Taylor Jenkins enters his fifth season as head coach of the Memphis Grizzlies after being named to the position on June 11, 2019.

Jenkins has guided the Grizzlies to consecutive 50-win campaigns, back-to-back Southwest Division championships and three straight postseason appearances, securing the No. 2 seed in the Western Conference Playoffs in each of the past two seasons. Jenkins finished second in the voting for the 2021-22 NBA Coach of the Year award after leading Memphis to a 56-26 record, which matched the best single-season record in franchise history, and clinching the club's first-ever division title. He has received the Western Conference Coach of the Month award three times (January 2020, December 2021, March/April 2023).

Memphis has established a new franchise record for scoring average in each of Jenkins' first four seasons on the sidelines, averaging 116.9 points last season, and owns four of the NBA's six highest paint scoring averages since the NBA began tracking the data in 1996-97. During the 2021-22 season, the Grizzlies became the first team in NBA history to lead the league in rebounds, steals and blocks (while also pacing the league in offensive rebounds, points in the paint, second chance points and fast break points that season).

The Grizzlies qualified for the inaugural NBA Play-In Game in 2020 with one of the league's youngest rosters and advanced to the 2021 NBA Playoffs after winning two games in the 2021 NBA Play-In Tournament.

Jenkins joined the Grizzlies on June 11, 2019, after serving the 2018-19 season with the Milwaukee Bucks as an assistant coach under two-time NBA Coach of the Year Mike Budenholzer. Jenkins helped guide the team to the NBA's best regular season record (60-22), a trip to the 2019 Eastern Conference Finals and the league's highest-scoring offense (118.1 points). He was an assistant coach for Team Giannis in the 2019 NBA All-Star Game.

Before his time with the Bucks, Jenkins spent five seasons (2013-18) as an assistant coach under Budenholzer with the Atlanta Hawks, where he helped coach the team to four postseason appearances, including the 2015 Eastern Conference Finals. He was an assistant coach for the 2015 NBA Eastern Conference All-Star Team.

Jenkins' previous experience includes one season (2012-13) as head coach of the Austin Toros (now Spurs), the NBA G League affiliate of the San Antonio Spurs, where he led the team to the NBA G League Playoffs. Jenkins spent four seasons (2008-12) as an assistant coach with the Toros, working under head coaches Quin Snyder and Brad Jones, and was a member of the club's 2012 championship team and playoff runs in 2009 and 2010. He interned with San Antonio's basketball operations department during the 2007-08 season.

Jenkins attended The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics while concentrating in Management and minoring in Psychology. He and his wife, Chantall, have three sons and one daughter.
