point performances in the month.

In March, Fox averaged 7.4 made free throws on 8.0 free throw attempts per game, which ranked third in makes and tied for sixth in attempts per game from the charity stripe. He shot .925% from the line in March as Fox had the second highest shooting percentage in March among players averaging at least five attempts from the free throw line per game.

2019-20 KINGS REGULAR SEASON NOTES

RAINING 3s FOR A WIN IN PORTLAND: The Sacramento Kings beat the Portland Trail Blazers, 123-111, at Moda Center as Sacramento made a franchise tying 21 3-pointers. The Kings scored 77 points in the first half, marking a new season-high in points for a half this season as Sacramento snapped a 12-game road losing streak to Portland; the win marked Sacramento's first in Portland since Dec. 8, 2012. Guard Bogdan Bogdanovic tied his career-high with seven 3-pointers for 27 points while guard Buddy Hield made six shots from 3-point range for 22 points.

STRONG START AFTER THE BREAK: Since returning from the All-Star break and prior to the NBA restart, the Sacramento Kings were 7-3 (.700%) after their win at Portland on Mar. 7 as they were one of six teams with at least seven wins since coming back from the break; the Kings were tied for the fourth highest winning percentage after the All-Star break prior to the restart. Sacramento recorded two three-game win-streaks over the stretch, including one from Feb. 20 to Feb. 25 and from Feb. 28 to Mar. 3. In those 10 games, the Kings averaged 114.8 points, 24.4 assists, 8.6 steals and just 12.7 turnovers per game, and are tied fourth in turnovers per game over that span. The Kings were solid defensively over the 10-game period, posting a defensive rating of 110.1 over which was 11th in the NBA during that time as opponents were averaging just 111.5 points per game as the Kings +3.3 point-differential ranked ninth in the NBA over that time. The Kings also ranked ninth in the NBA in free throws made per game since returning from the All-Star break as Sacramento is averaging 19.3 made free throws per game over that stretch.

Sacramento went 7-4 (.636) during February, which was tied with the Clippers for the seventh highest winning percentage. The Kings finished February ranked seventh in 3s (14.5), fourth in turnovers (11.4), eighth in opponent turnovers (15.6) and fifth in points off opponent turnovers (19.2) per game. The Kings knocked down 19 3-point field goals in wins over Memphis on Feb. 20, San Antonio on Feb. 8 and Miami on Feb. 7 as this marked the first time in franchise history the Kings had 19 3s or more in consecutive games; the Kings made a franchise high 21 3s on Jan. 30 at the LA Clippers.

PRODUCTION FROM THE BENCH: Since a starting lineup change on Jan. 24, Sacramento's reserves averaged 45.5 points per game, the third highest scoring average by a team's bench over that stretch. The Kings bench scored a season-best 75 points in a win at Los Angeles on Aug. 13 as well 66 points in a win at Minnesota on Jan. 27, 65 points at Orlando on Aug. 2 and 64 points at Dallas on Feb. 12. During the Kings eight seeding games, Sacramento's bench averaged 48.8 points per game, the second highest of any teams in the bubble. Sacramento's bench was been particularly productive from 3-point range since Jan. 24, as the reserves averaged 6.5 makes on 16.4 attempts per game from beyond the arc. The Kings reserves were first in 3-point field goals made per game among teams' reserves while also shooting the highest 3-point field goal percentage at .500% over that time. Sacramento's reserves also averaged 18.3 rebounds and 3.5 steals per game since Jan. 24, which is the sixth most rebounds per contest and sixth most steals per outing by a team's reserves in the NBA since that date.

Kings guard Buddy Hield was a major contributor for the reserves since coming off the bench, averaging 17.9 points per game, which is second in the NBA among reserves since Jan. 24 with at least 10 games played as his 42 points off the bench at Minnesota on Jan. 27 is the most in a single game by a reserve this season. Hield's averaging 4.1 3-point makes per game over since Jan. 24 as he is shooting .451% from long range. Hield is third in the Association in 3s per game since that date.

A PROLIFIC SCORER: With 28 points against the Los Angeles Lakers on Aug. 13, Kings guard Buddy Hield now has 99 games with 20+ points since joining the Kings during the midseason of the 2016-17 season as he posted 20+ points in six straight games from Dec. 28 to Jan. 6. Hield has the eighth most games with 20 or more points by a Kings player since the 2000-01 season, according to Basketball Reference.

