THIS DATE IN MAGIC HISTORY – MAY 9...

May 9, 2011 – Dwight Howard, winner of the last three Kia NBA Defensive Player of the Year Awards, headlined the NBA All-Defensive First Team. Howard totaled 56 points overall, including 27 First Team votes. Howard earned the 2010-11 Kia NBA Defensive Player of the Year Award, becoming the first player to win the award three straight seasons. He led the league with 66 double-doubles, while ranking second in rebounds (14.1 rpg) and fourth in blocks (2.38 bpg). He recorded at least 1,000 rebounds and 100 blocked shots for the sixth straight year; since blocked shots were officially tracked in 1973-74, only Moses Malone has done it more (seven seasons). With Howard manning the middle, the Magic allowed 93.5 ppg, ranking fourth in that category.

May 9, 2006 – Grant Hill was named the 2006 recipient of the Magic Johnson award, presented annually by the Professional Basketball Writers Association. The award honors an NBA player who combines excellence on the court with outstanding cooperation with the media and, by extension, the fans.

May 9, 2002 – After yet another fantastic season, Orlando's Tracy McGrady finished fourth in one of the most highly competitive Most Valuable Player votes in league history.

May 9, 1989 – Orlando's first exhibition schedule was announced. It featured eight games in six cities.

MAGIC TOGETHER...

On Aug. 7, the Orlando Magic clinched a berth into the 2020 NBA Playoffs...The Magic have advanced to the playoffs 16 times during their relatively short 31-year history...The Magic have won six division championships (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019) and made two NBA Finals appearances after capturing Eastern Conference titles in 1995 and 2009...During their first trip in 1995, Orlando became the second-fastest team in NBA history to reach the Finals in just its sixth year of existence.

Orlando advanced to the playoffs for the first time in eight years in back-to-back seasons (since 2010-11 and 2011-12, which capped off six straight appearances).

CLIFF NOTES...

Steve Clifford became the 14th head coach in Orlando Magic history on May 30, 2018, bringing more than 30 years of coaching experience at the NBA and collegiate levels, including helping the Magic to the 2009 NBA Finals as an assistant coach...He spent five seasons as an assistant in Orlando from 2007-12...Clifford recorded his 200th career NBA head coaching regular season victory on Nov. 5, 2018 vs. Cleveland...Clifford has compiled a 292-340 (.462) record (196-214 (.478) with Charlotte from 2013-18; 96-126 (.432) record with Orlando).

MAGIC TRICKS – 600

Steve Clifford coached in his 600th regular season NBA game on Mar. 1 vs. Dallas.

MAGIC TRICKS – CHALLENGE ACCEPTED!

Last season, the NBA implemented the Coach’s Challenge, which allows a head coach to trigger one instant replay review per game of a called foul, called out-of-bounds violation or called goaltending/basket interference violation.

Orlando is 16-of-24 (.667) this season on Coach’s Challenge attempts...Last season, the Magic were 15-of-27 (.556).

HOMELAND...

Orlando is 11-24 this season at the Amway Center...The Magic were 18-17 last season in home games (16-15 at the Amway Center, 2-2 during the NBA Restart at Disney)...Orlando has gone 198-225 (.468) at the Amway Center since it opened in 2010-11...The Magic closed Amway Arena after 2009-10 with an all-time record of 535-309 (.634) in that building.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN...

Orlando is 10-22 this season on the road...The Magic were 15-23 last season in road games (14-20 in true road games, 1-3 during the NBA Restart at Disney).

OFFENSIVE BEHAVIOR...

The Orlando Magic are averaging 104.2 ppg. (6,983 points)...The Magic have scored 100+ points 41 times (20-21 record), 110+ points 22 times (14-8 record) and 120+ points seven times (6-1 record), including a season-high 130 points on Dec. 26 @ Washington...Last season, Orlando averaged 107.3 ppg. (7,831 points).

Orlando is shooting .430 (2,574-5,985) from the floor...The Magic have shot 50 percent or better six times (6-0 record), including a season-high .519 (42-81) on Feb. 5 vs. Chicago...Last season, the Magic shot .444 (2,871-6,468) from the field and shot 50 percent or better 11 times (10-1 record).

