PLAYERS ON THE AIR

Tonight’s game will be televised on Altitude with Chris Marlowe and Scott Hastings. Jason Kosnicki, the voice of the Nuggets will call the game on Altitude Radio 92.5.

RECENT TRANSACTIONS

The Nuggets were led by Nikola Jokic with 28 points and 10 rebounds. Jamal Murray had 21 points and six assists. Bones Hyland added 17 points, three rebounds and three assists. The Nuggets cruised to the win.

The Nuggets beat the New York Knicks at home on Tuesday night, extending their winning streak to three games. It was all Denver from the jump as they opened the game well on both ends, they went 5-11 from long range and dished out seven assists on 12 made field goals, and despite seven turnovers they forced six for the Magic and held Orlando to 25-21 shooting and only 14 points to lead by 15 early. The Nuggets went cold offensively in the second, but their defense was able to help them keep their lead, they forced six more turnovers for five points and grabbed five offensive rebounds to take a 13-point lead into halftime.

Nikola Jokic and Jeff Green each scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Nuggets did not relinquish their lead, they got to the free throw line nine times making eight, outscoring the Magic by two. The Nuggets controlled most of the fourth quarter and despite giving up 41 points their lead was enough to win by 10.

GAME-CHANGERS: The Nuggets were led by Nikola Jokic who had 26 points, 15 rebounds and seven assists. Jeff Green added 17 points, three rebounds and three assists. The Magic were led by Wendell Carter Jr. who had 25 points and 12 rebounds.

The Nuggets beat the Toronto Raptors on the road on the second night of a back-to-back, moving their record to 31-25. It was all Nikola Jokic in the first quarter as he controlled the game from the tip, he posted 18 points on 6-8 shooting and the Nuggets grabbed 16 rebounds, holding the Raptors to 25 points an led 31-25 early. Toronto asserted themselves in the second quarter and found a rhythm, they forced five turnovers for 10 points and held Denver to 25 points and the Nuggets shot just 8-17 from the field and went into halftime trailing by one. It was a back and forth second half and the third quarter was no different, the Nuggets got hot from deep, going 6-16 from three and were able to hang around, the Raptors forced four more turnovers and led by three headed to the fourth. It came down to the wire in the fourth quarter, Jokic scored seven points down the stretch and made the biggest play of the game blocking the game winning layup at time expired.

REBOUNDING = SUCCESS
The Nuggets returned home to Ball Arena in their final home game before the All-Star break and they didn’t disappoint the home fans, beating the Orlando Magic 121-111. Denver had all five starters score in double figures, winning 28 of the last 32 games when that has occurred. The Nuggets also outrebounded the Magic 52-42, moving to 22-8 on the season when they outrebound an opponent.

The 52 total rebounds were significant, as it marked the fifth straight game the Nuggets have grabbed 50+ rebounds (4-1). It is the longest streak with 50+ boards since April 1991 and the second longest all-time in franchise history (six games in a row, done November 1976).

TRAVELING DEFENSE
The Nuggets have played a Western Conference leading 31 road games as of 2/12 and they added to their win total, taking down the Toronto Raptors 110-109 on February 12th. The Nuggets defense held strong in the second half allowing 52 points including a game sealing Nikola Jokic block as time expired. For the game, they held the Raptors to 48.9% shooting from the field.

Denver is quietly building an impressive road streak, the win against the Raptors marked the 17th road game in which the Nuggets have held their opponent to under 50% shooting from the field. It marks the second longest streak in franchise history, with the longest stretching 37 games done from 11/30/93-11/11/94.

TALE OF TWO HALVES
The Nuggets snapped their three-game losing streak with a 124-104 victory over the Brooklyn Nets on 2/6. The story of the game was how the Nuggets flipped in the second half and looked like a new team from the first half. After allowing 75 points in the first half, Denver held Brooklyn to just 29 points in the second half. It was a season-low allowed by Denver in the second half and the first time doing so since 12/9/13 at WAS. It also marked the 11th time in franchise history holding an opponent to 29 or fewer points in the second half.