After his historic 41-point game at Boston, Hield averaged 26.5 points in 10 games as he had 20+ points from Nov. 25 to Dec. 13; the 10 straight 20-point games is the longest streak of his career. The 10 consecutive games with 20+ points is the longest of his career and the longest streak by a Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins had 10 consecutive games with 20+ points from Dec. 12, 2016 to Jan. 18, 2017.

HISTORY WITH HIELD'S SCORING HIGH: Kings guard Buddy Hield had a career night off the bench in Sacramento's 133-129 win over Minnesota on Jan. 27 as he scored 42 points on 14-of-24 shooting, including nine field goals on 14 attempts to go with five rebounds and three assists. Hield's 42 points are the most by a Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins scored 46 points on Jan. 30, 2017 at Philadelphia as his nine 3-point field goals are the most by a reserve in a single game in franchise history. According to Basketball Reference, Hield is just the third player in NBA history to score 40 points or more while making nine or more field goals as a reserve along with J.R. Smith (4/13/09, 12/23/09) and Rodrigue Beaubois (3/27/10); he's one of three reserves in franchise history to score 40+ points along with Kevin Martin (1/14/08, 1/3/09) and Walt Williams (1/2/93). His 42-point performance is the highest single-game scoring total by a reserve this season. Hield's now the ninth player in franchise history with multiple 40-point games after scoring 41 at Boston on Nov. 25 and the first since DeMarcus Cousins had three games with 40+ points during the 2016-17 season.

Hield scored 20 of his 42 points in the fourth quarter alone as he went 6-for-6 from the field, including 5-of-5 from 3-point range and 3-of-3 from the charity stripe. According to Elias Sports Bureau, Hield joins Kobe Bryant (12/6/02 vs. DAL) as the only two players over the last 20 seasons to score 20 points or more in a fourth quarter while going perfect from the floor in a win where their respective team was down by 25 points or more during the game as the Kings were down by as many as 27 at Minnesota.

A COMEBACK LIKE NO OTHER: The Sacramento Kings were victorious in overtime over the Minnesota Timberwolves on Jan. 27, 133-129, despite facing a 22-point deficit with less than six minutes to go in the game. Over the last 20 seasons, Sacramento is the only team to come from behind while down by 20+ points or more at or under the six-minute mark, according to Elias Sports Bureau, and the second team this season to win a game while trailing by 22+ points at any point in the fourth quarter along with the Toronto Raptors (12/22/19 vs. DAL).

Sacramento also trailed by 17 at the 2:49 mark in the fourth quarter as they were down, 115-98. According to ESPN Stats & Info, the Kings are the first team since the 1996-97 season to come back and win a game when losing by 17+ points with three minutes or less to go in regulation; previously teams were 0-8,378 when trailing by 17+ in the final three minutes of a game. The Kings were also down by as many as 12 points with 1:15 to play and are the first team since the Houston Rockets on Dec. 4, 2009 vs. San Antonio to come back and win a game while facing a 10-point deficit or larger with a minute and fifteen seconds or less left in regulation.

The Kings have now won three games this season while facing a deficit of 20 points or more with their win over the Timberwolves, the most in the NBA this season as only the Oklahoma City Thunder have multiple 20-point comebacks this season, according to Basketball Reference. Sacramento was down 18 at halftime, 68-50, as this is the second time the Kings have won a game while facing a halftime deficit of 17 points or more; they are the only team to win two games this season when down by 17+ points or more at halftime. Sacramento's one of three teams this season to win a contest while going into the fourth quarter down by 19 points or more, joining Denver (11/8/19 vs. PHI) and Toronto (12/22/19 vs. Dallas) as the 19-point deficit to start a third quarter ties the largest in a victory in franchise history, which has now happened four times and most recently on Dec. 21, 2009 at Chicago; Sacramento trailed by as many as 35 points in the game against the Bulls.

