HEAD COACH MILES SIMON

Miles Simon returns for his fifth season on the Lakers coaching staff, having been a member of the 2020 NBA Championship staff under Head Coach Frank Vogel. Simon has twice led the charge for Lakers summer league teams, leading the team to a championship game birth for the second-straight summer in 2018, after taking home the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League title as an assistant on the staff. Simon has been responsible for the pre-draft workout process, as well as all offseason development programs for current Lakers players. Simon will also begin his first season as the head coach of the South Bay Lakers in 2021-22.

Simon first joined the Lakers staff after serving as head coach of the 2017 USA Junior National Select Team for the Nike Hoops Summit, leading the USA to a victory over the World Select Team. Simon won gold medals as an assistant for the 2016 USA Men's U17 World Championship Team, as well as the 2015 USA Men's U16 National Team.

In addition to his work with USA Basketball, Simon spent nine NBA off-seasons from 2008-16 working in a player development role with some of the league's top talent and has served as the Director of the Nike Basketball Academy since 2015. Simon has also worked in broadcasting, serving as a college basketball analyst for ESPN.
