Orlando Magic Week of Action

In honor of MLK Day and Dr. King's pursuit of racial, social, and economic justice, the Orlando Mayor's Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Commission has joined with corporate and community partners to plan and promote a variety of programs and events that celebrate his life and legacy.

Orlando Magic employees, fans and community members are encouraged to sign the Orlando Community Pledge: We condemn racism and discrimination in all forms and commit to equality, justice, peace, respect and inclusion for all through equity, service and action in our daily lives.

Orlando Community Pledge

In celebration of National Mentoring Month, the Magic will host a Magic of Mentoring celebration where nonprofit organizations, community leaders and youth will be recognized during the Orlando Magic vs. Detroit Pistons game on January 28th. Orlando Magic Community Ambassadors, Nick Anderson and Bo Outlaw will participate in the mentoring sessions.

Orlando Magic encourages community members to support local Black-owned businesses and restaurants and reference learning resources on Walk With Us website.