The Nuggets also handed out 37 assists, their second most this season, and are now 25-9 when having 25+ assists and 11-4 when dishing out 30+ assists this season.

FIVE STRAIGHT TO END JANUARY
The Nuggets continued their winning ways on the road on their current six game road trip. Denver took down the Milwaukee Bucks 136-100 on 1/30, winning their fifth straight game. It also marked their fourth straight win on the road, the longest streak since winning six in a row in February/March 2021. The Nuggets made 23 threes in the game, tying for the third most made in team history and had nine players knock down at least one 3FG. Denver is now 35-15 when making at least 20 threes in a game.

They also dished out 39 assists, the 40th time in team history with that many (just 11th since 1991, 11-18 in those game). The Nuggets end January with 11 wins, their fourth straight year with 11+ wins in January. In the first 42 years in team history, Denver had a total of 11+ wins in January only six times.

BENCH GOES, WE GO
It's no coincidence that when the Nuggets bench plays well, that usually means good things. They did exactly that on 1/26 at BKN, helping Denver secure a 124-118 road win. The second unit accounted for 51 points, marking the fifth time this season that the bench has had 50+ points in game and the third time in last eight games.

Austin Rivers led the way for the second unit, putting up a season-high 25 points on 8-11 FG’s and 7-10 3FG’s and two steals in 26 minutes. Rivers became the first Nuggets reserve since Will Barton (3/16/17) to make 7+ threes in a game and the first to do so on the road since J.R. Smith in 2010.

GOING STREAKING
The Nuggets finally have their first extended home stand of the season and so far, they have made the most of it. Denver has won seven of eight games on their current eight game home stretch, the longest streak in team history. Denver also handed out 37 assists, their second most this season, and are now 25-9 when dishing out 30+ assists.

The Nuggets also had a season-high tying 35 assists against the Lakers, followed by 31 assists against the Clippers on 1/19, improving to 9-2 when handing out 30+ assists and 19-6 when having 25+ assists in a game. It also marked the third straight game Denver had 35+ assists, the first time doing that since December 1990.

GETTING BIZZY WITH IT
When Bones Hyland is playing well, that usually means the Nuggets are succeeding and that was exactly the case vs. LAL on 1/1. The rookie had the best game of his career, posting career-highs in points (27), rebounds (10), minutes played (34), field-goal attempts (15), three-point field goals (6), three-point attempts (10) and tied career-highs in steals (2), field goals (8), free throws (5) and free throw attempts (5). It also marked Hyland’s first career double-double.

Hyland is the only rookie in the NBA this season to post 27+ points, 10+ rebounds, 2+ assists and 2+ steals ... The Nuggets are now 9-0 when Hyland scores 10+ points. Finally, Bones joins Will Barton and Wilson Chandler as just the third Nugget to come off the bench and post 27+ points with 6+ made three-pointers.

SECOND UNIT STEPS UP
The Nuggets bench hasn’t been a strong suit for Denver this season with lineups being interchanged often due to injuries or COVID protocols. However, the bench was fantastic on 1/13 vs. Portland helping the Nuggets cruise to a 140-108 home victory. The 140 points marked a season-high and it was the first time scoring 140+ points in a non-overtime game since scoring 146 vs. the Pelicans on 11/17/17. The bench was led by Facundo Campazzo who posted 18 points (7-10 FG, 3-6 3FG), a season-high tying 12 assists and four steals in 27 minutes for his second double-double of the year.

Campazzo became just the fifth reserve in the NBA since 1980-81 to have 18+ points, 12+ assists and 4+ steals, joining Mike Gale, Clyde Drexler, Brevin Knight and Jrue Holiday. The other strong performance from the second unit came from Bones Hyland who posted 17 points (6-12 FG, 5-8 3FG), four rebounds and three assists in 23 minutes Bones has proven to be a key to the Nuggets success as they are now 8-0 this season when Bones scores 10+ points.