ABOUT THE ORLANDO MAGIC AND AMWAY CENTER...

Orlando's NBA franchise since 1989, the Magic's mission is to be world champions on and off the court, delivering legendary moments every step of the way. Under the DeVos family's ownership, the Magic have seen great success in a relatively short history, winning six division championships (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019) with seven 50-plus win seasons and capturing the Eastern Conference title in 1995 and 2009. Off the court, on an annual basis, the Orlando Magic gives more than $2 million to the local community by way of sponsorships of events, donated tickets, autographed merchandise and grants. Orlando Magic community relations programs impact an estimated 100,000 kids each year, while a Magic staff-wide initiative provides more than 7,000 volunteer hours annually. In addition, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) which serves at-risk youth, has distributed more than $25 million to local nonprofit community organizations over the last 30 years. The Magic's other entities include the team's NBA G League affiliate, the Lakeland Magic, which began play in the 2017-18 season in nearby Lakeland, Fla.; the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL, which serves as the affiliate to the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning; and Magic Gaming, of the NBA 2K League, which began play in the spring of 2018. The Magic play their home games at the award-winning Amway Center, honored with TheStadiumBusiness Awards' 2013 Customer Experience Award and named SportsBusiness Journal's 2012 Sports Facility of the Year. Tickets for the 2020-21 regular season will be made available to the general public on a game-by-game basis. For more information, call (407) 89-MAGIC or log on to OrlandoMagic.com/tickets.

The Orlando Magic served as the developer of the Amway Center, which hosts major national events, concerts and family shows. Opened in the fall of 2010, the facility is owned and operated by the City of Orlando on behalf of the Central Florida community. The Amway Center was designed to reflect the character of the community, meet the goals of the users and build on the legacy of sports and entertainment in Orlando. The building's exterior features a modern blend of glass and metal materials, along with ever-changing graphics via a monumental wall along one facade. A 180-foot tall tower serves as a beacon amid the downtown skyline. The 875,000-square foot, Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold certified building features a sustainable, environmentally-friendly design and unmatched technology, including 1,100 digital monitors, the tallest high-definition video board in an NBA venue and multiple premium amenities available to all patrons in the building. Amway Center was honored with TheStadiumBusiness Awards' 2013 Customer Experience Award and named SportsBusiness Journal's 2012 Sports Facility of the Year. MAGIC TRICKS – GBAC STAR™ FACILITY ACCREDITATION

On Dec. 16, the Global Biorisk Advisory Council (GBAC), a division of the International Sanitary Supply Association (ISSA), the worldwide cleaning industry association, announced that Amway Center has earned its GBAC STAR™ Facility Accreditation following a comprehensive 20-element program...This certification serves as the gold standard for venues and the program is designed to help facilities establish and maintain detailed best practices, protocols and procedures on cleaning, disinfection and infectious disease prevention associated with infectious agents like COVID-19...In order to achieve GBAC STAR™ accreditation, the Amway Center completed a rigorous performance-based program with specific guidance criteria that allows the arena to:

- Establish and maintain a cleaning, disinfection and infectious disease prevention program to control and/or minimize risk associated with infectious agents such as SARSCoV-2 (responsible for COVID-19 disease) for employees, customers, the community and the environment.
- Provide assurance and establish confidence that proper cleaning, disinfection and infectious disease prevention work practices are in place and implemented.
- Establish a framework for communication and raising awareness of best practices as they relate to cleaning, disinfection and infectious disease prevention.

Sanitization protocols will be an ongoing standard of practice during live events with or without guests physically present, as well as on days when no events are scheduled.

HEAD COACH'S BIO:

Steve Clifford

Overall Record:	292-340 (.462)	Record with Orlando:	96-126 (.432)
Overall Playoff Record:	5-16 (.238)	Playoff Record w/ Orlando:	2-8 (.200)
Seasons in League:	8th	Seasons with Orlando:	3rd

Steve Clifford became the 14th head coach in Orlando Magic history on May 30, 2018...Brings more than 30 years of coaching experience at the NBA and collegiate level, including helping lead the Magic to the 2009 NBA Finals as an assistant coach...Returned to Orlando after spending the previous five seasons (2013-18) as head coach of the Charlotte Hornets...Compiled a record of 196-214 (.478) and led Charlotte to the NBA Playoffs in two of his first four seasons at the helm after the team qualified for the postseason just once in the previous 10 seasons...Recorded his 200th career NBA head coaching victory on Nov. 5, 2018 vs. Cleveland...Coached in his 600th career NBA game on Mar. 1, 2021 vs. Dallas.