Sacramento scored 69 points in the second half for a new season-high for the team in a half, which also included 41 points in the fourth quarter, marking a season-high for a single quarter. The Kings scored their most points in a game this season and forced the most turnovers by an opponent this season as the Timberwolves finished the night with 22 turnovers. Sacramento also finished with a season-high tying eight blocks and recorded eight blocks in consecutive games from Jan. 24 to Jan. 27 for the first time since the 2015-16 season; the Kings had two straight games with eight-plus blocks from Feb. 19 to Feb. 23, 2016

FEELS GOOD TO BE HOME: The Sacramento Kings won six straight home games from Feb. 3 to Mar. 3, their season-long home winning streak as they beat the Wizards, 133-126. Sacramento averaged 118.0 points per game during the six-game home win-streak as the Kings tied their season high in scoring and set a new season-high for points in a half with 76 points. This marked the first time the Kings scored 75+ points in a first half since Apr. 10, 2019 at Portland as the time before that came at Golden State on Apr. 1, 2009. The Kings also scored 70 points in the second half vs. San Antonio on Feb. 8 as well as 70 points in the first half against Memphis. The Kings shot .498% during the six-game home winning streak as well as .445% from beyond the arc while averaging 15.5 3-pointers per game as the team made 19 treys against the Grizzlies. Sacramento forced at least 15 turnovers in three of those six home games as the Kings also won their games vs. Memphis (20 opponent turnovers for 22 points) and vs. Miami on Feb. 7 as the Kings forced 20 turnovers and scored 31 points off of the Heat's turnovers, a new season-high in points off turnovers in a game this season as opponents averaged 16.8 turnovers per game during those home contests. Kings guard De'Aaron Fox averaged 23.3 points and 5.0 assists per game over the team's last six home games while guard Buddy Hield averaged 20.7 points per game and knocked down .467% of his field goal tries and .472% of his 3-point attempts as he is averaging just over 4.0 3-pointers per game during that time.

ANOTHER WIN IN LA: The Sacramento Kings picked up their second straight win in a 112-103 victory over the Clippers at Staples Center on Feb. 22. The win also marked the second straight over the Clippers after the Kings also beat LA on Jan. 30 at Staples Center as this marks the first time Sacramento has beaten the Clippers in consecutive games since winning three games in a row over LA from Feb. 28 to Apr. 8, 2010. Sacramento has not won the season series against the Clippers since that three-game win streak during the 2009-10 season.

ANOTHER COMEBACK WIN : The Sacramento Kings won in comeback fashion as they beat the Detroit Pistons, 106-100, on Mar. 1 despite facing a 21-point deficit. The win marked the fourth this season where Sacramento was down by at least 20 points, including their second at home; also done on Jan. 2 vs. Memphis, Jan. 7 at Phoenix and Feb 3. at Minnesota as the Kings have the most comeback victories this season when losing by at least 20 points during the win. Only Oklahoma City and Denver have had multiple come from behind wins this season when facing a 20-point deficit.

A FOXY JANUARY: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox got off to a strong start in 2020 as the third-year guard averaged 22.8 points, 7.6 assists, 4.6 rebounds and 2.2 steals per game in 14 games during January. Fox was 11th in the NBA in assists per game and tied for third in steals per game during January. Fox, 76ers guard/forward Ben Simmons and Rockets guard Russell Westbrook are the only players this month to average 20.0 points, 7.5 assists, 4.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game as Fox scored 15+ points in every game in January and had at least five assists in 13 of his 14 games during the month. With 34 points and eight assists on Jan. 30, Fox had two games during January with at least 30 points and eight assists as he's just the eighth player during the month with multiple games with 30 points and eight dimes.

Fox had a five-game streak with eight-plus assists from Jan. 10 to Jan. 20, which tied the longest streak of his career as he also had eight or more assists in five consecutive games from Dec. 19 to Dec. 27, 2018.

BARNES BURNER: Sacramento Kings forward Harrison Barnes recorded a new season-high 32 points in a win vs. Memphis on Feb. 20 as he shot 11-for-17 from the field, which included seven 3-pointers on 11 attempts. Barnes made his first seven 3-point field goal attempts as he is the first Kings player over the last 20 seasons to knock down his first seven attempts from 3-point range and he became the third player this season complete the feat.

Barnes has scored 30+ points in three games this season, which marks the most for the eighth-year forward since he had four 30-point outings during the 2017-18 season.