YEAH BABBYYYYY
Austin Rivers tenure in Oklahoma City years ago was minimal, as he never suited up for the Thunder after being included in a trade and later waived. But Rivers had his best game of the season at OKC on 1/9. He helped the Nuggets win 99-95, as he posted a season-high 22 points (8-13 FG’s, 6-9 3FG’s), a season-high tying five rebounds and one assist in 30 minutes.

It was the fifth time this season a reserve has scored 20+ for the Nuggets (done by five different players). Rivers was on fire from long distance, connecting on six threes, making at least one each quarter. Denver is now 35-7 all time when a bench player makes six or more threes in game.
FACUNDO THE MAGICIAN
The pride of Cordoba, Argentina saw his second start of the season at Houston on 1/1 due to a COVID depleted team. Campazzo dazzled on the court all night, leading the Nuggets in multiple categories, helping them win 124-111 for their third straight road victory. Campazzo finished with a career-high 22 points (7-11 FG’s, 3-5 3FG’s), a career-high tying 12 assists, a career-high tying five steals and four rebounds in 34 minutes. He had an historic night, becoming the first Nuggets guard with 22+ points, 10+ assists and 5+ steals in a game since Allen Iverson in 2008.

FACU/MONTE MAGIC
Facundo Campazzo and Monte Morris have both stepped up when the Nuggets have needed them. They are a big reason why Denver has been able to stay afloat early in the season while getting hit with a serious injury bug. Campazzo and Morris helped lead the Nuggets to a 133-115 road victory over the Atlanta Hawks on 12/17. Denver had a season-high 35 assists and had six players score in double figures.

MATINEE AT THE MECCA
The Nuggets seven game road trip rolled along with an afternoon contest against the New York Knicks on 12/4. Denver got their second win of the trip, in blowout fashion, winning wire-to-wire 113-99. It marked the 13th win in the last 14 meetings against the Knicks. The Nuggets were led by Nikola Jokić who had 32 points, 11 rebounds and five assists in just 27 minutes, the Joker helped put the game away by having a 15-point third quarter. The bench unit was led by Zeke Nnaji’s career night, who finished with a career-high 21 points (7-3 FG’s, 5-9 3FG’s), eight rebounds and two steals in a career-high 34 minutes.

Denver made 20 three’s in the game, tying for the fifth most in Nuggets history, with all nine players who attempted one making at least one.

BACK ON TRACK
The Nuggets went through one of their roughest patches in recent years, losing six straight games but quickly put a stop to that streak in South Beach on 11/29. Nikola Jokić returned to action after missing four games due to right wrist sprain and it made all the difference, leading the Nugget to a 120-111 win. It was a balanced scoring attack for Denver as seven players scored 10+ points. But the big man led the way, posting 24 points on 9-14 shooting, 15 rebounds and seven assists in 33 minutes.

The Nuggets are now 47-10 all time when the Joker gets 15+ rebounds. Jokić has four games this season with 24+ points, 15+ rebounds and 7+ assists, while the rest of the NBA have combined for four such games.

SUB 100 CLUB
The Nuggets defense has been elite, especially in the Mile High City and it was on full display during the Nuggets five game homestand. Denver went 5-0 at Ball Arena, capped by a 124-95 victory over the Portland Trail Blazers on 11/14. Denver held Portland to just 95 points, the 10th time the Nuggets have held their opponent to under 100 points this season (9-1), the most in the NBA. It also marked the first time in franchise history they swept a five game homestand and held each opponent to under 100 points.

To start the season, the Nuggets held all eight opponents at home to under 100 points (7-0 at home). It was the longest such streak at home since March 2005.

BARTON GETTING BUCKETS
Missing three starters due to injury and suspension, the Nuggets needed the next man to step up against the Indiana Pacers and Will Barton did just that. Barton recorded a season-high 30 points (11-19 FG, 6-9 3FG), six rebounds, three assists and two steals in 34 minutes, leading the Nuggets to a third straight win.