During his first season at the helm of the Magic, guided Orlando to a 42-40 record (.512), a 17-win improvement, which was the largest turnaround in the NBA and the second-biggest improvement in franchise history...The Magic clinched a berth into the 2019 NBA Playoffs for the first time since 2012 and captured the Southeast Division title, the franchise's first since 2009-10...During his second campaign (2019-20), he once again led the Magic to the NBA Playoffs, marking the first time in eight years that Orlando advanced to postseason play in back-to-back seasons (since 2010-11 and 2011-12).

A native of Island Falls, Maine, arrived in Charlotte after spending the 2012-13 season as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Lakers, first under Mike Brown and then under Mike D'Antoni...Prior to the Lakers, spent five seasons as an assistant coach with Orlando from 2007-12...As a member of Stan Van Gundy's staff, helped the Magic to a 259-135 record (.657) and five straight playoff appearances, including a trip to the 2009 NBA Finals...The team won 50 games or more in four straight seasons from 2007-11, winning three consecutive Southeast Division titles (2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10).

Before going to Orlando, spent four seasons as an assistant coach under Jeff Van Gundy with the Houston Rockets from 2003-07...Began his NBA career with the New York Knicks, serving as the team's advance scout in 2000-01 before moving to the bench as an assistant coach from 2001-03.

Prior to the NBA, spent 15 years coaching at the collegiate level, including four years as head coach at Adelphi University in Garden City, New York from 1995-99, where he posted a record of 86-36 (.705) and led the school to four straight 20-win seasons, becoming the first coach in school history to record consecutive 20-win campaigns, and four straight appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament...His winning percentage remains the second-best of the 12 head coaches in the program's 65-year history.

Began his college coaching career at Saint Anselm College in New Hampshire, where he spent four seasons as an assistant coach...Then served as an assistant coach for one year at Fairfield University, four seasons at Boston University and one season at Siena University before becoming the head coach at Adelphi...Also spent one season as an assistant coach at East Carolina University in 1999-2000 before moving to the NBA.

His first coaching experience came at Woodland High School in Maine, where he coached for two seasons after graduating from the University of Maine at Farmington with a degree in special education...Played four years for the Beavers, being named Best Defensive Player in his final two seasons while serving as team captain.

MEET THE MAGIC

COLE ANTHONY – Twitter: @The_ColeAnthony

Born in Portland, OR, and moved to New York City as a young child, he is the son of Crystal McCrary and former NBA player Greg Anthony. He was the MVP of both the McDonald's All-American Game and the Jordan Brand Classic in 2019. Meet Cole Anthony.

DWAYNE BACON – Twitter: N/A

A native of Lakeland, FL, he was a McDonald's All-American in 2015 and won the Slam Dunk contest. While at Florida State University, he was honored for his work in the community by the ACC with the league's Top 6 for Service Award. He volunteered with Special Olympics and the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. Meet Dwayne Bacon.

MO BAMBA – Twitter: @TheRealMoBamba

Born in Harlem, NY, his parents are both originally from the Ivory Coast. He earned both McDonald's and Jordan Brand All-American honors while in high school, and was one of five finalists for the Naismith National High School Player of the Year in 2016-17. His 7'10" wingspan was the largest ever measured during the NBA Draft Combine. Meet Mo Bamba.

WENDELL CARTER JR. – Twitter: @wendellcarter34

While a senior at Pace Academy in Atlanta, Georgia, he claimed the Lance and Shield Award as the school's top scholar-athlete. When making his collegiate decision, he chose Duke over Harvard. His father played professional basketball in the Dominican Republic after a collegiate career at Delta State, while his mother played at the University of Mississippi. Meet Wendell Carter Jr.

