TEAM vs. TIMBERWOLVES

February 10 at Minnesota
The Golden State Warriors will play three preseason games at Chase Center, the Warriors’ new 18,064-seat privately financed sports and entertainment arena in San Francisco’s Mission Bay neighborhood, as part of a five-game schedule. The slate includes the first-ever game at Chase Center on Saturday, October 5 vs. the Los Angeles Lakers, which marks the first NBA game in the city of San Francisco since January 29, 1971, when the Warriors defeated the Buffalo Braves, 106-100, at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium.

Following their preseason opener on October 5, the Warriors will host the Minnesota Timberwolves on Thursday, October 10 before traveling to Los Angeles for a pair of matchups with the Lakers at Staples Center on Monday, October 14 and Wednesday, October 16. The Warriors return home for their fifth and final preseason tilt, again facing the Lakers on Friday, October 18. For the first time since 1980, the Warriors will play a team (Los Angeles Lakers) four times in a single preseason. The Warriors’ 2019 preseason schedule will be played entirely within the state of California for the first time since the lockout-shortened 2011 preseason.

The last time the Warriors played a game in San Francisco was on January 29, 1971, at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium, a 106-100 win over the Buffalo Braves. After playing 16 seasons in Philadelphia, the Warriors moved to San Francisco and played their first season in the Bay in 1962-63. The Warriors moved permanently across the Bay to the Oakland Coliseum Arena prior to the start of the 1971-72 season.

Joining the Warriors 2019-20 training camp roster are D’Angelo Russell, Alec Burks, Willie Cauley-Stein, Marquese Chriss, Andrew Harrison, Glenn Robinson III, Omari Spellman and rookies Jordan Poole, Eric Paschall and Alen Smailagic. Russell, acquired in a trade with the Brooklyn Nets, was an All-Star last season, posting career-high averages with 21.1 points (.434 FG%, .369 3P%, .780 FT%), 3.9 rebounds, 7.0 assists in 30.2 minutes per game. He also averaged 1.23 steals per contest.

Stephen Curry, Klay Thompson, Draymond Green, Kevon Looney, Alfonzo McKinnie, Jacob Evans III and Damion Lee are the only Warriors to remain from last season’s squad. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, this season will be the first since 2011-12 the Warriors have at least eight new players joining the team (Klay Thompson, Kwame Brown, Brandon Rush, Dominic McGuire, Ish Smith, Charles Jenkins, Jeremy Tyler and Chris Wright).

Chase Center is a privately financed 18,064-seat sports and entertainment arena in San Francisco’s Mission Bay neighborhood that is home to the six-time NBA champion Golden State Warriors and hosts nearly 200 events per year, including concerts, family shows and special performances. Easily accessible by foot, bicycle or mass transit, Chase Center anchors Thrive City—a multipurpose complex consisting of 3.2 acres of publicly accessible plazas and dozens of unique restaurant and retail locations, in addition to year-round health and wellness programming.

- Chase Center (not THE Chase Center).
- Warriors’ new 18,064-seat, privately-financed, state-of-the-art arena in the Mission Bay neighborhood of San Francisco.
- Chase Center anchors Thrive City, 3.2 acres of public plazas and open space with over two dozen retail locations located throughout the property that will debut over the course of the first year.
- The project triggers the creation of a 5.5-acre public park on the waterfront, across from Chase Center.
- Warriors return to San Francisco, where they played for nine (9) years after moving West from Philadelphia in 1962.
- The arena will serve as the new home of the Golden State Warriors along with concerts, family shows, cultural events and more, totaling nearly 200 events a year.
- The first event was scheduled for Friday, September 6 --- Metallica and the San Francisco Symphony. Other concerts that Chase Center hosted in the first few weeks included Elton John, Janet Jackson, Dave Matthews, and Eric Clapton.
- The Warriors will play their first game in Chase Center on Saturday, October 5 (preseason game vs. Lakers).
- Developed with Samsung, Chase Center features the NBA’s largest scoreboard with over 9,500 square feet of LED space. Fully retracts into the ceiling for optimal concert going experience.
- Chase Center will feature eight kitchens (compared to one at Oracle Arena) with their food program featuring “Only in the Bay Area” experiences including Oakland’s Bakesale Betty, San Francisco’s Tacolicious, Sam’s Chowder House of Half Moon Bay, the exclusive Hot Dog Bill’s Burger Dog, Tony G’s Pizza, La Cocina, Old Skool Cafe and Big Nate’s BBQ.
- 1% of the overall budget for Chase Center is committed to public art around Thrive City and inside Chase Center. Chase Center and Thrive City will feature art from international artist Olafur Eliasson (located outside the East Entrance of Chase Center), Sports and the Arts commissioned one-of-a-kind, museum-quality art and photography created by local artists that showcases Warriors, entertainment and regional history, the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art (SFMOMA) loaned two pieces and commissioned two pieces, and naming rights partner Chase provided artwork from their JP Morgan Chase Art Collection.