It was Barton’s first career game with 30+ points, 6+ rebounds, 3+ assists and 2+ steals and marks the eighth time in his career he has scored 30+ points (6-2). Over his last nine games he has been on fire from long range, going 37-92 (.402) from beyond the arc.

BACK-2-BACK GAME DOMINANCE
The Nuggets overcame a tough back-to-back schedule as they traveled late into the night to Minnesota on 10/29 after defeating the Mavericks at home. Arriving at the hotel at 4am, Denver responded, taking down the Timberwolves 93-91, winning their 12th straight game against Minnesota. Denver has responded well over the last several seasons when it comes to back-to-backs, since 2018-19 the Nuggets hold a 28-11 record on no rest, the best record in the NBA over that span.

Once again, the defense was astounding, holding Minnesota to 91 points, and they now have held their opponent under 100 in five of six games to start the season for the second time in franchise history. The Nuggets currently hold the #1 rated defense in the league, allowing 96.8 points per game and 42.7% field goal shooting.

D* IN DENVER
It was a defensive showcase for the Nuggets against the Dallas Mavericks at Ball Arena on 10/29, as Denver defeated Dallas 106-75, moving their record to 3-2. It was one of the best defensive games for the Nuggets in years, allowing only 75 points - the fewest in a game since 1/6/16 (74 vs. Minnesota) and the 26th time in franchise history they held an opponent to 75 points or less.

The Nuggets also held Dallas to 29.9% shooting from the field, the first time an opponent shot under 30% from the field since 2/27/09 vs. LAL (28-94, 298 FG%). The Mavericks scored just 31 points in the second half, and had only two players score in double figures, the fewest Denver has allowed since 12/22/19 at LAL.

JOKER AND WILT

Snapping their three-game losing streak was the goal as the Nuggets took on the Brooklyn Nets on 2/6 and they did exactly that, winning 124-104. Nikola Jokic registered 27 points (12-15 FG), 12 rebounds, 10 assists and two steals in 30 minutes for his league leading 14th triple-double of the year. With his 12 made field goals, Jokic passed Byron Beck for sixth all-time in franchise history in total made field goals (3,684) and the Nuggets are now 54-17 all-time and 34-8 in home games when Jokic has a triple double.

Jokic also joins Willy Chamberlain as the only players in NBA history with multiple 25+ point triple doubles on 80% shooting. As well, Jokić now trails Chamberlain by only seven for the most triple doubles by a center in NBA history.

JANUARY TO REMEMBER

Nikola Jokic had one of the best months of his career in January and was rewarded for the stellar play. He was named the Western Conference Player of the Month on February 2nd for games played in January, winning the award for the first time this season and the third time in his career, tying Carmelo Anthony and Alex English for most Player of the Month honors in franchise history.

Jokic averaged 26.6 points, 13.2 rebounds, 9.0 assists and 1.43 steals while shooting .606 from the field, .431 from three-point range and .860 from the charity stripe in 16 games. He helped lead the Nuggets to an 11-5 record in the month, including a season-long five-game winning streak.

He also recorded seven triple-doubles in January and is one of just five players in NBA history to have seven-or-more in a single month (Westbrook, Robertson, Chamberlain, Jordan). He registered two 20-point/20-rebound games, had a double-double in 15 games and scored 25+ points in seven straight, the longest streak by a Nugget since Anthony in 2010. For the month, Jokić ranked first in the NBA in total rebounds, second in assists, third in total points and third in field goals made.

STARTING IN CLEVELAND

For the fourth straight season, Nikola Jokic will represent the city of Denver at the NBA All-Star game. Jokic was selected as a starter for the game held on Sunday, Feb. 20 at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland. It is Jokić’s fourth straight All-Star selection, and second consecutive year being named an All-Star Starter. He joins Alex English and David Thompson as the only Nugget players to be selected to start in consecutive All-Star games and is just the third Nuggets player ever to be selected to four-or-more All-Star games (Anthony, English).