BUDDY'S BIG SATURDAY NIGHT: Sacramento Kings guard Buddy Hield participated in the 2020 MTN Dew 3-point Contest for the second straight year as he was the third player in franchise history to compete in multiple 3-point contests along with Assistant General Manager Peja Stojakovic (2002, 2003, 2004) and Mitch Richmond (1992, 1994). In the new format, Hield opened up the first round with a 27-point performance moving him on to the final round along with Wizards forward Davis Bertans and Suns guard Devin Booker. As the final competitor in the championship round, Hield needed to top Booker's high score of 26 points as Hield made seven of his final eight shots, including his very last attempt which he knocked down, finishing with 27 points to become the second player in franchise history to win the NBA's 3-point competition along with Stojakovic (2002, 2003).

A STRONG RETURN: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox recorded 27 points as he added 12 assists and seven rebounds vs. Dallas on Jan. 15 for another near triple-double as he had posted double-doubles in three consecutive games. After scoring a career-high tying 31 points vs. Orlando to go with 10 assists and eight rebounds, Fox is just the second Kings player in franchise history along with Reggie Theus (3/11-3/12/8) to post 25 points, 10 assists and five rebounds or better in back-to-back games. Fox is one of five players this season to record 25-10-5 in consecutive games along with Mavericks guard/forward Luka Doncic, Lakers forward LeBron James and Rockets guards James Harden and Russell Westbrook.

ATTACKING THE BASKET: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox had a career-night as he set new career-highs with 34 points and 14 made field goals while tying his career-high with 24 attempts from the field. Fox added three rebounds, eight assists, four steals and three blocks as he's one of seven players so far this season to record 30 points, eight assists and four steals; he's just one of three players along with 76ers guard/forward Ben Simmons and Timberwolves center Karl-Anthony Towns to also have two blocks with that stat line. According to Basketball Reference, Fox is just the seventh player in franchise history to post 30 points, eight assists, four steals and three blocks in a single game and the first since Chris Webber on Jan. 21, 2003 in a win versus the then New Jersey Nets.

The third-year guard scored 20 of his 34 points in the paint as he had 27 drives against the Clippers, according to NBA.com/stats, and averaged 13.7 points in the paint per game and 20.0 drives per game during January, which both ranked seventh in the NBA over that time. Fox averaged 4.7 points per game off of fast break opportunities, which was the sixth most per game during the first month of the year.

EFFICIENT FROM LONG RANGE: Kings guard Buddy Hield scored 31 points for Sacramento in their victory over the Spurs on Feb. 8 as he went 11-of-17 from the field as well as 9-for-10 from 3-point distance. This is the third game this season where Hield has made nine or more 3-point field goals in a game as nine 3s was the previous single-game franchise record coming into this season. Hield totaled 15 points in the final quarter of playing on 5-of-6 shooting, including a perfect 5-for-5 from the perimeter.

According to Basketball Reference, Hield is just the ninth player to attempt no free throws and score 30 points while making 11 or fewer shots from the field as the most recent player was Rodney Hood on Mar. 28, 2016.

BIG TIME COMEBACK: The Sacramento Kings picked up a second straight win as they defeated the Phoenix Suns on Jan. 7 despite facing a 21-point deficit with 4:50 to play in the third quarter as the Suns were leading, 80-59. Sacramento was also down 21 before a 30-8 Kings run gave them a 92-91 lead with 8:03 to go in regulation as the Kings would hold on for the victory. Sacramento closed out strong as they finished with 36 fourth quarter points while holding the Suns to just 16 points as the +20 point-differential is the largest in any period for the Kings this season.

The 21-point deficit marked the largest for the Kings in a win this season as well as the biggest second half deficit overcome since the 2016-17 season. Sacramento was down by 22 in the second half versus the Atlanta Hawks on Feb. 10, 2017 before coming from behind to pick up the victory. This is the second time this season the Kings have won a game despite being down by 20 points or more at any point in the contest after also being down by 20 points in a win over Memphis on Jan. 2. Sacramento joins the Oklahoma City Thunder as the only teams this season with two wins in games where they faced a deficit of 20+ points.