MICHAEL CARTER-WILLIAMS – Twitter: @mcarterwilliams

An honor roll student at St. Andrew's School in Barrington, Rhode Island, he was on the same AAU team as fellow NBA player Nerlens Noel. He was named a McDonald's All-American in 2011 with current teammate Khem Birch. He and his wife, Tia, have a daughter, Charleigh. Meet Michael Carter-Williams.

JAMES ENNIS III – Twitter: @JamesDa_Truth

A native of Ventura, CA, he is the son of James Ennis and Denise Taylor. He has a cousin, Lorenzo Booker, who played four seasons as a running back in the NFL. He majored in African studies while at Long Beach State. In high school, he won the Western State Conference and Southern California Regional championships in the high jump, clearing 6'11". He also played soccer growing up and enjoys skateboarding and rollerblading. Meet James Ennis III.

MARKELLE FULTZ – Twitter: @MarkelleF

Born in Upper Marlboro, Maryland, he played high school basketball at legendary DeMatha High School in Maryland. As a sophomore, he was on the junior varsity team. The following season, as a junior, his game exploded, averaging 16.5 ppg. on the varsity and was named the Washington Catholic Athletic Conference Player of the Year. As a senior, he led DeMatha to the Maryland Private School League Championship. Meet Markelle Fultz.

R.J. HAMPTON – Twitter: @RjHampton14

After dominating at Little Elm High School in Little Elm, Texas, he originally intended to play college basketball in 2019-20 after reclassifying into the 2019 high school recruiting class. He then spent the 2019-20 season in Australia, playing with the New Zealand Breakers of the NBL. He won gold medals with USA Basketball at the 2017 FIBA U-16 Americas Championship and the 2018 FIBA U-17 Basketball World Cup. Meet R.J. Hampton.

GARY HARRIS – Twitter: @thats_G

His mother, Joy (Holmes), was a four-year letter winner at Purdue from 1988-91, where she still ranks seventh in school history with 1,747 points. She played in the WNBA with the Detroit Shock in 2000, as well as Seattle and Nashville in the American Basketball League. Meet Gary Harris.

JONATHAN ISAAC – Twitter: @JJudahIsaac

Born in Bronx, New York, he was raised with his six siblings: an older sister, Kalilah, two older brothers, Jacob and Joel, and two younger brothers, Winston and Jeremiah. He competed in the Jordan Brand All-American Game and the USA Basketball Junior National Select Game. He spent his last season of high school at the IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida prior to committing to Florida State University to continue his career. He turned pro at the age of 19 after he was drafted in the 2017 Draft in the first round (6th overall) by the Magic. Meet Jonathan Isaac.

CHUMA OKEKE – Twitter: @chuma_okeke

A native of Atlanta, GA, his full first name, Chukwuma, means "God knows." His father, Chuka, is from Nigeria. As a junior at Westlake High School, he led them to the Class 6A Georgia State championship and was named Mr. Basketball in Georgia as a senior. Meet Chuma Okeke.

OTTO PORTER JR. – Twitter: N/A

Born in St. Louis, Missouri, has a sister, Brittany and a brother, Jeffrey. Enjoys bike riding in his spare time. Lists his father, Otto Sr., as the most influential person in his athletic career. He won three state championships while at Scott County Central High School in Sikeston, Missouri. During the championship game as a senior, he tallied 29 points and 35 rebounds, breaking his father's school record for most career rebounds. Meet Otto Porter Jr.

TERRENCE ROSS – Twitter: @TerrenceRoss

A native of Portland, Oregon, he was named the Oregon 5A Player of the Year as a sophomore in 2008 after leading Jefferson High School to the state championship. His high school teammate was 2012 first round draft pick Terrence Jones. After high school, he attended the University of Washington, where he played two seasons and earned First Team All-PAC 12 honors as a sophomore. He was drafted in the first round (8th overall) in the 2012 NBA Draft by the Toronto Raptors, where he played in 73 games during his rookie campaign. In 2013, he captured the Sprite Slam Dunk Contest at the NBA All-Star Weekend in Houston. While in Toronto, he sponsored a ticket program with LAMP Community Health Centre youth basketball programs. Meet Terrence Ross.