Jokic is averaging 26.2 points, 13.6 rebounds, 7.6 assists and 1.40 steals, while shooting .571 from the field and .371 from three in 33.2 minutes per game this season. Among the NBA ranks, Jokić is first in PER (Player Efficiency Rating) at 33.1 which would be the highest single season PER in NBA history (surpassing Chamberlain’s 32.1 in 1961-62). He leads the NBA in double-doubles (36), triple doubles (12) and 20-20 games (he has four alone while rest of NBA has eight combined).

5K AND 3K

The Nuggets started their six-game road trip with a meeting in Detroit on 1/25 and Nikola Jokic got Denver off to a 1-0 start winning 110-105. Jokic had another stat filling night, doing it all. He finished with 28 points (9-20 FG, 3-8 3FG, 7-7 FT), 21 rebounds and nine assists in 34 minutes. It marked his fourth 20/20 game of the season and the eighth of his career, the most in franchise history. The rest of the NBA has combined for a total of eight 20/20 games this season (by eight different players).

Seeing Triple

Denver’s game against the Memphis Grizzlies on 1/21 didn’t end as Denver had hoped, losing to Memphis 122-118 at home. Despite the loss, Nikola Jokic finished with 26 points (11-16 FG, 2-4 3FG), 11 rebounds, 12 assists and two steals in 40 minutes for his league leading 11th triple double. It was Jokic’s first career game with 26+ points, 11+ rebounds, 12+ assists and 2+ steals. Jokic is just one of two players (Luka Doncic) this season to put up those numbers.

It marked his fourth straight triple-double, becoming just the sixth player in NBA history to do so. Joining Russell Westbrook, Michael Jordan, Gary Payton, Magic Johnson and James Harden.

Nikola’s Historic Night

It was a masterpiece at Ball Arena on 1/19, as Nikola Jokic put together an all-time game to lead the Nuggets to a 130-80 win over the Memphis Grizzlies. Jokic recorded a season-high 50 points (18-23 FG, 6-11 3FG, 8-8 FT), 15 rebounds, 12 assists and three steals in a season-high 41 minutes.

The Joker joined Larry Bird and Russell Westbrook as the only players in NBA history to put up 45+ points, 15+ rebounds, 10+ assists and 3+ steals in a game. He also became only the second starting center since 1970-71 (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar - 1975) to have a 45+ point triple double in a winning effort and it was the fourth most points ever in a triple double by a center. It marked Jokic’s 10th career game with 40+ points (8-2) and he is now one away from tying Kiki Vandeweghe for the fourth most such games in franchise history.

The Joker Quick

The Joker had another one of those nights where he simply did everything he wanted to help the Nuggets cruise to a 133-96 win vs. the Los Angeles Lakers on 1/15. Jokic finished with 17 points (7-12 FG), 12 rebounds and 13 assists in 28 minutes for his eighth triple-double of the year. He trails only Russell Westbrook (9) for the most triple doubles in the NBA this year.

It was Jokić’s eighth career game (6-2) with 17+ points, 12+ rebounds and 13+ assists and the first time in 28 minutes or less. He also recorded his triple double in 20 minutes and 18 seconds, adding him to the list he already sits atop for the fastest triple doubles in NBA history.

2021-2022 Denver Nuggets Game Notes
TRIPLE DOUBLE EDITION

The Nuggets fell to the Utah Jazz 115-109 at Ball Arena on 1/5, dropping their home record to 8-7 on the season. Despite the loss, Nikola Jokić was all world once again. Jokić recorded 26 points (10-17 FG, 5-6 FT), 21 rebounds, 11 assists and two blocks in 37 minutes for his seventh triple-double of the season. It also marks his league leading third 20/20 game, doing all in his last six games and he is the only player in the NBA to have multiple such games.