2019-20 KINGS REGULAR SEASON NOTES

SNAPPED: The Sacramento Kings beat the Memphis Grizzlies, 128-123, on Jan. 2 to snap an eight-game losing streak as the Kings upped their pace with 108.0 possessions and finished with 23 fast break points. The win marked the Kings first at Golden 1 Center since Dec. 11 as Sacramento broke a five-game home losing streak as well. Sacramento set then season-highs from the free throw line going 26-for-31 from the charity stripe as the Kings came back down 20 points as the 20-point deficit is the largest overcome by the team in a win this season.

Defensively, the Kings finished with eight blocks, tied for the most in a single-game for Sacramento as they have done it four times this season. Sacramento finished with nine steals and forced 17 turnovers as guard De'Aaron Fox collected five steals and two blocks as he now has the most steals by a Kings player in a single game this season as the third-year guard scored 27 points and added nine assists and four rebounds, including eight on fast break opportunities. Fox became just the fourth player since the 2007-08 season to post 27 points, nine assists, four rebounds, five steals and two blocks in a single game along with James Harden (3/15/19, 12/30/16), Chris Paul (11/4/16) and LeBron James (2/5/08).

WINNING WITH 3-AND-D: The Sacramento Kings picked up a win over the LA Clippers, 124-103, on Jan. 30 marking their first win against the Clippers since March 26, 2017, which was also at Staples Center. Sacramento went 44-for-88 (.500%) from the field, including 21 3-pointers on 41 attempts as the Kings set a new franchise record in 3-point field goals made; the Kings are now 6-3 this season when shooting .500% or better from the field. Sacramento totaled 15 3s in the first half against LA, which is also a new franchise record. Sacramento forced 15 turnovers and scored 23 points off of the Clippers turnovers.

DISHING OUT IN DENVER: The Sacramento Kings dished out a season-high 32 assists as Sacramento also posted a season-high in field goals made with 45. Kings guard Buddy Hield recorded a new career-high with eight assists while guard De'Aaron Fox recorded his third double-double this season with 18 points and a season-high 13 assists. Fox now has four career games with 13+ assists, which is the 11th most by a player during his career with the Kings.

SWIPA KEEPS SWIPING: Kings guard De'Aaron Fox recorded four steals on Jan. 30 at the LA Clippers as he recorded a steal in 15 straight games from Dec. 31, 2019 to Jan. 31, 2020. He's one of nine players this season with a steal in 15 consecutive games or more.

Fox was tied for second in steals per game over the 15-game stretch he averaged 2.2 steals per game over that time. The third-year guard had a three-game streak with three steals from Jan. 20 to Jan. 24 as he is one of 12 players to have three or more games with three-plus steals.

WINDY CITY WIN-STREAK: The Sacramento Kings snapped a six-game losing streak while extending their win-streak to three games over the Bulls in Chicago as they beat the Bulls, 98-81, on Jan. 24. This is just the fifth time in franchise history where the Kings won three straight games on the road against Chicago as Sacramento forced 21 turnovers and eight blocks tying a season-high in blocks. The Kings held Chicago to just 31 field goals and 81 points as they moved to 8-2 this season when holding their opponents to under 100 points; the Kings have now matched last season's total for games when holding their opponent to fewer than 100 points.

DIALED IN FROM DISTANCE: The Sacramento Kings picked up a second straight win with a 114-103 victory over the Phoenix Suns on Jan. 7 as the Kings went 15-of-36 from beyond the arc, their second straight game with 15+ 3-point field goals. This is just the fourth time in franchise history where the Kings have had 15 makes from the perimeter in consecutive games. From Jan. 2 to Jan. 7, the Kings had 12 or more 3-point field goals, which ties the longest streak in franchise history set last season from Dec. 17 to Dec. 23, 2018.

Sacramento beat the Golden State Warriors on Jan. 6, 111-98, as the Kings finished the night going 15-for-30 from beyond the arc. The game marked the second straight outing where the Kings shot .500% or better from 3-point range as eight of Sacramento's 15 treys came in the third quarter alone - eight 3s in a quarter ties a franchise record, also done on Apr. 10, 2019 in the 4th quarter at Portland. This is the first time where Sacramento had back-to-back games shooting .500% or better from 3-point range since the 2017-18 season when the Kings also did it over two games from Nov. 25 to Nov. 27, 2017.

