LA Clippers Week of Action

January 12

Community Conversation with the National Civil Rights Museum

Details: The LA Clippers will host a virtual Community Conversation for staff with The National Civil Rights Museum at the Historic Lorraine Motel. The motel transitioned into the museum in September 1991 and chronicles the key episodes of the American Civil Rights Movement. A museum educator will guide staff on this journey of American history through the lens of the National Civil Rights Museum.

January 14

Virtual Mentorship Roundtable Conversation

Details: Partnering with Brotherhood Crusade for a virtual roundtable conversation. LA Clippers players Brandon Boston, Jr. and Amir Coffey will participate in the conversation with local high school youth. Three youth from Brotherhood Crusade will moderate the discussion with topics including the life and legacy of Dr. King, leadership, mentorship and overcoming obstacles.