Jokić is the first player in the NBA since Billy Cunningham (12/20/70) to post 26+ points, 21+ rebounds and 11+ assists in game. It was his second career 25+ points/20+ rebounds/10+ assist game, (both against Utah). He is only the fifth player (Chamberlain, Robertson, Baylor, Abdul-Jabbar) to record multiple triple-doubles with 20+ points, 20+ rebounds and 10+ assists in a career.

20/20 CLUB

The last two games played by Nikola Jokić may be the best two game streak the Nuggets franchise has ever seen. Despite losing to the Charlotte Hornets at home on 12/23, Jokić finished with 29 points, 21 rebounds and five assists in 35 minutes to record his first 20/20 game of the season. He followed that performance up in the next game on 12/26 at the Los Angeles Clippers, recording 26 points (9-24 FG’s, 7-7 FT’s), a career-high tying 22 points, eight assists and two steals in 38 minutes, leading the Nuggets to a 103-100 victory.

Jokić became the first player in Nuggets franchise history to have back-to-back 20+ point/20+ rebound games and the first player in the NBA to have 20+ points, 20+ rebounds and 5+ assists in back-to-back games since Charles Barkley in 1988. It also marks his sixth career 20/20 game, passing Marcus Camby for the most in franchise history.

JOKIĆ ON A TEAR

Despite losing at home to the Minnesota Timberwolves on 12/15, the Nuggets have won two of their last three games and a big reason why is Nikola Jokić. Jokić led the way against Minnesota finishing with 27 points (11-16 FG, 2-4 3FG), 11 assists and 10 rebounds in 35 minutes for his sixth triple-double of the season in seven games from 12/6-12/17, the Joker has raised his MVP game to another level, averaging 26.9 points, 13.1 rebounds, 10.1 assists and 1.9 steals while shooting 59.2% from the field and 36.7% from three. In those seven games, he had four triple doubles, two games with 17+ assists.

ALL-TIME TRIPLE DOUBLES

Nikola Jokić continued his dominate start to the season, despite losing to the San Antonio Spurs 123-111 on the road on 12/9, Jokić moved up the all-time triple double list. The big man registered 22 points (8-19 FG), 13 rebounds and 10 assists in 35 minutes for his third straight triple double and fifth of the season.

He joins an elite list of players (Harden, James, Johnson, Jordan), of NBA players who have had three straight triple doubles at least twice in their career. Jokić now has 69 triple-doubles in his career, ranking 6th all-time.

CAN’T STOP THE JOKER

Nikola Jokić had one of those nights where no one in the world could stop him, this time coming on the road against the New Orleans Pelicans on 12/8. The Joker led the Nuggets to a 120-114 overtime victory, finishing the night with a season-high 39 points (17-23 FG’s), 11 assists and 11 rebounds in 37 minutes to record his second straight triple double and the 61st of his career. Jokić scored 11 straight points in overtime to put the Pelicans away – the most points in overtime for a Nuggets player since the 1996-97 season.

It marked the ninth 30+ point triple double of his career, the most in NBA history by a center not named Wilt Chamberlain. He’s also the fourth player in NBA history with three or more 30-point triple doubles on 70% FG’s (Chamberlain-10, M. Johnson-4, Robertson-3).
The Nuggets took down the Orlando Magic 121-111 at home on 2/14 ... Denver have grabbed 50+ rebounds for the fifth consecutive game, the longest streak since April 1991 ... The only longer streak in team history was six in a row in November 1976 ... All time, Denver is 55-18 when Nikola Jokic gets 15 or more rebounds.

Denver is 15-0 this year when scoring 120+ points and has reached that mark in 7 of its last 11 home games.

Denver beat the Toronto Raptors 110-109 on the second night of back-to-back on 2/12 ... The Nuggets have now held 17 straight opponents below 50% FG, which is the second longest streak in Denver history (22 in Jan-Apr 1994) ... Memphis (21) is the only NBA team with a longer streak.

Denver fell on the road 108-102 to the Boston Celtics on 2/11 ... The Nuggets have now made 10+ 3FG in 16 consecutive games, the longest streak in Denver history ... It was just the seventh time that Denver has ever made 10+ against Boston (Denver is 5-1 in those games).