CARDIAC KINGS WIN AGAIN: The Sacramento Kings picked up a third straight victory as they beat the Oklahoma City Thunder, 94-93. Sacramento's longest win streak of the season came after Bogdan Bogdanovic gave the Kings a go-ahead 3-point field goal to take the lead for the one-point advantage, which the Kings would hold on to at the end of regulation. The Kings are 4-3 on the season in games decided by one-point and are tied with San Antonio for the most wins in the NBA this season in those instances, according to Basketball Reference.

Sacramento had a season-low 12 assists and are just the third team this year to record a win with 12 or fewer assists along with the Oklahoma City Thunder (12/8/19 @ POR) and Houston (11/13 vs. LAC, 11/15 vs. IND). This is the first time Sacramento has won a game despite having 12 assists or less since Mar. 3, 2014 when the Kings beat New Orleans, 96-89.

A GAME-WINNER IN HOUSTON: The Sacramento Kings won against the Houston Rockets in Houston on Dec. 9, 119-118, after Kings forward Nemanja Bjelica made a 33-foot game-winner as time expired to secure the victory for Sacramento. Bjelica's game-winner is the first of the season at a distance of 33 feet or longer as the last player to hit a game winning shot from that distance of further was Jeremy Lamb (CHA at TOR, 3/24/19). According to Basketball Reference, since 2000-01 Bjelica is just the ninth player to make a shot with :01.0 second or less from 33 feet or beyond to win a game since the 2000-01 season and one of two Sacramento players as Tyreke Evans had a 50-foot game winning shot vs. Memphis on Dec. 29, 2010.

The win snaps a 10-game losing streak in Houston, the first win for Sacramento there since Dec. 31, 2013, as the 3-pointer gave the Kings 20 made 3-point field goals, tying their franchise record for the second time this season. This marked the first time since the 2001-02 season that the Kings beat both Dallas and Houston in the first road matchup of the season between each team. Sacramento beat the Rockets on Nov. 27, 2001 and followed that victory up with a win on Nov. 29, 2001 over Dallas. The Kings also tallied 14 steals in the outing, their most of the season and the most since the team recorded 16 steals at Chicago on Dec. 10, 2018.

BUDDY'S 3-POINT BARRAGE: Kings guard Buddy Hield scored a new career-high 41 points as he made a career-best 15 field goals on 26 attempts in Sacramento's 102-103 loss to Boston on Nov. 25. Hield recorded 11 3-pointers on 21 tries, setting new franchise-highs in 3-point field goals made and attempted as the fourth-year guard totaled 30 points in the second half alone. Hield also set the franchise record for makes and tied the franchise record in attempts from 3-point distance in a half as he went 8-for-12 in the final 24 minutes of play. Hield breaks the previous single-game franchise record of nine made 3-pointers by both Omri Casspi (12/28/15 at GS) and Mike Bibby (3/25/07 vs. PHX) along with Casspi's record of seven treys in a half, which Casspi set in the first half of the game against Golden State.

Hield became the 10th player in NBA history to make 11 or more 3s in a single contest and the second this season along with Bulls guard Zach LaVine who had 13 on Nov. 23. Hield is one of four players this season with 11 3s in a single game as Marcus Smart (1/18/20) and Damian Lillard (1/20/20) also had 11 made 3-pointers in a single outing. Hield has the first 40-point performance by a Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins totaled 40 points on Feb. 14, 2017 at the Los Angeles Lakers as Hield is one of three Kings players over the last 20 years to score 30+ points in a half, per Elias Sports Bureau. Over that same period, this is just the fourth 30-point half by a player as DeMarcus Cousins is the most recent Sacramento player with 30 points in a half as he had 31 points in the second half on Dec. 20, 2016 vs. Portland, according to Elias.

Hield's career-high night was sparked by 21 points in the third quarter as this is the 10th time over the past 10 seasons a player had 20+ points in a single quarter for the Kings, per Elias. Hield is just the sixth player in the last 10 seasons with 20 or more points in a lone quarter as Kings guard De'Aaron Fox is the most recent Sacramento player to complete the feat, which he did on Nov. 1, 2018 with 21 points in the third quarter at Atlanta. After finishing with over 30 points at Boston, Hield now has three consecutive games with 30+ points against the Celtics, marking the longest active streak of 30 points or better against Boston. Hield has the longest streak with 30 points against Boston during the regular season since Bucks forward Giannis Antetokounmpo had three games scoring 30 or more from Nov. 1, 2018 to Feb. 21, 2019 versus the Celtics, according to NBA.com/stats.

