GAME #79 - TORONTO RAPTORS (25-53) vs. INDIANA PACERS (45-34)

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 2024 - 7:00 P.M. (ET) - SCOTIABANK ARENA

TV: SPORTSNET / RADIO: SPORTSNET APP

TEAM NOTES

- The Toronto Raptors play their last home game of the 2023-24 campaign Tuesday night against the visiting Indiana Pacers. Toronto leads the season series 2-1, with the road team winning all three of the games thus far. The Raptors have won or tied their season series with the Pacers in 10 of their last 12 seasons (2012-13 to 2023-24).
- Toronto defeated Washington 130-122 Sunday night and have now won consecutive games (Apr. 5-7) for the first time since a season-high three-game winning streak Feb. 22-26 (which included a victory against Indiana). Sunday marked the first time in franchise history where four Raptors recorded 20 points, five rebounds & five assists in a single game (Barrett, Olynk, Quickley and Trent Jr.). Per Stathead, it was just the eighth time in league history where four players on the same team posted 20/5/5 statlines in a game, and first since Feb. 11, 1972.
- Toronto native RJ Barrett played in his 30th game with the Raptors Sunday night against Washington. He has scored 638 points through his first 30 contests with his hometown team, while shooting career highs of .547 (249-455) from the field and .407 (46-113) from three-point range. The only player with more points through their first 30 games as a Raptor was Kawhi Leonard who scored 819 points on .497 (286-576) FG% and .361 (52-144) 3PT %.
- Rookie Gradey Dick has now scored in double figures in six straight games (Mar. 27 - Apr. 7), averaging 14.7 points while shooting .466 (34-73) from the field and .414 (12-29) from three-point range over this span. The only Raptors rookies in the last 15 seasons (2009-10 to 2023-24) to record longer 10+ point streaks are Jonas Valanciunas (12 games; Mar. 15 - Apr. 6, 2013) and teammate Scottie Barnes (4X - last: Mar. 24 - Apr. 8, 2022).
- Both Toronto (1st; 19.0) and Indiana (4th; 16.4) rank in the top-five in the NBA in fast break points. Gary Trent Jr. (90) and Pascal Siakam (89) lead their respective teams in fast break points since All-Star, and rank ninth and 10th, respectively, in the NBA over that span. Toronto (4th; 54.1) and Indiana (1st; 57.6) also rank atop the league in points in the paint. The Raptors hold a +43 (66-23) advantage on the fast break and a +58 advantage in the paint (162-104) over the teams' last two match ups (Feb. 14 in Toronto and Feb. 26 in Indiana).
- Tonight marks Toronto's final home game of the season. This year will be just the second time in the last 10 seasons where the Raptors will finish below .500 at home (other: 2020-21 campaign played in Tampa where they finished 16-20). Toronto (.652) ranks sixth in the NBA in home win-loss percentage over the last 10 seasons (2014-15 to 2023-24), trailing only Golden State (.732), Boston (.695), Milwaukee (.681), Denver (.660) and LA Clippers (.660).

DARKO RAJAKOVIĆ HEAD COACH

The passion Darko Rajaković (rye-AHK-oe-vich) has for the game of basketball has led him around the world. From Madrid, Spain to Tulsa, Oklahoma, each of these experiences have added to Rajaković's beliefs and philosophies, shaping him into the coach, father, and leader he is today.

Raised in Serbia during a civil war, Rajaković fell in love with basketball during a time of unrest in his homeland. The basketball court became his safe haven, a place where he and his friends could gather and play until the wee hours of the morning.

It was fitting Rajaković started his coaching career in his hometown of Cacak, Serbia. At just 16 years of age, he embarked on a life-long journey of teaching others a game that brought him such joy. This started with the local Borac Cacak Youth Team in 1996. After three seasons with the club, he was named the head coach of the U20 and U18 teams of Red Star Belgrade, leading Red Star to two Serbian Youth championships during his eight-year tenure (1999-2007).

Rajaković then ventured to Spain where he coached Espacio Torreloñes for three successful seasons (2009-12). In his first year with the franchise, he led the team to the championship of the Primera Division de Baloncesto in Madrid.

From 2004-11, Rajaković held his first formal job with an NBA team, serving as a European scouting consultant and NBA Summer League assistant coach for the San Antonio Spurs.

His time in Serbia, Spain and San Antonio ultimately led Rajaković to the Oklahoma City Thunder, where he spent seven seasons (2012-19). Rajaković joined the organization in 2012 as the head coach of the Tulsa 66ers – the franchise's then NBA G League affiliate, and became the first head coach born outside of North America in league history. Under his guidance, the team went 51-49 (.510) over two seasons and reached the 2013 G League semifinals. In 2014, Rajaković was honoured as one of Oklahoma City's assistant coaches at the NBA All-Star game in New Orleans.

Rajaković transitioned from the G League to the NBA at the start of the 2014-15 campaign, in what would be his first of five seasons as an assistant coach with the Thunder (2014-19). Oklahoma City averaged 49 wins during his time on the coaching staff and earned four playoff appearances - including a trip to the 2016 Western Conference Finals.

Rajaković also spent time in the NBA as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns (2019-20) and Memphis Grizzlies (2020-23), before being named the 10th head coach in Toronto Raptors history in June of 2023.

On the international stage, Rajaković was as an assistant coach for Serbia at the 2019 FIBA World Cup in China, helping his country to a fifth place finish at the tournament, which included a win over the United States in the classification round.

Rajaković prides himself on being a life-long learner. He earned a basketball coaching degree from the Belgrade Basketball Academy in 2004 and a degree in sports management from Alfa BK University in Belgrade in 2006.

He and his wife, Gaga, reside in Toronto with their six-year-old son, Luka.