The Nuggets beat the New York Knicks at home 132-115 on 2/8 ... Denver scored a season-high 83 points in the first half ... It was tied for the fourth most points in a half in franchise history ... The 83 points also is a season-high in the NBA for points in a half ... The Knicks have only allowed more than 83 points in a half in one other time, 1/15/66 against the Lakers (84).

Will Barton recorded 20 points (8-12 FG, 4-6 3FG), seven rebounds and five assists in 37 minutes vs. NYK on 2/8 ... It was Barton’s first game of the year with 20+ points, 7+ rebounds and 5+ assists ... Barton has now scored 20+ points in 14 games this season, his third most in a single season and most since 2017-18 (24) ... Barton is just 12 three-pointers away from passing J.R. Smith for the Nuggets franchise record in made threes.

The Nuggets held Brooklyn to just 29 points in the second half on 2/6 ... It was a season-low allowed by Denver in the second half and the first time doing so since 12/9/13 at WAS ... It was the 11th time in franchise history holding an opponent to 29 or fewer points in the second half.

Denver beat the Brooklyn Nets 124-104 at home on 2/6, snapping their three-game losing streak ... The Nuggets outrebounded Brooklyn 55-36 (+19), moving to 19-8 overall and 8-3 at home when outrebounding their opponent ... The +19 rebound margin was tied for Denver’s third highest this year.

Nikola Jokic registered 27 points (12-15 FG), 12 rebounds, 10 assists and two steals in 30 minutes for his league leading 14th triple-double of the year vs. BKN on 2/6 ... It was his sixth career game with 27+ points, 12+ rebounds, 10+ assists and 2+ steals (6-0) ... With his 12 made field goals, Jokic passed Byron Beck for sixth all-time in franchise history in total made field goals (3,684).

Will Barton posted 21 points (7-12 FG, 5-6 FT), six rebounds and four assists in 33 minutes vs. BKN on 2/6 ... It was Barton’s second game of the year with 21+ points, 6+ rebounds and 4+ assists, both coming against Brooklyn and Barton has already scored 20+ points in 13 games this season, tied for his third most in a single season and most since 2017-18 (24).

The Nuggets lost to the New Orleans Pelicans 113-105 in their return home on 2/4 ... Denver made 19 3FG’s for the 17th time in team history, but this was their first ever loss doing so ... Nine different Nuggets made a three.

Denver lost to the Utah Jazz 108-104 on 2/2, losing their second straight game ... Denver's bench scored 57 points (22-33 FG, 9-15 3pt-FG). Bryn Forbes led all scorers with 26 points off the bench. Denver had won the last six times having the game's leading scorer ... The last time the Nuggets lost a road game when a reserve scored 26+ was 12/27/17 at Minnesota.

The Nuggets fell to the Minnesota Timberwolves 130-115 on the road on 2/1, snapping their five-game winning streak ... Denver had won seven straight games at Minnesota before the loss, tied for the second longest road winning streak against any NBA team.

1st Game Record | 5-5 | 2nd Game Record | 3-7 |
Overall Record: 337-299  Record w/ Denver: 298-232 (7th season)

Michael Malone enters his seventh season as head coach of the Denver Nuggets. He was named the 16th head coach in Denver’s NBA franchise history on June 15, 2015 and currently ranks third all-time amongst Nuggets head coaches with 298 wins.

Last season saw Coach Malone lead the Nuggets to a 47-25 record in a 72-game shortened season as they clinched a playoff berth for the third straight year. Denver finished the season tying a franchise record with 22 road wins, securing the third seed in the Western Conference and became the only team in the NBA to have home court advantage in the playoffs in each of the last three seasons.

In the playoffs, despite missing Jamal Murray due to injury, Malone helped lead the Nuggets to a 4-2 first round series victory over the Portland Trail Blazers. It was a historic series win for Denver as they won a playoff series in three straight seasons for the first time in franchise history. It marked the fourth playoff series win in the last three seasons, after winning a total of four in the last 32 years. It was also the first time in Nuggets history they clinched a best of seven series on the road (excluding the bubble).

