CALL IT A COMEBACK: Los Angeles has won 11 games this season after trailing by 10 or more points, highlighted by a season-best 20-point comeback on March 12 in Chicago to defeat the Bulls, 123-107. Overall, the Lakers have won five games by double figures after trailing by at least 10 points in the contest. Earlier this season, the Lakers became just the second team in the shot-clock era (since 1954-55) to win back-to-back games by double digits when trailing by 10+ at the end of the first quarter (joining the 2017-18 Warriors) following wins on November 30 vs. Dallas (114-103) and December 2 vs. Phoenix (120-96).

A RARITY FOR RONDO: Lakers guard Rajon Rondo recorded his first triple-double with the team on March 4 against the LA Clippers, finishing with a season-high 24 points (10-18 FG), 10 rebounds and 12 assists.

- With the performance, he joined Mark Jackson as the only players in NBA history to record a triple-double with five different teams, having also done so with Boston, Sacramento, Chicago and New Orleans
- It was Rondo's 32nd career triple-double, ranking 11th in NBA history, and he trails only Russell Westbrook, LeBron James and James Harden among active players
- The Lakers became the first team this season to have three different players record a triple-double, as LeBron James (six) and Lonzo Ball have also done so