BUDDY BUCKETS BACK AT IT: Sacramento Kings guard Buddy Hield scored 35 points, making 14 field goals while taking 24 attempts from the field, including seven 3-pointers to go with four steals in the Kings win over Boston on Nov. 17. Hield is only the second player along with Vince Carter (4/9/05, BOS vs. NJN) to post 35 points and four steals while making seven shots from beyond the arc against the Celtics, according to Basketball Reference, and one of 19 players to ever accomplish the feat in the NBA and the first player to do so this season. The only other Kings player to post 35 points and four steals with seven 3-pointers was Kevin Martin who had 48 points and four steals with seven 3s vs. Memphis on Nov. 2, 2009.

2019-20 KINGS REGULAR SEASON NOTES

GETTING SECOND CHANCES: The Sacramento Kings recorded 31 second chance points as Sacramento recorded 52 rebounds, including a season-high 18 on the offensive end. According to NBA.com/stats, the Kings are just the fifth team this season to score 30+ points off of second chance opportunities as the 31 second points is the second most behind the Timberwolves (35, 11/8/19). This is the first time Sacramento has posted 30 or more second chance points in a single game since Mar. 17, 2013 at the Los Angeles Lakers and just the eighth time overall since the 1983-84 season. After totaling 23 points from second chance opportunities at Indiana on Dec. 20, the Kings total of 54 second chance points is the most over each team's two-game streak, according to NBA.com/stats.

The Kings received help from forward Richaun Holmes who scored 18 points and finished with 12 rebounds, including a career-high nine offensive boards as he had eight second chance points. Holmes is the first Kings player to total nine or more rebounds on the offensive end since DeMarcus Cousins who had 10 offensive rebounds on Mar. 24, 2015..

KINGS OF THE COMEBACK: The Sacramento Kings defeated the Denver Nuggets on Nov. 30, 100-97 in the team's first overtime game of the season as the Kings were down by as many 17 points, including a 17-point halftime deficit. Down 57-40 at the midway point, the Kings outscored Denver 50-33 in the second half and forced the game into overtime as Sacramento tied the game at 90 piece at the end of regulation. The tie was the first since the score was 6-6 at the 9:06 mark in the first quarter and the Kings were able to score the first basket of overtime to take their first lead of the game. Sacramento hung on to the lead as Sacramento is one of eight teams this season twin despite a 17-point halftime deficit.

The Kings were plus-17 in the second half, which marks their largest second half point-differential in a outing since Dec. 10, 2018 against Chicago; the Kings outscored the Bulls, 63-33. Sacramento was outscored by Nuggets guard Garry Harris, 18-17, in the first quarter as this marks the first time since March 30, 2019 a team was outscored by a single opponent in the opening quarter and still came out with a win, according Elias Sports Bureau. In that game, Memphis scored 23 points while Devin Booker also scored 23 with the Grizzlies winning. Last season, the Kings allowed Justin Holiday to score 11 points while Sacramento only managed nine first quarter points, but still were able to win the contest.

According to ESB, the Kings are the first team to never lead in regulation and win this season as only two others teams did so during the 2018-19 season: Houston vs. Los Angeles (1/19/19) and Orlando vs. Memphis (3/22/19).

STREAKING ON THE ROAD: The Sacramento Kings won 100-79 over the Golden State Warriors on Dec. 15 in their first trip to the Chase Center as the Kings won three consecutive road games from Dec. 8 to 15. This marked Sacramento's longest road win-streak since the Kings also won three straight games on the road from Oct. 29 to Nov. 11, 2018.

Sacramento held the Warriors to a season-low 30 field goals made as the 79 points also marks a season-low by a Kings opponent. This is the first game the Kings held an opponent to 80 points or less since an 88-80 victory at New York on Mar. 20, 2016. According to Basketball Reference, the game marked just the 10th time in franchise history that the Kings held the Warriors to 80 points or fewer in a single game as it most recently happened on Feb. 21, 2006 when Sacramento won 102-77 versus Golden State.