Since Malone has taken over prior to the 2015-16 season, the Nuggets have seen the postseason on three occasions including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2020, the first for the franchise since 2009. The Nuggets are also second in the NBA, trailing only the Milwaukee Bucks for the most combined regular season and postseason wins in a three-year span with 167. Malone has totaled 20 postseason wins, sitting fourth all-time in franchise history trailing Doug Moe by four for first.

Malone has 305 victories as an NBA head coach and possesses over 24 years of coaching experience, 20 coming in the NBA with six different teams – New York, Cleveland, New Orleans, Golden State, Sacramento and Denver. The teams that Malone has been a member of the coaching staff have amassed 12 playoff appearances, including one NBA Finals showing and three conference finals appearances. Malone and his staff also were selected to coach Team LeBron at the 2019 NBA All-Star game in Charlotte, NC, defeating Team Giannis 178-164.

Before joining the Nuggets, Malone served as the head coach of the Sacramento Kings for two seasons. Before his time with the Kings, Malone was the lead assistant for the Golden State Warriors under Mark Jackson from 2011-13 where they clinched a postseason berth in 2013, their first since 2007.

Prior to Golden State, Malone worked as the lead assistant to Monty Williams in New Orleans and helped the Hornets achieve a 46-36 record and a trip to the 2011 NBA Playoffs. The Hornets were the most improved defensive team in the NBA in 2011, allowing a league-best 8.7 fewer points per game than in the previous campaign (94.0 ppg, after giving up 102.7 ppg in 2009-10).

Malone also served as an assistant coach under Mike Brown for the Cleveland Cavaliers for five seasons, during which the Cavs posted a 272-138 (.663) record, the third-best mark in the NBA over that span. The Cavaliers made five consecutive playoff appearances during Malone’s time on the bench, reaching the NBA Finals in 2007 and the Eastern Conference Finals in 2009. In 2008-09, the Cavs notched a franchise record and NBA-best 66 wins, with Malone and the rest of the team’s staff earning the right to coach the Eastern Conference All-Star squad. In 2009-10, the Cavaliers again captured the league’s best regular season record with 61 wins.

Malone’s NBA coaching career began with a four-season stint with the New York Knicks, where he originally joined Jeff Van Gundy’s staff as a coaching associate in the summer of 2001, and was promoted to assistant coach in May 2003.

Before joining the NBA, Malone coached seven years in the college ranks, with his last stop coming at Manhattan College where he was the lead assistant. During the 1998-99 season Malone worked at the University of Virginia as its director of men’s basketball administration. Malone also spent three seasons (1995-96 – 1997-98) at Providence College under New York Basketball Hall of Fame coach Pete Gillen after beginning his coaching career working for Greg Kampe at Oakland University in Michigan.

Malone is a three-time participant in the NBA’s “Basketball Without Borders” program, having coached at the league’s global outreach camps in Africa (2017), Puerto Rico (2006) and Argentina (2005). In 2017 Malone traveled to Johannesburg, South Africa where he spent a week coaching at the BWB camps and then served as an assistant coach for Team Africa, for the NBA Africa Game 2017.

Malone also served as an assistant coach for the Canadian Men’s Senior National Team for three years. He helped guide the Canadian team to a top-four finish in the 2009 FIBA Americas Championship in Puerto Rico, qualifying Canada for the 2010 World Championships.

A native of Queens, New York, Malone played college basketball at Loyola College in Maryland, where he graduated with a BA degree in 1994. He is a graduate of New Jersey’s Seton Hall Prep where he played two years under Bob Farrell. Malone also played a season under Tom Blackburn at Worcester Academy (Mass.).

Michael is the son of longtime NBA coach Brendan Malone, who has coached over 28 years in the league.

He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Caitlin and Bridget.
