On March 26, 1993, a group of 22 investors purchased the San Antonio Spurs. The group currently numbers 20 investors who are members of a limited liability company known as San Antonio Spurs, L.L.C. The ownership group has a seven-person governing and decision-making body and Peter M. Holt serves as the Chairman of the group. Listed below are the current members of San Antonio Spurs, L.L.C.:

Now in his 12th season as Chairman and CEO ... he and his wife, Julianna Hawn Holt, bought into the Spurs ownership group in 1996 ... since that time the organization has enjoyed unprecedented growth and success ... four NBA championships, a successful campaign for a new arena and two new San Antonio-based sports franchises are among the accomplishments achieved during Holt’s tenure ... thanks in part to the AT&T Center – which opened in November of 2002 – the organization is now known as Spurs Sports & Entertainment ... with over 200 full-time employees, Spurs Sports & Entertainment runs four professional sports franchises – the Spurs, the Silver Stars, the Rampage and the Austin Toros – while also managing the day-to-day operations of the AT&T Center ... over the last 10 seasons (since Tim Duncan joined the team in 1997–98) the Spurs have posted a regular season record of 559-229 ... the team’s winning percentage of .709 during that span is the best of any team in the four major sports (MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL) ... during the Duncan era the Spurs have captured four NBA championships (1999, 2003, 2005 and 2007) ... the Spurs organization has twice been named the best franchise in professional sports (2003 and 2005) in the annual ESPN The Magazine Ultimate Standings survey (each year the Ultimate Standings ranks every professional team in a formula using analysis of team financial data combined with fan feedback in which over 30,000 fans judge teams by eight factors including players, bang for the buck, ownership, and stadium experience) ... in June of 2007 SS&E purchased the Austin Toros of the NBA Development League (joining the Lakers as the second NBA franchise to own and operate their own D-League team) ... the great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first track-type tractor which became the basis for Caterpillar Inc. ... serves as the CEO of San Antonio-based HOLT CAT (the firm still displays several of Ben Holt’s early tractors outside its headquarters) which is the largest Caterpillar dealership in the United States ... born in Peoria, Illinois ... lived in San Antonio as a child before moving to Corpus Christi, where he graduated from high school ... served two years in the U.S. Army during which time he earned a Silver Star, three Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart from his one-year tour of duty in Vietnam ... ended his military service as a Sergeant E5 ... a staunch believer in community service ... is proud of the Spurs commitment to South Texas and its residents (in 2000 the Spurs earned the Pro Team Community Award presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame, an award presented annually to the professional sports franchise that best illustrates exceptional community involvement and fosters community pride and spirit) ... among the Spurs community efforts are the Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, the annual county-wide United Way campaign and a variety of educational outreach programs which service over 85 percent of the elementary schools in Bexar County (during the 2006–07 season over 200,000 area students were touched by the various Spurs Sports & Entertainment education programs) ... Holt’s own efforts include a lengthy list of community service positions ... in July of 2007 was appointed chairman of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission by Governor Rick Perry ... a member of the World Presidents’ Organization ... serves as a board member for Free Trade Alliance San Antonio, the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation, the Trust Company and the Texas State Aquarium ... is a trustee of Trinity University and serves on the advisory board of the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas ... past chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County ... he and Julianna have been Spurs season ticket holders since 1988.
GREGG POPOVICH