The Kings shot .603% from the field as Sacramento went 38-of-63, setting a season-low in field goal attempts. This is first game the Kings took 63 attempts or less from the floor and won since their 105-97 victory over Seattle on Apr. 21, 1995 when Sacramento went 32-for-61 on field goals, according to NBA.com/stats. The last time Sacramento shot over .600% from the field was on Mar. 27, 2016 when the Kings made .622% of their field goal attempts in a win vs. Dallas.

Sacramento ended the night with 29 turnovers, which is tied for a single-game high in the NBA this season as this is the second time in franchise history where the Kings had 29 turnovers and still won the ball game. The Kings also did this against Golden State on Nov. 1, 1983 when they also had 29 turnovers in a 116-114 win.

ANOTHER WIN IN DALLAS: The Sacramento Kings defeated the Dallas Mavericks, 110-106, snapping a three-game road losing streak which at the time extended their win-streak over Dallas to four games. The four straight victories over the Mavericks is the longest by Sacramento since the Kings also won four in a row versus Dallas from Apr. 24, 1999 to Mar. 6, 2000. Sacramento has now won five straight games on the road against the Mavs dating back to Oct. 20, 2017 as the Kings extended their franchise long streak of consecutive wins in Dallas.

Sacramento's victory came behind a career night from forward Nemanja Bjelica who set career-highs going 13-of-18 from the field as he tied his career-high in scoring with 30 points. Guard Buddy Hield also helped the Kings in the win finishing with 26 points on 10-of-15 shooting as the two are the first pair of Kings players to score 25+ points and make at least two-thirds of their field goals attempts on the road since Eddie Johnson and Otis Thorpe on Mar. 31, 1987 at Seattle.

A NIGHT OF CAREER-HIGHS: The Sacramento Kings won their fourth straight home game and second game in a row overall as they defeated the Phoenix Suns, 120-116, on Nov. 19. Sacramento Kings guard Bogdan Bogdanovic scored a career-high 31 points and made a career-high 11 field goals, which included a career-best seven 3-pointers while also adding seven assists, four rebounds and three steals. Bogdanovic is one of five players in NBA history to post 30 points, five assists and three steals while making seven or more 3s as a reserve, according to Basketball Reference, and the first player in franchise history to record 30 points, five assists and three steals off the bench in a single game.

Forward Richaun Holmes finished with 20 points and 15 rebounds and a career-best 12 defensive rebounds while guard Cory Joseph dished out a career-high 14 assists.

ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE: Kings forward Richaun Holmes collected a career-high 18 rebounds as he scored 20 points for his third straight double-double dating back to Dec. 21 at Memphis. Holmes is the first Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins (1/28/17 at CHA) to total 20 points and 18 rebounds or better in a single game and just the third Kings player since the 2010-11 season as Jason Thompson also completed the feat on Jan. 17, 2015.

Holmes has posted 20 points and 15 rebounds in two games this season, which is the most by a Kings player since DeMarcus Cousins had seven games with 20-15.

HISTORICAL START TO THE SEASON: The Sacramento Kings joined the Indiana Pacers to become the first NBA teams to play in India as the two teams faced-off in Mumbai, India at the NCSI Dome on Oct. 4 and 5. The games marked the first contests in the country by a North American sports league. Sacramento visited Sacramento Kings Chairman, CEO and Governor Vivek Ranadivé's hometown as Ranadivé is the NBA's first Indian-born majority owner.

"The Sacramento Kings are proud to be playing in the first NBA games ever held in India. As an Indian-American, it is an honor to help bring this historic moment to the country where I was raised. The sport is experiencing tremendous growth in India and we are excited about continuing to expand the NBA's reach to fans across the globe. The world wants to watch basketball and India is a fast-growing new frontier." - Ranadivé

The NBA opened its first office in India in Mumbai in 2011 and basketball is the second-fastest growing sport in India behind soccer among both boys and girls according to the Basketball Federation of India. Sacramento's initial outing against the Pacers will take place in front of 3,000 boys and girls from over 70 schools across Mumbai as part of The Reliance Foundation Jr. NBA program, which was launched in 2013 and has engaged more than 10 million youth, including reaching more than 6.5 million youth.
